MESSAGE FROM THE SBA PRESIDENT

Fellow Fighting Swans,

The Student Bar Association welcomes you to a new year at Vermont Law School. Vermont Law School draws a unique body of energetic and dedicated students who will advocate law for the world and the community. This all starts, here, in the Vermont Law School community.

The Vermont Law Student Bar Association represents your interest and needs. All students are members of the SBA, so we work with you and for you. Elected and appointed representatives cannot fulfill their duties if you are not involved. Please reach out to me or any SBA representatives throughout the year. I hope you engage in the biweekly Senate meetings in the Chase Community Center, join committees, run for elected positions, participate in opinion polls, and attend Town Hall Meetings.

Vermont Law School has a host of active student organizations. I encourage you to bring your unique talents and perspectives and participate. Being involved on campus strengthens the Vermont Law School community and contributes to a rich and rigorous legal education.

Vermont Law School’s student groups cater to a wide range of legal and nonlegal interests. You can talk with colleagues about what you are learning in the classroom, making the information more meaningful and increasing your understanding. Find what sparks your interest and get involved.

Lastly, remember to enjoy rural Vermont. There is a great deal to experience here that is like no place else. Relish in it. I look forward to serving you as SBA president during the 2013–14 school year. I wish everyone the best in your educational, extracurricular, and personal year to come.

Respectfully,

Christopher M. F. Smith
JD Candidate, 2014
President, Student Bar Association
WELCOME!

We are delighted to see you and hope everything is off to a good start for the semester. If you are a first-year JD student, or a MELP or LLM student, we are particularly glad that you have chosen Vermont Law School, and we are confident that, in no time at all, you will know that VLS is the right choice for you. You are probably busy meeting new friends, learning your way around campus and the village of South Royalton, and perhaps checking out the social life. Before you know it, classes will begin, and you will be launched headlong into the fall semester. If you are a second- or third-year law student, we welcome you back to a new and exciting academic year.

Best wishes for a successful year!

Marc Mihaly, President and Dean
Lorraine Atwood, Vice President for Finance and Administration
Shirley A. Jefferson, Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity
Mark Latham, Vice Dean for Academic Affairs

EXTERNSHIP PROGRAMS
Roger’s House 2nd Floor
The Externship Program at Vermont Law School provides students the opportunity to participate in three different offerings: Semester in Practice (SiP) (full-time externship); Part-Time Externship; and Judicial Externship (offered on a full- and part-time basis). Students apprentice (without pay) with lawyers in all areas of practice or in judicial chambers. These externships provide an opportunity—through observation, participation, practice, and reflection—to improve students’ legal knowledge and skills and to inform and expand their vision of what the practice and profession of law can be.

The overarching goal of the externship program is to provide opportunities for students to develop lawyering skills, learn substantive law, and engage in critical reflection about the legal profession, their legal career, and their priorities and values as lawyers and individuals through supervised field experiences and the contemporaneous seminar.

Students may participate in the externships in their fourth, fifth, and sixth semester.

FOOD SERVICE ON CAMPUS
The firm, Fitz, Vogt & Associates LTD provides food services for Vermont Law School. The school’s food service philosophy is to provide local and sustainably grown food products whenever feasible. We work with local farms and dairies to bring us the fresh vegetables, meats, cheeses, maple syrup, and other foods that make Vermont a leader in sustainable agriculture.

The Café
The Café operates Monday through Thursday from 7:30 AM to 3:00 PM and Fridays from 7:30 AM to 2:00 PM, except semester breaks, Summer Session, and holidays. The Café offers light breakfast foods, full meals, salads, sandwiches, and snacks. Students may open a pre-paid account with The Café. To enroll in the program or to deposit funds in an existing account, please see a Café staff member during regular business hours. A $25 fee will apply on all returned checks.

Grounds for Appeal
Grounds for Appeal is located in The Café and is a student-run coffee shop featuring organic teas, lattes, cappuccinos and, every so often, home-baked goods. All the money raised goes toward the graduating class gift and commencement. Hours of operation are flexible.

- Catering of On-and Off-Campus Events
  All off-campus and on-campus events must be approved by the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity. Please refer to the Office for Student Affairs and Diversity section below, or go to www.vermontlaw.edu/events for further information on planning catered events.

- Composting
  VLS collaborates with Luna Blue Farm, a certified organic farm in South Royalton, and one of our local farmers, to compost the food waste on campus. All food in The Café and at events is compostable. Compost bins for food waste are located in The Café. Learn more about this effort from the Campus Greening Committee.

- Alcohol Catering Permits
  All alcohol service is provided by Fitz Vogt, for a fee. To serve alcohol at any event at Vermont Law School, an application for a permit must be filed with the state licensing agency a minimum of six weeks prior to your event. Applications for alcohol permits must be submitted through the Events Scheduler. There are no exceptions on the alcohol procedure and no guarantee of license approval. No alcohol can be served on campus without a state certified liquor permit!

Refer to the Office for Student Affairs and Diversity section below, or go to the K drive under K:\Students\Event Planning for further information on planning events. See also the Alcohol Policy listed under Policies and Procedures in this Student Handbook.
THE GENERAL PRACTICE PROGRAM
Rogers House, 1st Floor
The General Practice Program (GPP) is an elective program for second- and third-year students. Students must apply for admission in the spring semester of their first year. The GPP features small, interactive classes and a hands-on, experiential approach to learning the practice of law. It fulfills the VLS skills requirement and benefits any student whether they plan to practice law after graduation or take these skills into business, politics, or another field.

HUMAN RESOURCES AND PAYROLL
Anderson House, 1st Floor
The Human Resources Department is responsible for all programs, services, and systems that enable VLS to recruit, reward, and retain high performing employees. This includes such areas as staffing, compensation, benefits, performance management, training, employee relations, legal compliance, and organizational design.

While Human Resources administers payroll, all students must first report to the financial aid office to obtain their work authorization form. Once you have this document, please read it, sign it, and have your supervisor read and sign it and then bring the form to HR (Chantelle Lyman). You must also (in person) be prepared to complete both a W4 tax form and an I-9 form with proper identification within the first three days of beginning your work study position.

LEGAL WRITING PROGRAM

The Old Schoolhouse

The Legal Writing Program strives to make every student a better writer. The intensive, required three-semester program is designed to prepare students for practice by teaching the essential skills of critical thinking, applied analysis, and legal communication. Students write a variety of documents in different writing styles over the course of the three semesters. Professors in the program work closely with every student to establish a dialog on the particular strengths and weaknesses of their writing. Through the program, VLS students become accomplished, confident writers.

REGISTRAR’S OFFICE

Abbott House, 1st Floor

The Registrar’s Office maintains the educational records of all students upon their matriculation at Vermont Law School. As stated in VLS’ FERPA policy, students have the right to review everything in their files and to challenge any perceived inaccuracy, with the exception of letters of recommendation to which they have waived the right of access. Students are required to provide the Registrar’s Office with an official copy of their transcript (LSDAS copies are not official) from their degree-granting institution(s) and from all other institutions whose credits are not reflected on the transcript(s) from the degree-granting institution(s) at the time of matriculation. Students who have not satisfied this requirement will have a registration hold placed on their record preventing them from registering for classes until the hold is cleared upon receipt of the required transcript(s).

Ext. 1265  Maureen Moriarty, Registrar and Director of Academic Procedures
Ext 1251  Marilyn Labadie, Associate Registrar
Ext 1232  Kathy Hartman, Associate Registrar for Distance Learning

The Registrar’s Office provides the following services to students:
- Registration of Classes: First-year JD students are randomly assigned to sections of the required first-year curriculum. Second- and third-year JD students and MELP, MERL, and LLM candidates register online for their classes in April and August, respectively.

- Grades and Transcripts: Semester grades are available to students via CampusWeb and can be converted to an electronic document utilizing downloaded PDF creator software. Students requiring the Registrar to produce a PDF file of the VLS Cumulative Grade Report should make a request via email specifying the student ID number and whether or not class rank should be included on the record. Printed copies of grade reports are not mailed to students, so requests for printed copies of grades are treated as requests for transcripts and incur a processing fee. Requests for official transcripts should be completed in writing on the Transcript Request Form available at the Registrar’s Office, requested via email or at www.getmytranscript.com. This process typically requires 24 to 48 hours for completion, but may take longer depending upon the work demand in both the Registrar’s Office and the Business Office. There is a charge of $5.00 for each request. If the Business Office determines that a student has an outstanding debt to Vermont Law School, there is a hold on the student’s record preventing transcripts from being produced until the debt has been cleared or arrangements have been made for payment. One (1) free transcript with the degree(s) awarded is provided to each student after graduation.

- Request for Written Certification: Students often require written certification of status for various reasons: enrollment verification for private health insurance, verification of enrollment for purposes of loan deferment, letters of good standing for scholarships and transfer, certification of degree completion for all bar examinations, etc. All such requests are processed through the Registrar’s Office and require a written request, regardless of who will ultimately sign the certification. Holds placed by the Business Office due to outstanding debt to VLS can prevent release of the requested certification.

- Retention of Examinations: ABA standards require the retention of examinations for at least one year. Adjunct faculty examinations are retained in the Registrar’s Office and VLS faculty retain the examinations for their classes. In either case, students may have access to review and/or receive a copy of their examinations. Students wishing to request copies of exams retained in the Registrar’s Office should send an email specifying their student number, the course code and section, and professor for all of the exams desired. The Registrar’s Office will scan the exams in its possession and send to the student via email. If a student wishes to discuss an examination with the faculty, the student needs to provide a copy to the professor in advance of the meeting. All examinations stored in the Registrar’s Office are destroyed after one year.

- Notification of Illness and/or Family Emergency/Death: Students unable to attend class because of illness, emergency, or for any other reason, should notify the Registrar’s Office at their earliest convenience. In turn, the Registrar’s Office will notify the student’s professors. Although some members of the faculty want to hear about absences directly from the student, it is generally accepted that notice from the Registrar’s Office is all that is required. Depending on the reason stated for the absence, professors will determine if the absence is excused or not. Students need to inform the Registrar’s Office only once in the period from Monday to Friday of any week of absences for the same reason, i.e., illness on Thursday and Friday.

- Change of Status: If your status at Vermont Law School is going to change for any reason, you need to inform the Registrar’s Office of this in writing, i.e., request for a leave of absence, notification of withdrawal (either completely or from one package or the other if you are a joint-degree student), etc. The Registrar’s Office will then notify all appropriate offices of this change.

- Change of Address: The Registrar’s Office should have students’ current addresses at all times. Students may prevent disclosure of this and other personally identifiable information by completing the necessary form available from the Registrar’s Office. This request is only valid for the current academic year and must be re-filed each year as desired.

- Electronic copies of many forms (PDF files) are available on the K drive/Course Info/Registrar Forms.

- FERPA and Directory of Records: See separate policy.

OFFICE FOR STUDENT AFFAIRS AND DIVERSITY
Debevoise Hall, 2nd Floor
The Office of the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity serves as the primary focal point for addressing student needs, issues, and concerns and serves as a resource and referral office for all faculty, staff, and students. The Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity represents the student’s perspective to the Vermont Law School community.

This office works with all segments of the Vermont Law School community to help students develop through opportunities, advice, and assistance. The Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity provides consultation, new program development, and assistance with special projects for the Dean of Vermont Law School. Specifically, the Associate Dean publishes the Student Handbook, advises the Student Bar Association (SBA), assists the Dean in processing cases of discriminatory personal conduct, including sexual harassment and sexual assault, provides human relations programming, coordinates campus-wide community meetings, supervises first-year orientation, coordinates crisis intervention and emergency response strategies with the deans, and promotes the academic and personal growth and development of gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender law students and other underrepresented student organizations.

The second main function of the Associate Dean’s Office includes oversight of student event planning and sponsorship or participation in programming, such as the annual Martin Luther King celebration, the annual Jewish Law Students Association Seder, Veterans Day Program, the annual Alliance Conference, the annual Women’s Law Groups conference, and other activities that focus on various ethnic, religious, and international law student populations. Programming is scheduled year-round in the arts, law, history, and literature. Please see Event Planning below for a complete description.

Two campus-wide committees are chaired by the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity. All VLS community members are welcome to attend their monthly meetings.

- The Diversity Committee comprises two faculty representatives, a staff representative, and student representatives from each student group funded by the SBA. The primary mission of the Diversity Committee is to educate the VLS community to understand the diversity, differences, needs, and obstacles confronted by faculty, staff, and students with diverse backgrounds.
- The Student Services Committee comprises a staff representative from each department of the law school, two faculty representatives, and the SBA Vice President for Student Affairs. The Student Services Committee meets monthly to exchange information, respond to concerns, and use their collective expertise to suggest solutions.

The Office for Student Affairs oversees the Student Ambassador Program. Student Ambassadors report to the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity and are responsible for assisting with Fall Orientation, Alumni Affair events, Development activities, Admissions Open House, and other various events. When not in class, Ambassadors are on-call, responsive to campus emergencies and last-minute event needs, whenever requested by the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity.
The Office for Student Affairs and Diversity is also responsible for managing student lockers and VLS identification cards (VLS ID). There are blocks of time set aside during orientation week for new students, faculty, and staff to get VLS ID cards. An email announcement will go out when lockers are ready for rent. Please see Theresa Johnson, Executive Assistant, if you have questions about lockers, or ID cards.

Event Planning
Ext. 1456 Kathy McCullough, Event Scheduler http://rooms.vermontlaw.edu
Our goal is to assist student organizations in creating quality events, good audience participation, and a calendar that makes sense. All students should complete the necessary reservation forms and submit them to Kathy McCullough, Event Scheduler, in the Dean’s Office on the 2nd floor of Debevoise Hall. Please be mindful to note possible alternative dates for your event. All events will be reviewed for approval weekly by Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity, Shirley Jefferson. Once the event is approved, Kathy McCullough will reserve rooms and help you with specific needs, such as catering and communications.

