INSTRUCTIONS

To the Certifying Medical Professional: this cover sheet to be attached to your diagnosis report. In order to support the student’s request for accommodations, the documentation explaining the diagnosis should be comprehensive. Whenever applicable, please follow the guidelines below:

- History: Your report should include a history of presenting symptoms, date of onset, duration and severity of the disorder, and relevant developmental and historical data.
- Diagnosis: Your report should include a specific diagnosis.
- Rule Out: The report should provide evidence that alternative etiologies or explanations have been considered in a differential diagnosis and ruled in or out as appropriate. Such alternative explanations include substance abuse; medication effects; psychiatric, learning, and attentional disorders; and motivational factors affecting performance/functioning.
- Impact:
  - The documentation should describe the current functional limitations in the academic and employment environment. The description should include medical information describing the degree to which the current functional limitations restrict the condition, manner, or duration under which the student can perform a major life activity as compared to the average person in the general population.
  - The report should provide relevant information regarding current treatment for this or any other conditions, and their degree of impact on the student’s academic performance.
  - Report should mention any mitigating factors, such as medication or hearing aids.
- Accommodations:
  - The documentation should include recommendations for accommodations, including a rationale for each accommodation requested. A link should be established between the requested accommodations and the functional limitations of the individual that are pertinent to the anticipated testing situation.
  - If there is no prior history of accommodations, the evaluator and/or the student should include a detailed explanation of why accommodations were not needed in the past and why they are now being requested.