- The Student Group Manual works as a useful guide to event planning.
  K:\Students\Student Group Resources\Student Group Manual
- Forms for reserving a space and date on the campus calendar are available from Kathy McCullough. Forms are also located on the VLS common drive at K:\Students\Event Planning. Funding request forms, budget forms, and instructions on how to use the community calendar are also available.
- If you intend to request funding from the Office of Student Affairs and Diversity, please see Theresa Johnson, Executive Assistant, once you have had a date confirmed by Kathy McCullough.
- If you require only the use of a room (i.e., for a meeting or to reserve a table in the Chase Breezeway), please use the Room Reservation Form. Submit it to Kathy McCullough. You will receive an email once it is approved and the space is reserved.
- If your event requires setup of any kind (i.e., A/V needs, food, special setup from Buildings and Grounds), please use the Event Application form. Do not go to these departments directly. You will need the signatures of the contact from your student group for the event and the faculty advisor to your group, in addition to information about the event itself. Submit it to Kathy McCullough.

Timing: We recommend you plan events at least six weeks in advance.
Funding: There is a separate form in our office if you are requesting funding from the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity. Please complete the form and make an appointment through Theresa Johnson to meet with Dean Jefferson.
Set Up: If the event is approved, Kathy McCullough will email you once the event is reserved on the Campus Calendar. She will work with you on all aspects of setup, including food, the alcohol permit, A/V, publicity, and Buildings and Grounds assistance.
Alcohol: In order to serve alcohol at any event at Vermont Law School, an application for a permit must be filed with the state licensing agency a minimum of six weeks prior to your event. Applications for alcohol permits must be submitted through the Office of Student Affairs and Diversity. There are no exceptions on the alcohol procedure and no guarantee of license approval. No alcohol can be served on campus without a state certified liquor permit! All alcohol service is provided by Fitz Vogt, for a fee. See also the Alcohol Policy under Policies and Procedures in this Student Handbook.

Mental Health and Wellness

THE BELFRY
The Belfry is a place for quiet reflection, meditation, and prayer. It is a small, round room located on the third floor of Debevoise Hall, in the bell tower overlooking Chelsea Street. Nursing mothers are welcome to use the Belfry and lock the door for privacy. Otherwise, the door should be unlocked. When you need a moment of calm, to sit quietly without studying or teaching, without talking or listening, remember the Belfry.

COMMON AREAS
Common areas, especially Yates Common Room, Chase Community Center, and Hoff Lounge, often serve as venues for law school events. If an event needs to be set up, please be prepared to leave quickly. Do not rearrange furniture, as it may have been set up in advance of a future event, and do not eat food that has been set up in advance of an event. You may study without interruption in the Cornell Library. The following common areas are used for a variety of purposes, including socializing, studying, and special events.

- The Café is located adjacent to the Chase Center and is primarily a place to eat and socialize. Please refrain from studying there from 11:00 AM until 1:30 PM.
- Chase Community Center is a comfortable place to visit, study, or eat lunch.
- Chase Loft is a popular place to study or socialize. Student organizations often meet there. The Freedom of Speech bulletin board was made by the NLG in 2002 out of used wine corks. The mural was created in 1992 by a Vermont artist and historian.
- Hoff Lounge is located on the main level of Oakes Hall. It is often used for formal lunches, special events, and student group meetings.
- The Yates Common Room is located on the first floor of Debevoise Hall. It is often used for special events and formal dinners.
- Dearing House 1st Floor serves as a student lounge for students to each lunch and relax. It also houses the SBA Office. The key can be obtained at the Library Circulation Desk.
- The Belfry is a place for quiet reflection, meditation, and prayer. It is a small, round room located on the third floor of Debevoise Hall, in the bell tower overlooking Chelsea Street. Nursing mothers are welcome to use The Belfry and lock the door for privacy. Otherwise, the door should be unlocked. When you need a moment of calm, to sit quietly without studying or teaching, without talking or listening, remember The Belfry.

The VLS campus is private property. Please note that all campus facilities are primarily for the use of our faculty, staff, and students. The law school reserves the right to ask people who are not members of the VLS community to leave. Vermont Law School’s library is not a public library. The Fitness Center is not a public gym. Use of the facilities by non-VLS community is at the discretion of the administration.

Under the VLS Code of Conduct, students may be asked to present their student ID. Failure to present your ID may result in your being asked to leave. Other campus visitors may be asked to identify themselves and provide ID. If you see someone using our facilities whose actions cause concern, please notify Dean Jefferson at extension 1333, Diane Hayes at extension 1308, or Buildings & Grounds at extension 1260 or after hours at 802-356-4328.

COUNSELING SERVICES
Vermont Law School takes the mental health of its students and staff seriously. VLS is aware that the study and practice of law can be stressful and that stress can result in more serious conditions, such as depression and anxiety.

Mental Health Counseling is available to students and staff on Tuesdays and Wednesdays in the South Royalton Health Center. The center is located at 79 South Windsor Street in South Royalton, (next to the church with the red door.)

Members of the VLS community are able to access three sessions at no cost to them with one of our counselors. If the student or staff member is in need of more than three sessions, they may use their insurance to continue with one of the VLS counselors or the counselors will provide them with appropriate referrals.
FAQs about Counseling at VLS:

1. “How do I know if I need help?”

   It can be difficult to identify the feelings associated with emotional stress and even more difficult to know whether these feelings warrant speaking to a counselor. If you have experienced one or more of the symptoms below for more than a few days, please make an appointment to see one of the counselors.

   Below are some common symptoms of emotional stress:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>On your body</th>
<th>On your mood</th>
<th>On your behavior</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Headache</td>
<td>Anxiety</td>
<td>over or under eating</td>

<tr>
<td>Muscle tension or pain</td>
<td>Restlessness</td>
<td>Angry outbursts</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Chest pain</td>
<td>lack of motivation or focus</td>
<td>Drug or alcohol use</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fatigue</td>
<td>Irritability or anger</td>
<td>Tobacco use</td>

</tr>
</tbody>

2. “How will the counselors help me?”

   The VLS counselors will help you identify sources of your stress. They may help you develop stress/anxiety reduction skills, time-management skills, or relaxation techniques. They may provide referrals to other medical or mental health providers in the area for additional services or they may simply provide you with a safe place to vent frustration or sadness.

3. “Will the counselors tell the administration or the professors that I am having problems?”

   The counselors are bound by a strict ethical code of confidentiality. With a few exceptions, what you share with the counselors or even the fact that you have visited the counselor will remain completely confidential. The exceptions are as follows: if you let the counselor know that you are having serious thoughts of harming yourself or someone else, the counselor will be obliged to either try to get help for you or to warn those you are planning to harm. If you let the counselor know that you are abusing a child or an elderly person, the counselor will report this to Child or Adult Protective Services. If the counselor is subpoenaed by a judge to testify in a case in which you are involved, the counselors may be obliged to do so. If you sign a release permitting the counselors to discuss your case with someone else, they may ethically do so. Otherwise, seeing the counselor will not affect your standing here at VLS or your character or fitness to be a lawyer.

4. “How much does it costs to see the counselors at VLS?”

   VLS enables students and staff to see one of the counselors three times at no cost to them. After three sessions, the counselors will bill your insurance for the session. Please check with your insurance company to determine whether there will be a co-pay for this service.

5. “Can the VLS counselors prescribe medication?”

   No; the VLS counselors cannot prescribe medication. The counselors may refer you to a prescribing clinician. You may also inquire whether your General Practitioner has any recommendations for you. Please see the list of numbers below for additional resources.

6. “What do I do if it is after hours and I need to speak to someone immediately?”

   If you are someone close to you is having a mental crisis, you may call the Clara Martin Center 24-hour hotline. This number is 800-639-6360.

   If this is a life-threatening emergency, please call 911 or go to the nearest Emergency Room.
About Us

Hill Anderson, LICSW
Hill has been a full-time practicing psychotherapist for more than 30 years. He received his MSW from Boston University in 1976 and graduated from Dartmouth College in 1970. From 1976–88, Hill was on the full-time faculty of the Dartmouth Medical School Department of Psychiatry, working with both inpatients and outpatients and supervising psychiatric residents and psychology interns. Hill has been a counselor at VLS for over 20 years and currently divides his time between counseling students and staff and as a therapist in his private practice in Norwich.

HOUSING
Old Schoolhouse
Although VLS does not offer on-campus housing, we maintain a searchable database of rental properties. The housing website is provided as a courtesy to students; the properties are not inspected by VLS, nor does VLS intervene in matters between landlords and student tenants. For questions about your rights as a tenant, call VT Tenants Inc., 800-864-0099, and ask for their handbook, or use their on-line version (www.cvoeo.org/vti/).

MEDIATION PROJECT
By Appointment mrobinbarone@aol.com
If you are having a landlord-tenant, roommate, neighbor, or consumer dispute, the Campus Mediation Project could help resolve the problem. Mediation is a confidential process in which a neutral person—the mediator—listens to the parties discuss their conflict, while assisting in clarifying issues and explaining the legal and non-legal aspects of the conflict. All mediators are second-and third-year students with mediation training and experience, working under the supervision of Professor M. Robin Barone. Regardless of training, the mediator’s job is not to offer legal advice or render an opinion. The parties themselves negotiate their own mutually acceptable solution. If the parties cannot resolve their differences through mediation, they alone decide what step to take beyond mediation. All mediations are subject to strict confidentiality, and neither the parties nor the mediators may be subpoenaed to discuss the content of the mediation in any legal proceeding. Overall, the Campus Mediation Project provides a valuable service for all members of the community. Please note that Professor Barone cannot give legal advice. For more information, contact the Office for Student Affairs and Diversity, Professor M. Robin Barone at mrobinbarone@aol.com or a VLS Student Ambassador.

STUDENT CENTER
Dearing House
The Dearing House 1st Floor serves as a student lounge for students to play pool, watch TV, eat lunch, and relax. It also houses the SBA Office. The key can be obtained at the Library Circulation desk.

STUDENT HEALTH INSURANCE
Anderson House
All active students who are not Distance Learning students at Vermont Law School taking five or more credits must be covered by a health insurance policy. Vermont Law School offers group health insurance coverage through Blue Cross Blue Shield of Vermont. Students may choose to enroll in one of Vermont Law School’s plans or complete a waiver showing proof that they have coverage under a comparable plan. Failure to present proof of insurance will result in a noncompliance fee.

STUDENT MAILBOXES
Chase Center Breezeway
VLS provides students, faculty, and staff mailboxes for the distribution of official law school notices, announcements, publications, and intraschool correspondence. Mailboxes are also provided to authorized individuals and organizations, including those recognized or funded by Vermont Law School or the Student Bar Association. Mailboxes for student mail are located in the hallway outside of the Chase Community Center. The content of each mailbox is the property of the box holder. Unauthorized removal of the contents violates school policy and is subject to disciplinary sanctions. Use of mailboxes for distribution of unauthorized, intimidating, or harassing material is also prohibited and subject to Code of Conduct disciplinary sanctions. Please be sure to check your mailbox daily. Questions regarding mailboxes should be directed to the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity. Vermont Law School does not distribute U.S. mail except in emergencies. Materials generated within the law school for distribution to faculty, staff, or students should be produced only on recyclable paper (i.e., nonglossy, white paper and VLS letterhead). Materials generated outside the law school will not be distributed in individual student mailboxes. Materials on nonrecyclable paper may be placed in a container near mailboxes and must be removed after ten calendar days by a representative of the organization generating the materials.

Mass stuffing of mailboxes is against school policy except with special permission from the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity. Too many mailings go from mailbox to the recycling bin in five seconds or less. Consider a couple of well-designed posters and/or email messages. Be creative.

ZIP CARS
There are two Zip Cars at Vermont Law School for rental use by students, faculty, and staff who become Zip Car members. New members can join now for $25 and get $35 in free driving credit. Apply online at www.zipcar.com/vermontlaw. Zip Car confirms that members are in good standing at VLS, and performs background checks to ensure that members meet safe driving standards. Upon approval, members receive a Zip Card in the mail and may then reserve a Zip Car on-line. A wireless signal is sent to the car with reservation information. The member’s Zip Card is activated when the reservation is confirmed and acts as an electronic key and as a gas card.

Reservations may be made by the hour (starting at $7.50) or by the day ($69), depending upon availability. If traveling by air, train or bus, have a Zip Car member drive you to the airport or station. Parking overnight while away from the vehicle is prohibited for safety reasons, and makes the Zip Car unavailable to other VLS members. Contact the Office for Student Affairs and Diversity for more information. Or go to www.zipcar.com/vermontlaw.
CAMPUS GREENING COMMITTEE

The Campus Greening Committee (CGC) is a standing committee of the law school, with membership open to all interested faculty, students, administrators, and staff. The charge of the Campus Greening Committee is to establish environmentally sound practices and policies that advance the ideas inherent in the institution’s mission by providing leadership, education, example, and opportunity for responsible use of the Earth’s finite resources.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS
STUDENT GROUP AND ORGANIZATION RECOGNITION

Vermont Law School student organizations are provided access to an array of campus services, facilities, and systems. To avail themselves of such resources, students must complete the relatively simple procedures necessary to be recognized as an official Vermont Law School organization. Contact the Office for Student Affairs and Diversity for a copy of the VLS Student Group Manual, a booklet of resources, procedures and advice for new student groups. [K:\Students\Student Group Resources] Organizations may be officially recognized by Vermont Law School under the criteria as described below. Only officially recognized groups and organizations are entitled to the privileges listed in Section III.

I. Student Organization Categories

A. An organization that represents the interests of all students in all matters pertaining to life at Vermont Law School must be recognized by the President and Dean or the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity. The Student Bar Association is currently the only recognized group in this category. Its recognition is based on its Bylaws and Standing Rules as adopted and must be reviewed in the event of substantial change.

B. Student Organizations, other than those covered in section I.C. must be recognized by the Student Bar Association (SBA) in accordance with the criteria outlined in the SBA Bylaws and the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity.

C. Academic Moot Court Organizations and other academic organizations are generally recognized by the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs.

II. Procedures and Requirements for Initial and Continuing Recognition

A. Initial Recognition

To apply for recognition, a group or organization must submit to the appropriate Administrative official or body as designated above in writing: Its name; a statement of purpose and operations consistent with applicable criteria and requirements (and copy of its charter or similar document, if existing) and a list of officers. The designated officer or body will respond to the application in writing, within thirty (30) days of its receipt. Officially recognized groups and organizations must operate in conformance with their charters, similar documents, or statements of purpose as provided upon application in the absence of a charter or document. They must promptly advise the office of the official from whom recognition is obtained of changes in group or organization officers and material changes in their purpose or operations. Organization officers are responsible for assuring compliance with all VLS policies and procedures and for fulfilling the reasonable administrative requests of appropriate VLS officials. All student groups and organizations must identify to the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs or the Associate Dean for Student Affairs in writing a full time instructional or administrative officer as an advisor. Academic moot courts must designate a full time instructional officer. Appeal of an adverse decision may be taken to the Deans; the decision on appeal shall be final. The President and Dean may consult with the leadership of any pertinent governance group (SBA) or administrator before issuing a decision.

B. Continuing Recognition

To maintain recognition as a student group, previously recognized student groups must:

- Maintain a student group binder furnished by the Office of Student Affairs and Diversity containing the following updated documents: a list of current officers and an advisor, a copy of operating procedures (i.e., bylaws), a copy of the Student Group Manual, and an Accounting Form. Student groups are encouraged to keep other materials related to their organization in the binder including: meeting minutes, event forms and planning materials, and a list of professional contacts
- Submit a Financial Summary form to the Office of Student Affairs and Diversity at the end of each semester
- Submit a list of officers for the following school year before the end of the spring term.

III. Privileges of Recognition Officially Recognized groups and organizations may:

A. Use the name of Vermont Law School and other indicia of association, subject also to approval of the Vermont Law School Licensing Program.

B. Use Vermont Law School buildings and grounds without a rental charge. Charges will only be assessed for the cost of services (custodial, trucking, security and similar expenses) provided in support of an event.
C. Use Vermont Law School mail services on an unstamped basis.
D. Obtain an email account, subject to the requirement of computing service.
E. Apply for funds from the SBA.

Publicity Procedures for Public Events
VLS's Communications Office can help publicize any VLS event that is open to the general public. Publicity tasks the Communications Office performs include:

- Provide publicity guidance to event planners, as requested.
- Approve all event communications and materials aimed beyond the VLS community and use of the VLS logo or seal.
- Determine when a press release is appropriate, write and distribute a press release to local media, and/or assist with coordination of interviews or press coverage. All VLS press releases must come from the Communications Office.
- Provide web addresses for community calendars (newspaper, TV, radio, local media websites).
- Event planners are responsible for all invitations (whether in print, emails, or phone calls), and printing and distribution of publicity materials.
- Event planners must meet early in the event-planning process with the VLS Event Scheduler to review procedures, including publicity, and should plan and delegate publicity tasks early in the event planning process.

Contact the Communications Office at 831-1310, Communications@vermontlaw.edu or go to the website www.vermontlaw.edu/Communications for more information.

STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the Student Bar Association (SBA) is to support and encourage academic excellence and professional growth among students; ensure the attainment and preservation of the rights of the individual student to acquire a quality legal education in a just and reasonable manner; and serve as the vehicle for interaction and communication between the students and the faculty, administration, alumni, and the community. All students of Vermont Law School who are enrolled as degree candidates are regular members of the SBA. Such members are entitled to the full benefits of membership and to attend all meetings of the Senate.

Student groups may be approved as a Recognized Student Group by the SBA. Once approved and after a period of proven activity, that group may seek approval as a Funds Eligible Student Group to receive SBA funding.

ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

REVISIONS TO THE ACADEMIC REGULATIONS MAY BE MADE ONLY BY VOTE OF THE FACULTY.

THE OFFICIAL VERSION OF THE ACADEMIC REGULATIONS IS POSTED ON THE VERMONT LAW SCHOOL NETWORK AT K: COURSE INFO ACADEMIC REGULATIONS. ANY REVISIONS MADE DURING THE YEAR WILL BE POSTED AT THAT SITE. REVISIONS TO PAPER COPIES OF THE REGULATIONS, INCLUDING THE STUDENT HANDBOOK, WILL BE MADE AT THE BEGINNING OF EACH ACADEMIC YEAR.

ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

I. INTRODUCTION

A. GENERAL

These regulations apply to all persons taking courses at, or through, Vermont Law School. They apply to students who are candidates for degrees, to students taking courses for credit, and to students auditing courses. All students taking courses at, or through, Vermont Law School are deemed to have notice of these regulations.

B. NOTICE

The official version of the academic regulations is posted on the Vermont Law school network at k:\course info\academic regulations. Any revisions made during the year will be posted at that site. The Academic Regulations are also included in the student handbook and course catalog and posted online. Those will be revised at the beginning of each academic year.

C. AMENDMENT

1. General

Except as provided in the following paragraph, amendments to these regulations may be made by a majority of the voting faculty at a regular or special faculty meeting provided a notice of the proposed amendment has been given to each individual member of the voting faculty at least seven calendar days before the meeting.

2. Conforming Amendments

The Registrar, in consultation with the Committee on Standards, may amend these regulations without faculty approval whenever necessary to conform these regulations to the addition or deletion of courses from the curriculum, to changes in course names, and to changes in title and position of faculty, staff, or administration. The Registrar may also amend these regulations without faculty approval to correct punctuation, grammar, spelling, typographical errors, and inconsistencies between approved amendments and existing regulations.

II. JURIS DOCTOR DEGREE (JD)

A. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

1. General

The degree of Juris Doctor (JD) is granted for regular attendance and satisfactory completion of the prescribed course of study which includes a minimum of eighty-seven \(^1\) semester hours and a cumulative grade point average of 2.20.\(^2\)

2. Course Requirements

\(^1\) The increase to 87 credits from 84 credits is effective for students entering the JD program in or after August 2005. Students who began the JD program before August 2005 are required to satisfactorily complete 84 credits.

\(^2\) The requirement of a 2.20 cumulative grade point average is effective for students who matriculate into the JD program after July 1, 2007. For students who matriculated into the JD program before this date, the required cumulative grade point average is 2.00.
(a) Of the 87 semester hours required for the degree, satisfactory completion of the following courses is required: Appellate Advocacy; Civil Procedure I and II; Constitutional Law and Public Law; Contracts; Criminal Law; Evidence; Legal Profession; Legal Analysis and Writing I, Legal Research; Legal Writing II: Theory & Practice; Property; and Torts.

Satisfactory completion of two of the following courses is also required: Corporations, Criminal Procedure (either Constitutional Criminal Procedure or Criminal Practice and Procedure), Estates, Family Law or General Practice Program I: Domestic Relations, Remedies, and Sales.

Except as noted in subsections b, c, and d of this regulation and in regulation II.D.5.b., all other courses are elective.

(b) Each student is also required to satisfactorily complete one perspective course. Perspective courses substantially and systematically expose students to the broader foundations of law, including its social, cultural, historical, philosophical, comparative, or scientific contexts. The courses which satisfy this requirement change from time to time; a list of courses which currently satisfy this requirement is published each year the registration handbook.

(c) Each student must also satisfactorily complete at least one course that focuses on the development of skills and their application to the solving of actual or simulated problems. A list of the courses which currently satisfy this requirement is also published each year the registration handbook.

(d) Satisfactory completion of the Advanced Legal Writing Requirement (AWR) is also a graduation requirement. A student must submit a written project which a regular faculty member determines would receive a grade of C or better were it the sole basis of grading in a course for two or more credits. The student may submit a project:

1. In satisfaction of any written requirement in any course or Independent Research Project which a regular faculty member has certified as meeting the provisions of the Advanced Legal Writing Requirement; or in completion of any project, whether or not submitted for academic credit, which a regular faculty member has certified as meeting the provisions of the Advanced Legal Writing Requirement.

2. In advance of the start of each student’s fifth semester, the student must notify the Registrar in writing as to (1) whether the Advanced Legal Writing Requirement has been met, (2) how the student plans to satisfy the requirement, or (3) if no decision has been made as to how to satisfy the requirement, the fact that the student has spoken with a member of the faculty to discuss ways of satisfying the requirement, in

3 For students who matriculated before April 2013, the required coursework is as follows: Appellate Advocacy; Civil Procedure I and II; Constitutional Law I and II; Contracts; Criminal Law; Evidence; Legal Profession; Legal Analysis and Writing I, Legal Research; Legal Writing II: Theory & Practice; Property; and Torts. Students who matriculated before April 2013 and did not complete Constitutional Law I and II before the end of the 2012-2013 academic year will received a waiver allowing them to satisfy the requirement through completion of Constitutional Law and Public Law.

4 Evidence is required for students who matriculate into the JD program after July 1, 2007.

5 These courses are required for students who matriculate into the JD program after July 1, 2007.

6 Guidelines for Independent Research Projects are found at regulation II.C.

7 The usual period of study to obtain the JD degree is six semesters extended over three academic years. Regulation II.A.5.b. For students pursuing an accelerated or extended scheduling option or for students in certain joint or dual degrees, the term “sixth semester” as used throughout these regulations means the student’s final semester in the JD program at the end of which the student is awarded the JD degree. The term “fifth semester” means the preceding the final semester in the JD program.
which case the statement must be signed by the faculty member. In addition, every student must either satisfy the requirement prior to the beginning of the student’s sixth semester or file with the Registrar a statement approved by a regular faculty member setting forth the particulars of the project which the student intends to complete to satisfy the requirement.

(3) PURPOSE: The purpose of the Advanced Legal Writing Requirement is to provide each student with an opportunity to enhance his or her writing skills on a more sophisticated project than is afforded in the first year and appellate advocacy writing programs, preferably in an area of law of his or her choosing, and with the assistance of detailed and individualized feedback from a member of the faculty. Close interaction between student and instructor is considered essential to the success of this program, the focus of which should include the substantive content of the student's work, the quality of his or her writing, and the process by which the student organizes and develops ideas, conducts research, and writes.

GENERAL GUIDELINES: The following guidelines set forth the criteria to be used generally in designing a student's project and in structuring faculty supervision of the project. Both faculty and students are urged to abide by these guidelines except where special circumstances, which allow the goal of the AWR program to be served in some other way, justify variance from them. In this connection, the fact that an AWR project is written in conjunction with a seminar does not, without more, justify departure from these guidelines.

(a) Genre: A project need not culminate in any particular genre of legal writing to be satisfactory. Such diverse projects as law review articles, advanced moot court briefs, seminar papers, proposed statutes with comment, or other projects might serve as appropriate vehicles for demonstrating one's competence for Advanced Legal Writing. The determinative criteria are the project's requirements for research, analysis, and writing.

(b) Length: No particular length is required, although most projects have been in the range of 20 to 30 pages. In any event, the length should be such that the student is required to demonstrate such fundamental writing skills as grammar, syntax, organization, clarity of expression, and ability to present fully the message of the project in a well-reasoned fashion.

(c) Drafts: Each project should require, in addition to the final draft, at least one detailed outline and one preliminary draft, or two preliminary drafts of the final product. In addition, the student and the faculty supervisor should complete a written evaluation at the end of the term, focusing on the quality of the student’s work, on improvement in the student’s skills, and on the quality of the learning process. Outlines, if required, and preliminary and final drafts should be reviewed and critiqued by the certifying faculty member. The final product should reflect consideration of the comments and critiques of the faculty member.

(d) Collaborative Efforts: Some projects may involve the collaborative efforts of two or more students. In such instances, the individual student must be able to identify his or her contributions to the research, analysis, and writing incorporated in the drafts and final project. The certifying instructor should take such steps as he or she deems necessary to insure that each student within the group has demonstrated competence in research, analysis, and writing.

(e) Meeting: Every faculty supervisor and student may expect each other to be available for a minimum of four face-to-face meetings during the semester to discuss the student's project.
(f) Supervision: Faculty supervision should be directed at improving the student's skills in the following areas, the attention paid to each item to be a function of the student's individual needs: (i) fundamentals of writing (grammar, syntax, organization, and clarity of expression), (ii) legal analysis, (iii) legal research and (iv) capacity for self-reflection and self-evaluation on both the quality of the student’s work and the process of learning involved in the project.

(g) Supervision by Adjuncts: Adjunct faculty may not supervise an advanced legal writing project unless (1) the project is done in satisfaction of course requirements in a course taught by the adjunct that the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs has approved in advance of the semester in which it is offered as appropriate for advanced legal writing credit or (2) the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs approves the specific project in advance of commencement of the project. In all such cases, the student must draft, and the adjunct faculty supervisor and the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs approve, a contract for the project containing the information required for independent legal research projects. See regulation II.C.3.

(e) Non-JD Courses

Except as noted below, JD students may enroll in only one non-law course. Credits so earned will be applied toward the 87 semester hours required for the Juris Doctor degree.

JD students may enroll in non-law courses in any joint or dual degree program or exchange program as approved by the faculty or the Committee on Standards.\(^8\)

(f) Credits toward JD degree from VLS study abroad programs

In accordance with ABA regulations, the total number of credits that may be applied to the JD degree from courses taken in study abroad programs shall not exceed one third of the credits required for that degree, i.e. 29 credits.

3. Course Load

The following restrictions apply to all JD students. No exceptions are allowed without prior written approval of the Committee on Standards.

The minimum course load is 10 hours per semester, and the maximum course load is 17 hours per semester.\(^9\)

Although there is no per semester "classroom hour" requirement, students must in the course of six semesters complete a minimum of 65 credits of course work requiring attendance at regularly scheduled class sessions. For purposes of calculating attendance at regularly scheduled class sessions, all work done in connection with enrollment in the South Royalton Legal Clinic (SRLC) and the Environmental and Natural Resources Law Clinic (ENRLC) is considered to be in regular class sessions, whether in a classroom or not.

\(^8\) The number of credits of non-law courses may be different depending on the joint or dual degree or exchange program. Students pursuing any of these programs should consult with the Assistant Dean for Academic Affairs or the Director of International and Comparative Law Programs.

\(^9\) Students who must complete only 84 credits for the JD degree are limited to a maximum course load of 16 JD hours per semester.

The maximum course load of 17 credits is mandated by the American Bar Association and may not be waived.
Courses taken through exchange and dual degree programs with the University of Cergy-Pontoise Faculty of Law, the Renmin University of China School of Law, the University of Trento Faculty of Law, the University of Seville, and the McGill University Faculty of Law are also counted toward satisfying the requirement of 65 credits of course work requiring attendance at regularly scheduled class sessions.

Academic credits awarded in following do not count toward satisfying the requirement of 65 credits of course work requiring attendance at regularly scheduled class sessions:

a. Courses taken at academic institutions, other than A.B.A. accredited schools, including courses taken at the Yale School of Forestry and Environmental Science, Carnegie Mellon University, the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College, the Thunderbird School of Global Management, and the University of Cambridge.

b. Independent Research Projects

c. Practicum portion of an externship

d. Practicum portion of Dispute Resolution, Criminal Law, and Land Use Clinic

e. Legislative Clinic

f. Vermont Law Review and the Vermont Journal of Environmental Law

4. Employment

A student may not be employed more than 20 hours per week in any week in which the student is enrolled in more than twelve class hours.

5. Residence Requirement

a. Three years “residence” (six semesters) is required for the JD degree. To receive residence credit for a particular semester, the student must receive credit for at least 10 hours (the minimum course load).

b. The usual period of study to obtain the JD degree is three years (six semesters).¹⁰

  (1) A student may extend this time period to four years (eight semesters) by taking a reduced course load or pursuing an extended scheduling option.

  (2) A student may also extend this time period by requesting a leave of absence. The Registrar may grant leaves of absence, other than medical leaves of absence, for two semesters; all other requests for leaves of absence must be addressed to the Committee on Standards. Under no circumstances will the Committee on Standards grant a request for a leave of absence, including a medical leave of absence, that extends the period of study beyond seven years.

  (3) A student pursuing the accelerated scheduling option must also complete a minimum of six semesters. (For purposes of this regulation, a summer session will count as one semester.)

¹⁰ For students pursuing an accelerated or extended scheduling option or for students in certain joint or dual degrees, the term “sixth semester” as used throughout these regulations means the student’s final semester in the JD program at the end of which the student is awarded the JD degree. The term “fifth semester” means the preceding the final semester in the JD program.
(f) To obtain the degree from Vermont Law School, a student must be in residence at Vermont Law School, or at a school with which Vermont Law School has an exchange program, for the last four semesters.

A student pursuing the accelerated scheduling option must also be in residence for the last four semesters. (For purposes of this regulation, a summer session will count as one semester.)

No exceptions will be made except for an unforeseeable change of circumstance of an emergency nature.

(1) A desire to enroll in an academic program not offered at Vermont Law School (or its exchange program) is not considered an unforeseeable change of circumstance of an emergency nature.

(2) A desire to avoid separation from a spouse or partner will not ordinarily be considered an unforeseeable change of circumstances of an emergency nature.

d. No residence credit is granted for Vermont Law School’s summer sessions or for attendance at another law school unless part of an exchange program as provided under 5.c. above or unless the student is pursuing the accelerated scheduling option.

6. Accelerated Scheduling Option

Vermont Law School offers a flexible scheduling option that will allow JD students to accelerate graduation. This option allows a limited number of students to complete the JD degree in five semesters plus at least one summer session or in four semesters and two summer sessions.

a. Eligibility:

(1) Interested students should apply after completing their first semester of law school and no later than during the fall semester of their second year. After that, admission to the program will be granted only in exceptional circumstances, upon petition to the Committee on Standards.

(2) Applicants must be in the upper half of the class at the time of application.

(3) There is an enrollment limit of 50 students.

(4) Preference will be given to students in VLS’s dual degree programs.

(5) Applicants must obtain financial counseling, career services counseling and academic counseling. Application without the signatures of the designated counselors will be rejected.

b. Tuition: summer sessions will be billed at the same rate as fall and spring semesters. Thus, the overall tuition cost for the accelerated option is the same as the regular JD program.

c. Impact on academic standing: students in the accelerated option will not receive a class rank and will not be eligible for the Learned Hand Award (granted to the student graduating with the highest grade point average at the end of the fifth semester).

d. Impact on extra-curricular activities: students in the accelerated option will not be eligible for participation in Law Review, VJEL, and extra-mural moot court competitions.

7. Extended Scheduling Option

Vermont Law School offers a flexible scheduling option that will allow JD students to extend the JD program over 8 semesters.
a. Eligibility: Interested students should apply prior to the commencement of their first year in the JD program. After that, admission will be granted only in exceptional circumstances, upon petition to the Committee on Standards.

b. The minimum course load for participants in the extended scheduling option is 10 credits. No exceptions are allowed without prior written approval of the Committee on Standards. The maximum load is 12 credits. The maximum load restriction may be modified by the Assistant Dean for Academic Affairs or the Assistant Dean’s designee.

c. The extended schedule course modifies the standard schedule as follows:

- First Year: Torts; Contracts; Property; Criminal Law; Legal Reasoning, Writing, and Research; and Legal Writing II.
- Second Year: Constitutional Law and Public Law; Civil Procedure I and II; plus upper level courses. Students cannot enroll in Appellate Advocacy until completion of Constitutional Law and Public Law, except with prior approval of the Assistant Dean of Academic Affairs and the Director of Legal Writing.

d. Tuition: students agreeing to remain enrolled in the extended scheduling option for 8 semesters will be billed 80% of the standard tuition fee each semester.

e. Impact on academic standing: students in the extended scheduling option will be ranked only after completion of their second year.

f. Impact on extra-curricular activities: students in the extended scheduling option will be eligible for participation in Law Review, VJEL and extra-mural moot court competitions only after completion of their second year.

8. Transfer of Credit and Credit for Summer Courses

a. A student accepted for transfer to Vermont Law School may receive equivalent course and residence credit for work at another ABA-approved law school. No more than one year’s residence credit may be transferred and only courses for which the student has received a grade of C or better will transfer. The courses taken, grades, and credit earned at the prior law school will be noted on the Vermont Law School transcript but not included in the student’s Vermont Law School grade point average.

If a student has not been enrolled in an ABA-approved law school within the two years preceding application to Vermont Law School, the student will not be accepted as a transfer student. Students who do not qualify as transfer students under this paragraph may apply for admission as first-year students.

b. A student at Vermont Law School who takes courses at another ABA-approved law school or programs of such school may be granted credit provided the courses do not duplicate courses taken at Vermont Law School and meet the Vermont Law School grade and academic standards provided in these academic regulations. The courses taken, grades, and total credits earned will be recorded on the student’s Vermont Law School transcript, but course grades will not be included in the student’s Vermont Law School grade point average. The student must provide the Registrar with an official transcript showing the grades earned at the other institution. Students are strongly encouraged to consult the Registrar before enrolling in courses at another ABA-approved law school to ensure compliance with this regulation.

c. A student at Vermont Law School will be granted hour credit for summer courses satisfactorily completed at Vermont Law School. Grades for such courses are noted on the Vermont Law School transcript and are included in the grade point average. No residence credit is granted except as provided in regulation II.A.6.
d. A student will not be granted credit for courses completed prior to the student’s matriculation as a candidate for the JD degree at an ABA-approved law school.

B. QUALIFICATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS FOR CLINICS AND EXTERNSHIPS

1. A student may participate in an externship in his or her fourth, fifth semester or sixth semester. Ordinarily, a student with a GPA below 2.4 will not be allowed to enroll. The externship program director has the discretion to deny admission to any student not prepared to enroll in the program.

2. Students are permitted to enroll in clinical courses in the fourth, fifth, or sixth semester.

3. All clinics and externships are limited enrollment courses with enrollment procedures established for each program. Details are included in the web-based registration materials.

4. A student may not:
   a. Enroll in more than one clinic or externship course in any one semester;
   b. Enroll in a clinic or externship course that substantially repeats the experience gained in the same or another clinic or externship course;
   c. Except for a part-time JD externship, enroll in the same experiential course more than once;
   d. Enroll in an externship program with the same field supervisor or mentor or at the same site at which the student has been placed as an extern, had an employment relationship or has worked as a volunteer unless the program will provide a qualitatively different or broader learning experience than the student has had as a volunteer or an employee; or
   e. Receive a salary for an externship course for which academic credit is granted. (Remuneration for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses related to the field placement is permitted.
   f. Externship mentors must have a law degree (or be admitted through clerkship in Vermont). This applies whether the mentor is working in a governmental agency, nonprofit organization, private law firm, for-profit corporation, or as a judge.
   g. Joint-degree and dual-degree students must receive prior approval from the joint-degree or dual-degree program director, or the director=s designee, in addition to the full-time externship program director=s approval, before enrolling in a full-time externship program.
   h. The number of credits available for a part-time externship shall be determined by the faculty sponsor in consultation with the field supervisor at the time of approval of the externship. Any number of credits from four to six may be set, depending upon the amount of student time required by the project, such credit to be figured at the rate of three hours of student time per week per credit. Credits greater than six require approval of the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs (after consultation between said Dean and the part-time externship program director). Such approval shall not ordinarily be granted.

C. INDEPENDENT RESEARCH PROJECTS

1. Goals
   a. To allow the participating student to engage in intensive research in an area of the law in which the participating student has a particular interest.
   b. To give the participating student experience in completing a major piece of legal writing.
c. To encourage a faculty-student learning experience on a highly individualized basis by providing close supervision of the participating student by a faculty member in both the research and writing stages.

2. Basic Eligibility Requirements

a. Any student may undertake an Independent Research Project in any semester during his or her second or third year of studies.

b. In order to be eligible to undertake an Independent Research Project a student must find a faculty member willing to sponsor the student’s project. The decision to sponsor a student’s Independent Research Project is solely within the faculty member’s discretion. In this exercise of his or her discretion, a faculty member may take into account, but is in no way limited to, the following criteria:

(1) The student’s record in regularly structured classroom courses,

(2) The student’s record in previously completed written work, and

(3) The student’s total number of credits for non-classroom work in the current and prior semesters.

(a) Non-classroom credits include Independent Research Projects, the Vermont Law Review, the Legislative Clinic, Mediation Field Work, the Vermont Journal of Environmental Law, the part-time JD externship program, and the practicum (11 credits) of the full-time JD externship programs (the Semester in Practice, the Environmental Semester in Washington, the Judicial Externship) and courses taken at academic institutions other than A.B.A. accredited law schools, including the Yale School of Forestry and Environmental Science, Carnegie Mellon University, the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College, the Thunderbird School of Global Management, and the University of Cambridge. (Courses taken through exchange and dual degree programs with the University of Cergy-Pontoise Faculty of Law, Renmin University of China School of Law, the University of Trento Faculty of Law, the University of Seville, and the McGill University Faculty of Law are, however, considered “classroom hours.”)

(b) The ABA requires a minimum of 65 credits of classroom work requiring actual attendance at regularly scheduled sessions.

(A faculty member willing to sponsor a student’s Independent Research Project is hereinafter referred to as a sponsor.)

3. Procedures for Developing Independent Research Projects

a. In consultation with his or her sponsor, the student must prepare a contract.

b. The contract shall be a typewritten document prepared by the student in consultation with the sponsor setting forth the obligations and expectations of each party. It shall include, as far as possible, the following provisions:

(1) a description of the nature of the project;

(2) the goals which the student seeks to achieve by undertaking this particular project;

(3) a brief description of the research resources necessary for this project;
(4) a summary of the preliminary work already undertaken;

(5) an estimate of the amount of time the student will spend undertaking the Independent Research Project;

(6) a statement of expectations regarding the amount of time and effort the sponsor will devote to aiding the student in carrying out the project;

(7) a timetable for completion of various stages of the project;

(8) a description of the estimated size and scope of the final work product;

(9) a statement as to the mode of evaluation of the final work product (see regulation II.C.5. below);

(10) a statement as to the number of credits to be received (see regulation II.C.6. below);

(11) a listing of the student’s credits for non-classroom work in the current and prior semesters. (Non-classroom work is defined above at regulation II.C.2.b.(3)(a).)

c. Requirements of filing a form for the contract are as follows:

(1) A copy of the contract, bearing the signature of the student and the faculty sponsor, shall be filed in the Registrar’s Office by the student no later than the deadline for adding courses to student schedules for the semester. If a student fails to file the contract with all required signatures by this deadline, the Registrar will delete the independent research project from the student’s registration.

(2) Contracts without a sponsor currently holding the rank of assistant professor, associate professor, professor, assistant professor of legal writing, associate professor of legal writing, or professor of legal writing of the law school must be approved in writing in advance of the commencement of the project by the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs.

(3) If the sponsor determines that there is good cause, a revision of a contract may be made after the deadline for adding courses, provided that:

(a) the revision will not violate any other provision of the Academic Regulations, and

(b) a copy of the revised contract, signed by the student and the faculty sponsor is submitted to the Registrar prior to the last day of classes for the semester in which the independent study is to be completed.

4. Requirements Concerning the Independent Research Paper

a. A student taking part in the Independent Research Program is required to submit a paper based on the student’s research.

b. Unless otherwise stated in the contract, this paper shall in substance and form be the equivalent of a scholarly piece of legal writing.

c. The student and faculty sponsor may agree to the submission of a different sort of final written product, provided that the substituted written work product itself clearly sets forth the underlying legal research engaged in by the student.

5. Evaluation
a. The mode of evaluation is to be decided by the student and the faculty sponsor and incorporated in the contract. The following modes of evaluation are acceptable:

(1) by the sponsor and/or one or more other members of the faculty;

(2) by one or more members of the faculty and a highly qualified individual in the field of research covered by the Independent Research Project.

b. The Independent Research Project shall be graded with a letter grade unless agreed to by the sponsor and incorporated into the contract that the project be evaluated on a pass/fail basis. If graded with a letter grade, the grade shall be included in the student’s grade point average. The minimum acceptable grade shall be 1.67.

Notwithstanding an agreement not to grade an Independent Research Project, if a student elects to satisfy the AWR with an Independent Research Project, the sponsor must still determine that the written product would receive a grade of C or better were it the sole basis of grading a course for two or more credits in order for the student to satisfy the AWR requirement.

6. Credit

a. The normal procedure shall be for a student to contract for a three-credit Independent Research Project. Such a project should involve at least the same amount of time in research and writing as a student would spend in class and in preparation for class in a three-credit course.

b. If a student and a sponsor agree that a project has merit, but will in their estimation involve less than or more than the amount of work normally devoted to a three-credit course, they may contract for fewer or more than three credits.

c. The normal procedure shall be for a student to complete an Independent Research Contract in the academic semester. The Independent Research paper shall be due no later than the end of the last week of the examination period.

d. If the student feels that he or she will be unable to complete his or her paper by this deadline, or if the student’s paper does not meet the minimum standard set out in regulation II.C.5.b., he or she may petition his or her sponsor for an extension of time. A student may petition his or her sponsor only once for an extension, and the extension shall not exceed one additional academic semester. Such petition must be made by the end of the fourteenth week of the semester in which the project was initiated.

e. Approval of the extension is solely in the sponsor’s discretion. A faculty member may only grant one extension, and may not grant an extension which extends beyond the student’s sixth semester. Extensions for more than one semester or that extend beyond the student’s sixth semester require the approval of the Committee on Standards. If approval is granted, it is the responsibility of the student to transmit immediately to the Registrar, the sponsor’s or the Committee’s written approval of such extension.

f. Upon receipt of such written approval, the Registrar shall enter an I (Incomplete) on the student’s transcript. If the student fails to submit a satisfactory paper within the time limit permitted by the extensions, the I (Incomplete) will be changed to F-Wd.

g. If the student and sponsor agree that the proposed project has merit, but that it will be difficult for the student to complete the proposed project in one semester, the student and sponsor may make special provision in the contract for a two-semester project. The student bears the responsibility of bringing this special provision to the Registrar’s attention.

Guidelines for the Advanced Legal Writing Requirement are found at regulation II.A.2.d.

h. The credits for such a two-semester project will accrue to the student during the second semester of the project. The Registrar shall enter a grade of Y on the student’s transcript after the first semester.

i. If the student fails to present a satisfactory paper at the end of the second semester or his or her paper is not yet complete, the same provisions for extension which exist for one-semester papers shall apply.

D. GRADES AND ACADEMIC STANDARDS

1. Grading System

Each student’s academic standing is determined at the end of each semester and at the end of the academic year in accordance with the following grading system:

^13 If the faculty member submits the grade within this time period, the I designation will be removed from the transcript and the grade entered for the semester in which the student was originally registered for the course. Class rank, Dean’s List, and other honors will not be changed for that semester.

If the student receives an extension or the faculty member does not submit the grade within this time period, the I designation will remain on the transcript and the grade will be entered for the semester in which the work was actually completed.

5. Probation and Dismissal
   1. A student will be placed on academic probation if, at the end of the first semester, the student’s cumulative average is between 1.5 and 2.20, or, at the end of other semesters, between 1.90 and 2.20.

   2. A student who is on academic probation at the end of the first semester is required to take Legal Methods in place of one doctrinal class in the second semester. The student must meet with the

14 This regulation applies to students who matriculate into the JD program after July 1, 2007. For students enrolled in the JD program prior to July 1, 2007, the following regulation applies:

5. Probation and Dismissal
   a. To be in good academic standing, a student must have an overall average of at least 2.00.

   b. Probation: A student will be placed on academic probation if, at the end of the first semester, the student’s cumulative average is between 1.33 and 2.00, or, at the end of other semesters, between 1.67 and 2.00.

   c. Academic Dismissal: A student will be dismissed from the law school if:

      (1) the student has failed a total of eight credit hours in two consecutive semesters: no more than four credit hours of F from the first year, first semester will count in the application of this rule; or

      (2) the student’s cumulative average at the end of the first semester is at or below 1.33; or

      (3) the student’s cumulative average at the end of the second, third, fourth, or fifth semesters is below 1.67; or

      (4) the student’s cumulative average is below 2.00 at the end of any semester and if, at the end of any previous semester, the student was placed on academic probation; or

      (5) the student’s cumulative average is below 2.00 at the end of the student’s final semester.

   d. In unusual cases, exceptions to parts 1-5 of this regulation may be granted by the Committee of Standards. No exception will be made absent a clear showing by a student that extraordinary circumstances, beyond the student’s control and unlikely to recur, prevented the student from meeting minimum academic standards.
Academic Dean, the Assistant Dean for Academic Affairs, the Director of Academic Success, or the Assistant Director of Academic Success to determine what course to omit in the second semester.

3. A student who is on academic probation at the end of the second or third semester is required to take the following courses to obtain the JD degree: Corporations, Criminal Procedure, Estates, and Sales. The student’s course schedule and any changes to it must be approved by the Academic Dean, the Assistant Dean for Academic Affairs, the Director of Academic Success, or the Assistant Director of Academic Success.

4. Academic dismissal: A student will be dismissed from the law school if:

   (1) the student has failed a total of eight credit hours in two consecutive semesters: no more than four credit hours of F from the first year, first semester will count in the application of this rule; or

   (2) the student’s cumulative average at the end of the first semester is at or below 1.50; or

   (3) the student’s cumulative average at the end of the second, third, fourth, or fifth semesters is below 1.90; or

   (4) the student has a semester grade point average of less than 1.67 in any two semesters; or

   (5) the student’s cumulative average is below 2.20 at the end of any semester and if, at the end of any previous semester, the student was placed on academic probation; or

   (6) the student’s cumulative average is below 2.20 at the end of the student’s final semester.

d. A student who would otherwise be dismissed under subparagraph 5.c.(5) will be allowed to continue for a second semester on academic probation if the student’s grade point average for the first semester on academic probation, if repeated for the second semester on academic probation with a credit load of 12 credits, is sufficient to achieve the required cumulative average of 2.20 at the end of the second semester on academic probation. A student who is continued on academic probation is required to take the courses designated in regulation II.D.5.b.(3) above.

e. A student who is academically dismissed may not petition the Committee on Standards for readmission earlier than one year after the date of academic dismissal. The Committee will grant readmission only if it finds that the student has satisfactorily addressed the factors that contributed to the academic dismissal. If the Committee grants a petition for readmission, it may impose any conditions such as retaking some or all of the first-year courses, taking a reduced course load, or taking specific courses.

6. Degrees and Honors

   a. Degrees are awarded at the meetings of the Board of Trustees in the fall and winter and at the commencement held annually at the end of the spring semester. Students successfully completing degree requirements at other times may request a certificate of completion prior to the receipt of a diploma.

   b. Vermont Law School grants degrees cum laude, magna cum laude, and summa cum laude. These degrees are awarded as follows:

      | Degree               | GPA  |
      |----------------------|------|
      | cum laude            | 3.25 |
      | magna cum laude      | 3.50 |
      | summa cum laude      | 3.75 |
Honors are determined at the end of either the final semester or the semester immediately preceding the final semester. If a student achieves a grade point average sufficient for honors at the end of the semester immediately preceding the final semester, the student will receive those honors even if the student’s grade point average decreases in the final semester.

III. MASTER’S DEGREE PROGRAMS

A. MASTER OF ENVIRONMENTAL LAW AND POLICY DEGREE (MELP)

1. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

   a. General

   (1) The degree of Master of Environmental Law and Policy (MELP) is granted for regular attendance and satisfactory completion of the prescribed course of study. A minimum of 30 credits is required for the MELP degree. These credits must be selected from courses approved for the MELP program. A cumulative average of 2.20 is required for successful completion of the MELP degree.

   (2) MELP students must satisfy the following requirements:

<td>ENV5122 Communications, Advocacy, and Leadership (3)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

   (3) In addition to the above, each student must satisfactorily complete at least three of the following five core courses:

15 In most situations, the student’s “final semester” is the sixth semester so that honors may be earned either at the end of the fifth of the sixth semester.

16 Students who matriculated in the MELP program prior to May 2013 must satisfy the following requirements: Environmental Law, Administrative Law, Science for Environmental Law, an Environmental Ethics/Philosophy distributional requirement, and a Dispute Resolution distributional requirement. Students who matriculated in the MELP program prior to August 2012 may satisfy the Science for Environmental Law requirement with any of the following courses: ENV5112 Science for Environmental Law, ENV5430 Ecology, or ENV5110 Ecology of Food and Agriculture.

b. Credits and Course Load

(1) MELP-only Students:

(a) To satisfy the 30-credit requirement, a student must take a minimum of 24 credits at Vermont Law School. A MELP student may take a maximum of 36 credits selected from courses approved for the MELP program for completion of the degree; however, if a student has reached 30 credits and satisfied all degree requirements at the end of any semester, the degree must be awarded.

(b) The minimum course load is six credits per semester for full-time students. The maximum course load is 14 credits per semester. The maximum course load for summer session is 11 credits. No exceptions are allowed other than with the prior written approval of the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee.

(2) Joint-Degree Students

See regulation IV below.
(3) Dual Degree Students

See regulations VI and VII below.

(4) Transfer of Credits

A student enrolled in the MELP program may be granted credit for summer or regular semester courses satisfactorily completed at an ABA-approved law school or at another accredited graduate school. A student may transfer a maximum of six such credits to the MELP program with the approval of the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee. Before granting such approval, the Director or his or her designee must determine that the course is offered at the graduate level and that the course is relevant and important to the student’s overall program of study. Courses eligible as transfer credit include only those courses with specific environmental substance. The Registrar must receive an official transcript showing that the course has been completed and that a grade of C or better (as defined in the Academic Regulations) has been awarded. Transcripts from a foreign institution must be accompanied by a WES or AACRAO evaluation. Grades from transferred courses will be noted on the student’s transcript but will not be used in computing the student’s grade average. Once a student has enrolled as a degree candidate, prior approval must be obtained from the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee to obtain credit for courses taken at another institution. No transfer credit will be given for a course completed more than 5 years prior to matriculation into the MELP program.

(5) Courses taken Prior to Enrollment

Students wishing to take a course previously taken at a law school or college or graduate school, may register for the course with the prior approval of the Director of the Environmental Law Center or Director’s designee, upon showing that the student would benefit from taking the course at Vermont Law School. Students may not take Administrative Law at Vermont Law School if they have taken it at another law school within the previous five years.

c. Duration of Program

(1) To obtain the MELP degree, a student must complete the degree requirements within a period of five years from matriculation.

(2) Students may usually enter the MELP program in the summer or fall semesters only. The Director of the Environmental Law Center shall have the discretion to allow students to enter the MELP program in the summer or spring semesters.

2. EXTERNSHIPS

The Masters Externship Program provides students with a field experience to test and develop their environmental law, policy, management, and /or science knowledge and skills.

a. Threshold Requirements for a MELP Externship

The Masters Externship Program provides students with a field experience to test and develop their environmental law, policy, management, and /or science knowledge and skills and as such, the following requirements must be met:

(1) Students must work primarily on site at the MELP Externship. Students may not receive MELP externship credit if their work is done by telecommuting.

(2) MELP externships are by definition environmental in their subject focus, so students must assure that their work on-site relates to environmental issues.
(3) Externships cannot be substituted for distributional requirements or required courses. No exceptions are allowed other than with prior written approval of the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee.

(4) The maximum number of credits a student may earn in one or more MELP externship(s) is ten credits.

(5) The minimum number of credits a student may earn in a MELP externship is four credits.

b. Eligibility Requirements

(1) Students in good academic standing may elect to enroll in a MELP externship.

(2) Students may not earn JD credit through an MELP externship.

(3) Students will not be allowed to enroll in an externship where they have previously worked as a volunteer or an employee unless the externship will provide a qualitatively different or more in depth learning experience.

(4) Without prior approval from the Director of the Masters Externship Program, students enrolled for six or more credits in a MELP or JD externship during a given semester may not subsequently continue in that placement and receive credit toward a MELP externship as a consequence of that extended placement. Students seeking to extend such long-term experiences shall petition the Director of the Masters Externship Program in writing with supporting materials that demonstrate the following:

The student’s experience during the subsequent MELP externship will be substantially different from the experience as a consequence of additional (and more difficult) responsibilities, new subject areas, or new skills to be developed.

c. Procedures for Enrolling in an MELP Externship

(1) Fill out in its entirety, including all signatures, the contract form available at www.vermontlaw.edu/MastersExternships.

(2) Submit the fully executed contract to the Director of the Masters Externship Program for approval of the externship opportunity.

(3) All fully executed contracts must be submitted to the Director of the Masters Externship Program by the first day of classes of the semester in which the student will be doing her or his externship.

1. The contract, once submitted to the Director of the Masters Externship Program, will be copied and distributed to the Mentor and the Faculty Supervisor.

2. Students who do not submit final, signed contracts by this deadline will not be enrolled in the MELP externship and will not receive credit for their work.

(4) The Director of the Masters Externship Program may decline any MELP externship contract or opportunity described therein that does not conform to these regulations.

d. Grades

(1) All MELP externships are pass/fail.
(2) Faculty Supervisors assign the grade based on the student’s journals, the Mentor’s letter of evaluation and other information such as work product, emails, telephone conversations and/or meetings and site visits with the student and Mentor.

3. INDEPENDENT RESEARCH PROJECTS

a. Students who elect to undertake independent research projects shall follow the guidelines set forth in regulation II.C.

b. Independent research projects cannot be substituted for distributional requirements or required courses. No exceptions are allowed other than with prior written approval of the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee.

4. GRADES AND ACADEMIC STANDARDS

a. Grading System

Each student’s cumulative grade-point average is initially determined after completion of the first semester of course work, in accordance with the following grading system:

- A 4.000
- A- 3.666
- B+ 3.333
- B 3.000
- B- 2.666
- C+ 2.333
- C 2.000
- C- 1.666
- D+ 1.333
- D 1.000
- F 0.000

Pass-Honors (no effect on average) .................................................. P-H
Pass (no effect on average) ............................................................. P
Low-Pass (no effect on average) ..................................................... L-P
Unexcused absence for examination ......................................... FAbs Unexcused failure to complete other course requirements including attendance, papers, etc .......................... F-Wd
The passing grade in an individual course is ....................... D (1.000)

b. Designations

Temporarily excused from completion of a requirement ............ I
[The student must complete the required work by the end of the spring semester in the case of a fall semester course, by the beginning of the fall semester in the case of a spring semester course, or by the end of the fall semester in the case of a summer session course or an additional grade of F-Wd will be entered.]

17 These are the course grades; grade point averages are rounded off to two decimal places.

18 If the faculty member submits the grade within this time period, the I designation will be removed from the transcript and the grade entered for the semester in which the student was originally registered for the course. Class rank, Dean’s List, and other honors will not be changed for that semester.

If the student receives an extension or the faculty member does not submit the grade within this time period, the I designation will remain on the transcript and the grade will be entered for the semester in which the work was actually completed.
c. The following course is graded Pass-Honors/Pass/Low-Pass/Fail: Environmental and Natural Resources Law Clinic

d. The following courses are graded Pass/Fail: MELP Externships Vermont Journal of Environmental Law

e. Probation and Dismissal

(1) To be in good academic standing, a student must have an overall average of at least 2.20.

(2) Probation: A student will be placed on academic probation if, at any time after the completion of the first semester of course work, the student’s cumulative average is between 1.90 and 2.20.

(3) Academic dismissal: A student will be dismissed if:

(a) the student has failed six credit hours upon completion of the first semester of course work; or

(b) the student’s cumulative average is below 1.90 at the end of any semester;

(c) the student’s cumulative average is below 2.20 at the end of any semester and if, at the end of any previous semester, the student was placed on academic probation; or

(d) the student’s cumulative average is below 2.20 at the completion of the program.

(4) A student who would otherwise be dismissed under subparagraph 5.c. (3) will be allowed to continue for a second semester on academic probation if the student’s grade point average for the first semester on academic probation, if repeated for the second semester on academic probation with a credit load of 12 credits, is sufficient to achieve the required cumulative average of 2.20 at the end of the second semester on academic probation.

(5) A student who is academically dismissed may not petition the Committee on Standards for readmission earlier than one year after the date of academic dismissal. The Committee will grant readmission only if it finds that the student has satisfactorily addressed the factors that contributed to the academic dismissal. If the Committee grants a petition for readmission, it may impose any conditions it deems appropriate.

f. Degrees and Honors

(1) Degrees are awarded at the meetings of the Board of Trustees in the fall and spring and at the commencement held annually at the end of the spring semester.

(2) Vermont Law School grants degrees cum laude, magna cum laude, and summa cum laude. These degrees are awarded as follows:

- cum laude.................. 3.25
- magna cum laude ............ 3.50
- summa cum laude .......... 3.75

B. MASTER OF ENERGY REGULATION AND LAW DEGREE (MERL)

1. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

   a. General

      (1) The degree of Master of Energy Regulation and Law (MERL) is granted for regular attendance and satisfactory completion of the prescribed course of study. A minimum of 30 credits is required for the MERL degree. These credits must be selected from courses approved for the MERL program. A cumulative grade point average of 2.20 is required for successful completion of the MERL degree.

(3) Any remaining electives may be chosen from the courses and experiential options listed above and from the list of approved courses in section III.A.1.a. (4).

(4) The Director of the Environmental Law Center or Director’s designee has the authority to waive any of these course requirements provided the student has had comparable experience or course work. Although requirements may be waived, the total number of credits required for degree completion remains unchanged.

b. Credits and Course Load
(1) MERL-only Students:

(a) To satisfy the 30-credit requirement, a student must take a minimum of 24 credits at Vermont Law School. A MERL student may take a maximum of 36 credits selected from courses approved for the MERL program for completion of the degree; however, if a student has reached 30 credits and satisfied all degree requirements at the end of any semester, the degree must be awarded.

IV. JOINT DEGREES

A. JOINT JD/MASTER OF ENVIRONMENTAL LAW AND POLICY (MELP) DEGREE

1. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

   a. General

   (1) The JD and MELP degrees are awarded for the satisfactory completion of a program which includes the requirements of the JD program as well as those of the MELP program. The regulations in sections II and III above apply to joint degree students.

   (2) A joint-degree student may share credits between the two degree programs. A joint-degree student must take a minimum of 21 non-shared MELP credits at Vermont Law School. A joint-degree student may take a maximum of 35 MELP credits for completion of the MELP degree; however, if a student has reached 30 credits and satisfied all degree requirements at the end of any semester, the degree must be awarded. All credits must be selected from the list of courses approved for the MELP program.

   (3) A joint-degree student’s course load may not exceed a total of 18 credits during the fall and spring semesters.

   (4) No exceptions are allowed other than with prior written approval of the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee.

B. JOINT JD/MASTER OF ENERGY REGULATION AND LAW (MERL) DEGREE

1. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

   a. General

   (1) The JD and MERL degrees are awarded for the satisfactory completion of a program which includes the requirements of the JD program as well as those of the MERL program. The regulations in sections II and III above apply to joint degree students.

   (2) A joint-degree student may share credits between the two degree programs. A joint-degree student must take a minimum of 21 non-shared MERL credits at Vermont Law School. A joint-degree student may take a maximum of 35 MERL credits for completion of the MERL degree; however, if a student has reached 30 credits and satisfied all degree requirements at the end of any semester, the degree must be awarded.

   (3) A joint-degree student’s course load may not exceed a total of 18 credits during the fall and spring semesters.

23 Students who matriculated in the MELP program prior to May 2013 must satisfy the following requirements: Environmental Law, Administrative Law, Science for Environmental Law, an Environmental Ethics/Philosophy distributional requirement, and a Dispute Resolution distributional requirement. Students who matriculated in the MELP program prior to August 2012 may satisfy the Science for Environmental Law requirement with any of the following courses: ENV5112 Science for Environmental Law, ENV5430 Ecology, or ENV5110 Ecology of Food and Agriculture.
(4) No exceptions are allowed other than with prior written approval of the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee.

C. JOINT JD/LLM IN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW DEGREE

1. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

a. General

(1) The JD and LLM in Environmental Law (LLM) degrees are awarded for the satisfactory completion of a program which includes the requirements of the JD program as well as those of the LLM program. The regulations in sections II (JD) and VIII (LLM in Environmental Law) apply to joint degree students.

(2) JD/LLM students must finish all requirements for the JD degree before beginning the LLM degree.

(3) A JD/LLM student may transfer up to nine credits from the JD program to the LLM program. A JD/LLM student must take a minimum of 21 LLM credits at Vermont Law School. All credits must be selected from the list of courses approved for the LLM program. All credits to be transferred must be approved by the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee.

(4) No exceptions are allowed other than with prior written approval of the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee.

D. JOINT JD/LLM IN ENERGY LAW DEGREE

1. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

a. General

(1) The JD and LLM in Energy Law (LLM) degrees are awarded for the satisfactory completion of a program which includes the requirements of the JD program as well as those of the LLM program. The regulations in sections II (JD) and VIII (LLM in Energy Law) apply to joint degree students.

(2) JD/LLM students must finish all requirements for the JD degree before beginning the LLM degree.

(3) A JD/LLM student may transfer up to nine credits from the JD program to the LLM program. A JD/LLM student must take a minimum of 21 LLM credits at Vermont Law School. All credits must be selected from the list of courses approved for the LLM program. All credits to be transferred must be approved by the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee.

(4) The Energy Electives and General Electives requirements shall not be waived for courses completed prior to matriculation in the LLM program. All LLM candidates must take four credits of Energy Electives and nine credits of General Electives from the above list provided they do not duplicate prior course work. If an LLM candidate is unable to fulfill this requirement without duplicating prior coursework, the candidate must submit an alternative coursework plan to be approved by the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee.

The Project requirement shall not be waived because of prior completion of one of the listed options. LLM candidates who have completed one of the listed projects as part of a prior program must choose a different project to meet the LLM requirement.
V. DUAL DEGREES - JD PROGRAM

Vermont Law School, in conjunction with other institutions, offers the following dual degree options for JD students:

- JD/MEM (Yale School of Forestry and Environmental Studies)
- JD/Master II-DJCE (Université de Cergy-Pontoise (Cergy))
- JD/MBA (Thunderbird School of Global Management)
- JD/MS or MA (Thunderbird School of Global Management)
- JD/Master in Spanish Constitutional Law (Universidad de Sevilla)
- JD/MPhil (University of Cambridge)

Students are required to satisfy the graduation requirements of both institutions. The JD degree requirements, as described in regulation II. above, govern except as modified by this regulation.

A. ADMISSION

Each program has different criteria for admission. See Program Requirements, below.

The first school that the applicant applies to will be termed the “domicile” of the student, and the original admissions documents will be filed at that school. The other school will be termed the “secondary school” for that student. Vermont Law School and its partner institutions have agreed to share supporting documentation, such as transcripts, L.S.A.T. and G.R.E. reports, letters of recommendation, writing samples, personal statements, and the like. Photocopies of those documents, certified by the Registrar of the institution holding the original documents, will be deemed adequate for admissions purposes.

B. REGISTRATION AND RECORDS

The Registrar of each school will register dual degree candidates for courses taken at that school according to the academic schedule of each school. Each Registrar will also certify completion of courses and the assignment of credit. Transcripts of students in the program will bear a notation that the student is enrolled in the dual degree program.

Students are entitled to attend graduation at both schools. Students will receive separate diplomas.

C. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

Students are required to satisfy the graduation requirements of both institutions. The Vermont Law School JD degree requirements govern except as modified by each program’s specific regulation. See below.

D. RESIDENCE REQUIREMENT

Regulation II.A.5.c. requires that a student must be in residence at Vermont Law School for the last four semesters of the JD degree. For purposes of this regulation, one semester at the partner institution will count towards satisfaction of this residence requirement. Students enrolled in the JD/Master’s program with the University of Seville and in the dual degree programs with the University of Cergy-Pontoise may apply two semesters towards satisfaction of this requirement.

E. ACCELERATED SCHEDULING OPTION

Participants in dual degree programs are eligible for the accelerated scheduling option, which allows students to accelerate graduation by using a full summer session in lieu of a regular semester. See Reg
II.A.6. Participants must follow the application procedures detailed therein. Dual degree applicants must meet with the dual degree advisor and must receive counseling on the academic and financial consequences of participating in the accelerated scheduling program.

F. ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE AND CONDUCT

A candidate for a dual degree is expected to comply fully with all academic and other applicable requirements of both Vermont Law School and the partner institution, even if they are different. Issues concerning academic performance or student conduct will be subject to the regulations and procedures of the school where the matter arose. See regulation II.D. above and regulations XI. and XII. below.

Students must be in good academic standing at both schools to remain in the program.

G. WITHDRAWAL FROM A DUAL DEGREE PROGRAM

Except as provided by Regulations V.H.2.c. and V.H. 5c., if a student leaves a dual program or fails to complete the program requirements for the degree at the partner institution, the student will no longer be considered a dual degree student. As a result, the student will be required to meet the residence requirements of regulation II.A.4. above. Credits earned at the partner institution will not be transferred to the Vermont Law School transcript.

H. PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

1. DUAL JD/MEM

   Vermont Law School and the Yale School of Forestry and Environmental Studies offers a dual JD/MEM program to students from both institutions. The program enables students to earn both degrees concurrently over a four year period.

   a. ADMISSION

      A candidate for the dual degree must apply separately to, and be accepted by, both Vermont Law School and the Yale School of Forestry & Environmental Management (Yale). Information on application requirements and procedures for admission to the Yale School of Forestry & Management are available from Yale. Each school will admit students according to its own criteria for admission. Joint applications may be discussed and coordinated by admissions officials at both schools.

   b. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

      The JD requires 87 credits. A candidate for the dual JD/MEM degree must satisfactorily complete all the requirements for the JD degree as described in regulation II. above. A dual degree candidate may share a total of 12 (twelve) credits between the JD and MEM programs. This means that a Vermont Law School candidate for a dual JD/MEM degree may apply the equivalent of 12 (twelve) Vermont Law School credits of course work successfully completed at Yale to the JD degree, thereby reducing to 75 the number of JD credits taken at Vermont Law School required for the JD degree.

      A dual-degree candidate may not satisfy the perspective requirement and the skills requirement with courses taken at Yale without the prior permission of the Assistant Dean for Academic Affairs.

      No credit toward the JD degree will be given for courses taken at Yale prior to the student’s matriculation into the JD program at Vermont Law School.

   2. DUAL JD/MASTER I and JD/MASTER II-DJCE DEGREE
Vermont Law School and l’Université de Cergy-Pontoise (Cergy) offer to students from both institutions a dual JD/MI and JD/MII-DJCE degree program in the law of business organizations. The program enables students to earn the JD/Master I concurrently over a three-year period and the JD/Master I and JD/MII-DJCE over a four-year period. Graduates of the program will be able to sit for the bar examination in the United States and France, according to each country’s requirements.

a. ADMISSION/ELIGIBILITY

(1) Vermont Law School students must begin the dual degree program at Vermont Law School.

(2) Vermont Law School applicants must be in the top half of their class at the end of the semester preceding their application to the program and continue to be in the top half of their class through the completion of the semester prior to taking courses at Cergy.

(3) Students must have a sufficient mastery of French to take courses and examinations in French. Level of competence in French will be determined by oral and written examination to the satisfaction of the Director of International and Comparative Programs.

(4) A maximum of four Vermont Law School students will be admitted to either program during any one academic year.

b. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

1. The JD requires 87 credits. A candidate for a dual JD/MI or JD/MII-DJCE degree may apply to the JD degree up to the equivalent of one third or 29 Vermont Law School credits of course work successfully completed at Cergy, thereby reducing to 58 the minimum number of JD credits that must be completed at Vermont Law School. The total credits that may be applied to the JD degree from study abroad is governed by regulation II.A.f.

2. A dual-degree candidate may satisfy the perspective requirement during study at Cergy.

3. Program participants beginning their studies at Vermont Law School must satisfactorily complete the following courses at Vermont Law School before beginning course work in France:

   (a) Corporations

   (b) At least one course in each of the following categories:

      • Corporate Finance or Securities Regulation

      • Income Taxation or Business Taxation

(4) Program participants beginning their studies at Vermont Law School must also satisfactorily complete courses that include the following subjects before matriculating in France:
(a) A course in Introduction to the French Legal System, the French Civil Code, or French Legal Method

(b) French Corporate Law

Courses satisfying these requirements may be offered at Vermont Law School or at Cergy. These requirements may, with the prior permission of the Director of International and Comparative Programs, also be satisfied by summer study at another ABA-approved law school.

Other appropriate courses may be substituted for the courses listed in subpart (3)(b) of this regulation with the prior permission of the Director of International and Comparative Programs.

(5) Program participants beginning their studies at Cergy will be admitted to the Vermont Law School JD degree program with advanced standing. Advanced standing and credit hours granted for foreign study may not exceed one-third (1/3) of the total credits required by Vermont Law School for its JD degree (i.e., 29 credits). Courses that qualify for application to the JD degree for these students shall be determined by the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs at Vermont Law School in consultation with the Director of International and Comparative Programs.

Program participants beginning their studies at Cergy will ordinarily be required to complete the required first-year JD curriculum at Vermont Law School. Exceptions will be granted by the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs at Vermont Law School in consultation with the Director of International and Comparative Programs.

c. WITHDRAWAL FROM THE PROGRAM

If a student leaves the program or fails to complete the program requirements for either the Vermont Law School JD degree or the Cergy Master I or Master II-DJCE degree, the student will no longer be considered a dual-degree student. As a result, the student will be required to meet the residence requirements of regulation II.A.5. above. Credits earned at Cergy will not be transferred to the Vermont Law School transcript unless the student has earned a Cergy Master I “Droit spécialité Business Law” or unless the credits may be transferred according to the usual rules applicable to transfer of foreign credits earned by participation in Vermont Law School study abroad programs. In advance of withdrawal, Vermont Law School students should consult with the Vermont Law School Office of Financial Aid to determine the impact of withdrawal on financial aid awards.

3. DUAL JD/LLM IN FRENCH AND EUROPEAN UNION LAW

Vermont Law School and the Université de Cergy-Pontoise (Cergy) offer this dual degree program which enables VLS students to earn both a JD and LLM degree in French and European Law.

a. ADMISSION/ELIGIBILITY

(1) Vermont Law School students must begin the dual degree program at Vermont Law School.

(2) Vermont Law School applicants must be in the top half of their class at the end of the semester preceding their application to the program and continue to be in the top half of their class through the completion of the semester prior to taking courses at Cergy.

(3) Vermont Law School students must apply for admission to this program through Vermont Law School.
b. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

(1) The JD requires 87 credits. In accordance with ABA regulations, students may apply to the JD degree the equivalent of one third, or 29 Vermont Law School credits, from course work successfully completed at foreign law institutions, thereby reducing to 58 the minimum number of JD credits that must be completed at Vermont Law School.

(2) A dual degree candidate in this program may satisfy the perspective requirement through courses taken in the LLM portion of the program of study.

(3) Program participants must satisfactorily complete the following course work at Vermont Law School before beginning course work at Cergy:

- Comparative Law: Comparative Legal Systems; or
- Both French Legal Method and French Corporate Law

Other appropriate courses may be substituted for the courses listed above with the prior permission of the Director of International and Comparative Law Programs.

c. WITHDRAWAL FROM THE PROGRAM

If a student leaves the program or fails to complete the program requirements for either the Vermont Law School JD degree or the Cergy LLM degree, the student will no longer be considered a dual-degree student. As a result, the student will be required to meet the residence requirements of regulation II.A.5. Credits earned at Cergy will not be transferred to the Vermont Law School transcript unless the credits may be transferred according to the usual rules applicable to transfer of foreign credits earned by participation in Vermont Law School study abroad programs. In advance of withdrawal, Vermont Law School students should consult with the Vermont Law School Office of Financial Aid to determine the impact of withdrawal on financial aid awards.

4. DUAL JD/MBA

Vermont Law School and the Thunderbird School of Global Management offer a dual JD/MBA degree program to students from both institutions. The program enables students to earn both degrees concurrently, generally over a four year period.

a. ADMISSION

A candidate for the dual degree must apply separately to, and be accepted by, both Vermont Law School and Thunderbird School of Global Management. Information on application requirements and on procedures for admission to the MBA program is available from Thunderbird. Each school will admit students according to its own criteria for admission. Joint application may be discussed and coordinated by admissions officials at both schools.

b. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

The JD requires 87 credits. A candidate for the dual JD/MBA degree may apply to the JD degree the equivalent of 15 Vermont Law School credits of course work successfully completed at Thunderbird, thereby reducing to 72 the minimum number of JD credits that must be completed at Vermont Law School. Thunderbird will accept 15 JD credits toward the completion of the MBA, thus reducing the number of required credits from 60 to 45.

No credit toward the JD degree will be given for courses taken at Thunderbird prior to the student’s matriculation into the JD program at Vermont Law School.
A dual-degree candidate may not satisfy the perspective requirement and/or the skills requirement with courses taken at Thunderbird without the prior permission of the Assistant Dean for Academic Affairs.

VLS will not accept in transfer credit any credits earned for internships, in language classes, or in courses that duplicate offerings at VLS.

5. DUAL JD/MA or JD/MS

Vermont Law School and the Thunderbird School of Global Management offer two additional dual degree programs: a JD/MA and JD/MS program. Each program enables students to earn their JD and Master’s degree concurrently over a four year period.

a. ADMISSION

A candidate for the dual degree must apply separately to, and be accepted by, both Vermont Law School and Thunderbird School of Global Management. Information on application requirements and on procedures for admission to the MA or MS programs is available from Thunderbird. Each school will admit students according to its own criteria for admission. Joint application may be discussed and coordinated by admissions officials at both schools.

b. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

The JD requires 87 credits. A candidate for the dual JD/MA or MS degree may apply to the JD degree the equivalent of 15 Vermont Law School credits of course work successfully completed at Thunderbird, thereby reducing to 72 the minimum number of JD credits that must be completed at Vermont Law School.

No credit toward the JD degree will be given for courses taken at Thunderbird prior to the student’s matriculation into the JD program at Vermont Law School.

A dual-degree candidate may not satisfy the perspective requirement and/or the skills requirement with courses taken at Thunderbird without the prior permission of the Assistant Dean for Academic Affairs.

VLS will not accept in transfer credit any credits earned for internships, in language classes, or in courses that duplicate offerings at VLS.

6. DUAL JD/MASTER IN SPANISH CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

Vermont Law School and the University of Seville (Spain) offer this dual degree program which enables VLS students to earn both a JD and a Master’s degree in Spanish Constitutional Law over six semesters. Students from the University of Seville will earn an LLM in American Legal Studies or an LLM in Environmental Law.

a. ADMISSION/ELIGIBILITY

Vermont Law School students must begin the dual degree program at Vermont Law School. A Vermont Law School candidate wishing to enroll in the program must apply in writing to the Director of International and Comparative Programs by the fall semester of the candidate’s second year of law school.

(1) Vermont Law School applicants must be in the top half of their class at the end of the semester preceding their application to the program and continue to be in the top half of their class through the completion of the semester prior to taking courses at Seville.
(2) Students must have a sufficient mastery of Spanish to take courses and examinations in Spanish. Competence in Spanish will be determined by oral and written examination to the satisfaction of the Director of International and Comparative Programs.

(3) Students will be notified of acceptance before the conclusion of the fall semester in which they apply. A maximum of two Vermont Law School students will be admitted to the program during any one academic year. Applications may be discussed and coordinated by admissions officials at both schools.

b. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

(1) The JD requires 87 credits. A candidate for the dual JD/Master’s degree may apply to the JD degree the equivalent of one third, or 29 Vermont Law School credits of course work successfully completed at Seville, thereby reducing to 58 the minimum number of JD credits that must be completed at Vermont Law School. The total credits that may be applied to the JD degree from study abroad is governed by regulation II.A.f.

(2) Program participants beginning their studies at Vermont Law School must satisfactorily complete the following courses at Vermont Law School before beginning course work in Seville:

- Constitutional Law and Public Law.
- Administrative Law.
- Comparative Law.
- Constitutional Criminal Procedure or Criminal Procedure and Practice.
- Spanish Constitutional Law Seminar.
- At least one course in each of the following categories:
  - Election Law, Civil Rights Seminar, Race and the Law, Sexual Orientation and the Law, Women and the Law
- Other appropriate courses may be substituted for the courses listed in subparts b.-f. of this regulation with the prior permission of the Director of International and Comparative Programs.

(3) Participation in this program satisfies the perspective requirement. Students cannot satisfy the skills requirement with courses taken at Seville.

(4) Program participants beginning their studies at Vermont Law School must attend Seville during the fall and spring semesters of their third year.

(5) Program participants beginning their studies at the University of Seville will be admitted to the Vermont Law School LLM degree program of their choice. LLM students must commence their studies at Vermont Law School in the fall semester.

c. WITHDRAWAL FROM THE PROGRAM

If a student leaves the program or fails to complete the program requirements for either the Vermont Law School JD degree or the Seville Master’s degree, the student will no longer be considered a dual-degree student. As a result, the student will be required to meet the residence requirements of regulation II.A.4. above, unless a sufficient number of credits may be transferred according to the rules applicable to exchange programs. Credits earned at Seville will not be transferred to the Vermont Law School transcript unless the credits may be transferred according to the usual rules applicable to transfer of foreign credits earned by participation in Vermont Law School study abroad programs. In advance of withdrawal, Vermont Law School students should consult with the Vermont Law School Office of Financial Aid to determine the impact of withdrawal on financial aid awards.

7. DUAL JD/M.Phil

Vermont Law School and the University of Cambridge offer this dual degree program which enables VLS students to earn both a JD and a Master’s degree in one of the following fields: Real Estate Finance; Environmental Policy; and Planning, Growth and Regeneration.

a. ADMISSION/ELIGIBILITY

a. Vermont Law School students must begin the dual degree program at Vermont Law School. A Vermont Law School candidate wishing to enroll in the program must apply in writing to the Director of the Environmental Law Center during the fall semester of the candidate’s second year of law school.

b. Vermont Law School applicants must be in the top half of their class at the end of the semester preceding their application to the program and continue to be in the top half of their class through the completion of the semester prior to taking courses at Cambridge.

c. Students will be notified of acceptance before the conclusion of the fall semester in which they apply. A maximum of two Vermont Law School students will be admitted to the program during any one academic year. Applications may be discussed and coordinated by admissions officials at both schools.

b. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

(1) The JD requires 87 credits. A candidate for the dual JD/Master’s degree may apply to the JD degree the equivalent of 14 Vermont Law School credits of course work successfully completed at Cambridge, thereby reducing to 73 the minimum number of JD credits that must be completed at Vermont Law School. The total number of credits that may be applied to the JD degree from study abroad is governed by regulation II.A.f.

VI. DUAL DEGREES – MELP PROGRAM

A. ADMISSION

A candidate for a dual degree must apply separately to, and be accepted by, both Vermont Law School and the school conferring the second degree. Students may apply for admission to these dual degree programs at any time prior to the awarding of the degrees.

Each school will admit students according to its own criteria for admission. Joint applications may be discussed and coordinated by admissions officials at both schools.

The first school that the applicant applies to will be termed the “domicile” of the student, and the original admissions documents will be filed at that school. The other school will be termed the “secondary school” for that student. Vermont Law School and its partner institutions have agreed to share supporting documentation, such as transcripts and G.R.E. reports, letters of recommendation, writing samples, personal statements, and the like. Photocopies of those documents, certified by the Registrar of the institution holding the original documents, will be deemed adequate for admissions purposes.
B. REGISTRATION AND RECORDS

The Registrar of each school will register dual degree candidates for courses taken at that school, according to the academic schedule of each school. Each Registrar will also certify completion of courses and the assignments of credit. Transcripts of students in the program will bear a notation that the student is enrolled in the dual degree program.

Credits and grades for courses taken at the secondary school will appear on the Vermont Law School transcript; however, grades will not be included in the computation of the Vermont Law School grade point average.

Students are entitled to attend graduation at both schools. Students will receive separate diplomas.

C. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

Students are required to satisfy the graduation requirements of both institutions. The Vermont Law School MELP degree requirements govern except as modified by each program’s specific regulation. See below.

D. ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE AND CONDUCT

A candidate for a dual degree is expected to comply fully with all academic and other applicable requirements of both Vermont Law School and the partner institution, even if they are different. Issues concerning academic performance or student conduct will be subject to the regulations and procedures of the school where the matter arose.

Students must be in good academic standing at both schools to remain in the program.

E. WITHDRAWAL FROM A DUAL DEGREE PROGRAM

If a student leaves a dual program or fails to complete the program requirements for the degree at the partner institution, the student will no longer be considered a dual degree student. Credits earned at the partner institution will not be transferred to the Vermont Law School transcript, except as allowed by regulation III.A.2.d. above.

F. PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

1. DUAL MELP/MBA (Tuck School of Business)

Vermont Law School and the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College offer a dual MELP/MBA degree program to students from both institutions. The program enables students to earn both degrees concurrently.

The MELP is a 30 credit degree. A dual degree candidate may share a total of nine credits between the MELP and MBA programs. This means that a Vermont Law School candidate for a dual MELP/MBA degree may apply the equivalent of nine Vermont Law School credits of course work successfully completed at Tuck to the MELP degree, thereby reducing to 21 the number of credits required for the MELP degree.

Tuck courses that are relevant and important to the MELP candidate’s overall course of study may be applied to the MELP degree. Courses that qualify for application to the MELP degree shall be determined by the Director of the Environmental Law Center, in consultation with the Dean of the Tuck School. A list of approved courses is available from the Environmental Law Center. A MELP candidate may request approval of a Tuck course that is not on the list by demonstrating how the course will enhance the candidate’s course of study.
2. DUAL MELP/MS (Natural Resources)

Vermont Law School and the University of Vermont School of Natural Resources offer a dual MELP/MS degree program to students from both institutions. The program enables students to earn both degrees concurrently.

The MELP is a 30 credit degree. A dual degree candidate may share a total of nine credits between the MELP and MS (Natural Resources) programs. This means that a Vermont Law School candidate for a dual MELP/MS (Natural Resources) degree may apply nine credits of course work successfully completed at the University of Vermont School of Natural Resources, thereby reducing to 21 the number of MELP credits required for the MELP degree.

University of Vermont courses that are relevant and important to the MELP candidate’s overall course of study may be applied to the MELP degree. Courses that qualify for application to the MELP degree shall be determined by the Director of the Environmental Law Center, in consultation with the program coordinator at the University of Vermont School of Natural Resources. A list of approved courses is available from the Environmental Law Center. Upon petition to the Director of the Environmental Law Center, or the Director’s designee, an MELP candidate may seek approval of a University of Vermont course that is not on the list by demonstrating how that course will significantly enhance the candidate’s course of study.

3. DUAL MELP/MBA (Thunderbird School of Global Management)

Vermont Law School and the Thunderbird School of Global Management offer a dual MELP/MBA degree program to students from both institutions. The program enables students to earn both degrees concurrently, generally over a four year period.

The MELP requires 30 credits. A candidate for the dual MELP/MBA degree may apply to the MELP degree up to 9 credits of course work successfully completed at Thunderbird. Thunderbird will accept 15 MELP credits from approved courses toward the completion of the MBA, thus reducing the number of required credits from 60 to 45.

VLS will not accept in transfer credit any credits earned for internships, in language classes, or in courses that duplicate offerings at VLS.

4. DUAL MELP/MA or MELP/MS (Thunderbird School of Global Management)

The Vermont Law School and the Thunderbird School of Global Management dual degree program enables students to earn two Master degrees concurrently, generally over a two year period.

The MELP requires 30 credits. A candidate for the dual degree may apply to the MELP degree the equivalent of 9 Vermont Law School credits of course work successfully completed at Thunderbird, thereby reducing to 21 the minimum number of credits that must be completed at Vermont Law School.

VLS will not accept in transfer credit any credits earned for internships, in language classes, or in courses that duplicate offerings at VLS.

VII. DUAL JD/MELP DEGREE PROGRAMS WITH OTHER LAW SCHOOLS

A. ADMISSION

A candidate for a dual degree must apply separately to, and be accepted by, both Vermont Law School and the school conferring the second degree.
B. REGISTRATION AND RECORDS

Registration for dual degree students at either school is according to the academic schedule of each school.

An official from each school must be provided to the Registrar of the other school. Credits and grades for courses taken at the other school will appear on the Vermont Law School transcript; however, grades will not be included in the computation of the Vermont Law School grade point average.

Students are entitled to attend commencement at both schools. Students will receive separate diplomas.

C. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

Students are required to satisfy the graduation requirements of both institutions. The Vermont Law School MELP degree requirements govern except as modified by each program’s specific regulation. See below.

D. ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE AND CONDUCT

A candidate for a dual degree is expected to comply fully with all academic and other applicable requirements of both Vermont Law School and the partner institution, even if they are different. Issues concerning academic performance or student conduct will be subject to the regulations and procedures of the school where the matter arose.

Students must be in good academic standing at both schools to remain in the program.

E. WITHDRAWAL FROM A DUAL DEGREE PROGRAM

If a student leaves a dual program or fails to complete the program requirements for the degree at the partner institution, the student will no longer be considered a dual degree student. Credits earned at the partner institution will not be transferred to the Vermont Law School transcript, except as allowed by regulation III.A.1.b.4 above.

F. PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

1. DUAL JD/MELP WITH THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Vermont Law School and the University of South Carolina School of Law offer a dual JD/MELP degree program that enables students to earn both degrees concurrently over a three-year period.

a. Students are required to begin the dual degree program at the University of South Carolina School of Law.

b. A candidate for the dual JD/MELP degree must satisfactorily complete all the requirements for the MELP degree as described in regulation III above. A dual degree candidate may transfer a total of 9 (nine) credits from his/her JD program to the MELP program.

c. Vermont Law School will accept 9 (nine) credits of course work completed in the JD program at the University of South Carolina School of Law. Courses taken at U.S.C. that are to be applied toward the MELP degree must be approved by the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee. Courses taken at U.S.C. will not be applied toward the MELP degree if they substantially duplicate a course that may be taken at Vermont Law School.

d. The total maximum number of credits a student enrolled in this dual degree may earn toward a MELP Externship is ten credits.
e. The courses taken, the grades awarded, and the credits earned for courses transferred from the University of South Carolina School of Law will be noted on the Vermont Law School transcript, but the course grades will not be included in the student’s Vermont Law School grade average. All passing grades (i.e., a grade of D or better) will be accepted.

2. DUAL JD/MELP WITH THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH DAKOTA

Vermont Law School and the University of South Dakota School of Law offer a dual JD/MELP degree program that enables students to earn both degrees concurrently over a three-year period.

a. Students are required to begin the dual degree program at the University of South Dakota School of Law.

b. A candidate for the dual JD/MELP degree must satisfactorily complete all the requirements for the MELP degree as described in regulation III above. A dual degree candidate may transfer a total of 9 (nine) credits from his/her JD program to the MELP program.

c. Vermont Law School will accept 9 (nine) credits of course work completed in the JD program at the University of South Dakota School of Law. Courses taken at U.S.D. that are to be applied toward the MELP degree must be approved by the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee. Courses taken at U.S.D. will not be applied toward the MELP degree if they substantially duplicate a course that may be taken at Vermont Law School.

d. The total maximum number of credits a student enrolled in this dual degree may earn toward a MELP Externship is ten credits.

e. The courses taken, the grades awarded, and the credits earned for courses transferred from the University of South Dakota School of Law will be noted on the Vermont Law School transcript, but the course grades will not be included in the student’s Vermont Law School grade average. All passing grades (i.e., a grade of D or better) will be accepted.

3. DUAL JD/MELP WITH NORTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY

a. Through a combination of transfer credits and an environmental law co-op work placement that provides internship credit, Northeastern University School of Law (Northeastern) and Vermont Law School (VLS) will allow students who meet degree requirements at both schools to receive a dual degree of Juris Doctor (JD) and Master of Environmental Law and Policy (MELP) within the three year term of the JD degree.

b. Students are required to begin the dual degree program at Northeastern.

c. A candidate for the dual JD/MELP degree must satisfactorily complete all the requirements for the MELP degree as described in regulation III above. A dual degree candidate may transfer a total of 9 (nine) credits from his/her JD program to the MELP program.

d. Vermont Law School will accept 9 (nine) credits of course work completed in the JD program at Northeastern School of Law toward completion of the MELP. Courses taken at Northeastern that are to be applied toward the MELP degree must be approved by the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee. Courses taken at Northeastern will not be applied toward the MELP degree if they substantially duplicate a course that may be taken at Vermont Law School.

e. Northeastern will accept 12 credits toward the completion of the JD.
f. MELP Externships and Co-op Work Quarters: Students may use one of Northeastern co-op experience as an MELP externship. Students must follow both Northeastern co-op and VLS Externship guidelines and application deadlines.

g. The total maximum number of credits a student enrolled in this dual degree may earn toward a MELP Externship is ten credits.

h. The courses taken, the grades awarded, and the credits earned for courses transferred from the Northeastern University School of Law will be noted on the Vermont Law School transcript, but the course grades will not be included in the student’s Vermont Law School grade average. All passing grades (i.e., a grade of D or better) will be accepted.

VIII. MASTER OF LAWS (LLM) DEGREE PROGRAMS

A. MASTER OF LAWS IN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW DEGREE (LLM)

1. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

a. General

(1) The degree of Master of Laws in Environmental Law (LLM) is granted for regular attendance and satisfactory completion of the prescribed course of study. A minimum of 30 credits is required for the LLM degree. These credits must be selected from courses approved for the LLM program. A cumulative grade point average of 2.20 is required for successful completion of the LLM degree.

(2) Each student must satisfy the following requirements for the LLM degree:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Requirement</th>
<th>Courses that Satisfy the Requirement</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Graduate Seminar</td>
<td>ENV9606 LLM Graduate Seminar (3 credits)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Environmental Law</td>
<td>ENV5115 Environmental Law (3 credits)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Administrative Law</td>
<td>ENV5105 Administrative Law (3 credits)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

With the approval of the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee, an LLM candidate may waive Environmental Law or Administrative Law if the candidate has successfully completed equivalent course work in a JD program at an ABA accredited law school or comparable international academic institution. Although requirements may be waived, the total number of credits required for degree completion remains unchanged.

(3) Any remaining electives may be chosen from the courses and experiential options listed above and from the list of approved courses in section III.A.1.a. (4).

(4) Optional LLM Thesis or Project

(a) Thesis

An LLM candidate may choose to write a thesis. Six credits will be given for the satisfactory completion of an LLM thesis. The thesis must be a substantial piece of written work of publishable quality. A 10-15 page thesis proposal must be approved 24 Students who matriculated in the LLM in Environmental Law program prior to May 2013 must satisfy the following requirements: the LLM Graduate Seminar, Environmental Law, Administrative Law, Science for Environmental Law, and Natural Resources Law. Students who matriculated in the LLM program prior to August 2012 may satisfy the Science for Environmental Law requirement with any of the following courses: ENV5112 Science for Environmental Law, ENV5430 Ecology, or ENV5110 Ecology of Food and Agriculture.

by the LLM candidate’s faculty supervisor and the Director of the Environmental Law Center before the thesis is begun.

A student will have three terms to complete the thesis. A student will register in the term in which the thesis project is begun. A student who writes a thesis must make an oral presentation to the Vermont Law School community of the thesis work and must deposit a copy of the thesis in the Vermont Law School Library. The grade will be entered on the transcript in the semester the thesis is completed. Ordinarily, an LLM student will begin the thesis in the spring semester. If a student extends the thesis project beyond three terms, regulation X.C.2 (below) “Temporarily excused from completion of a requirement” applies.

(b) Teaching Project

An LLM candidate may choose to undertake a teaching project. A minimum of 4 and a maximum of 6 credits will be given for a teaching project. To receive credit for teaching, a candidate must satisfactorily complete a teaching practicum under the guidance of a faculty supervisor and the appropriate number of hours of actual teaching in the classroom. A five-page teaching project proposal must be approved by the LLM candidate’s faculty supervisor and the Director of the Environmental Law Center before the project is begun.

(c) An LLM candidate who is a Fellow of the Environmental and Natural Resources Law Clinic (ENRLC) may elect to undertake a second teaching project with the approval of the ENRLC Director. Each teaching project will be for a minimum of 4 credits and a maximum of 6 credits. The second teaching project must provide a qualitatively different experience from the first. The ENRLC Fellow must satisfactorily complete all aspects of each teaching project in accordance with the teaching project plan, subject to the ENRLC Director's approval.

(d) Research Project

An LLM candidate may choose to undertake a research project, either alone or as part of a joint effort with other LLM candidates. A minimum of 2 and a maximum of 6 credits will be given for a research project. An LLM project must be a substantial undertaking, involving significant legal and policy research. A five-page research project proposal must be approved by the LLM candidate’s faculty supervisor and the Director of the Environmental Law Center before the project may be commenced. Students engaged in a joint project will be graded on their individual contribution to the project and on their teamwork skills.

A student will have two terms to complete the research project. A student will register in the term in which the project is begun. The grade will be entered on the transcript in the semester the project is completed. If a student extends the research project beyond two terms, regulation X.C.2 (below) “Temporarily excused from completion of a requirement” applies.

b. Credits

(1) Credit Requirements and Course Load

(a) A minimum of 30 credits is required for the LLM degree. An LLM candidate may take a maximum of 36 credits from courses approved for the LLM degree; however, if a student has reached 30 credits and satisfied all degree requirements at the end of any semester, the degree must be awarded.
(b) The minimum course load for full-time LLM students is 6 credits per semester. The maximum course load in the fall or spring semester is 14 credits per semester. The maximum course load in the summer program is 11 credits. No exceptions are allowed other than with the prior approval of the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee.

(2) Transfer of Credits - Non-Vermont Law School JD Graduates

A student enrolled in the LLM program may be granted credit for courses satisfactorily completed in an LLM program at an ABA-approved law school or at the graduate level of a comparable international academic institution. A student may transfer a maximum of 6 such credits to the LLM program with the approval of the Director or the Director’s designee. Before granting such approval, the Director of the Environmental Law Center or his or her designee must determine that the course is relevant and important to the student’s overall program of study. Only courses with environmental content are eligible for transfer credit. The Registrar must receive an official transcript showing that the course has been completed and that a grade of B minus or better (as defined in regulation VIII.C.1.) has been awarded. Transcripts from a foreign institution must be accompanied by a WES or AACRAO evaluation. Grades from transferred courses will be noted on the student’s transcript but will not be used in computing the student’s grade average. Once a student has enrolled as an LLM candidate, prior approval must be obtained from the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee to obtain credit for courses taken at another institution. No transfer credit will be given for a course completed more than 5 years prior to matriculation into the LLM program.

(3) Transfer of Credits - Vermont Law School MELP Graduates

An LLM candidate who received the Master of Environmental Law and Policy (MELP) degree from Vermont Law School may transfer a maximum of 6 credits of Vermont Law School environmental course work to the LLM degree with the approval of the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee. Before granting approval, the Director or his or her designee must determine that the course is relevant and important to the student’s overall program of study. Only courses with environmental content are eligible for transfer of credit. The student must have achieved a grade of B minus or better (as defined in regulation X.C.1. below) for the course. Grades from transferred courses will be noted on the student’s transcript but will not be used in computing the student’s grade average. Once a student has enrolled as an LLM candidate, prior approval must be obtained from the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee to obtain credit for courses taken at another institution. No transfer credit will be given for a course completed more than 5 years prior to matriculation into the LLM program.

c. Duration of Program

(1) To obtain the LLM degree, a student must complete the degree requirements within a period of 5 years from matriculation.

(2) Students may enter the LLM program in either summer or fall semester.

2. EXTERNSHIPS

The LLM in Environmental Law Externship Program provides students with a field experience to test and develop their environmental law, policy, management, and/or science knowledge and skills.

a. Threshold Requirements for an LLM Externship
The LLM Externship Program provides students with a field experience to test and develop their environmental law, policy, management, and/or science knowledge and skills, and as such, the following requirements must be met:

1. Students must work primarily on site at the LLM externship. Students may not receive LLM externship credit if their work is done by telecommuting.

2. LLM externships are by definition environmental in their subject focus, so students must assure that their work on site relates to environmental issues.

3. Externships cannot be substituted for distributional requirements or required courses. No exceptions are allowed other than with prior written approval of the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee.

4. LLM externships must be supervised by an attorney.

5. The maximum number of credits a student may earn in one or more LLM externships is ten credits.

6. The minimum number of credits a student may earn in an LLM externship is four credits.

b. Eligibility Requirements

1. Students in good academic standing may elect to enroll in an LLM externship.

2. Students will not be allowed to enroll in an externship where they have previously worked as a volunteer or an employee unless the externship will provide a qualitatively different or more in depth learning experience.

3. Without prior approval from the Director of the Masters Externship Program, students enrolled for six or more credits in an LLM or JD externship during a given semester may not subsequently continue in that placement and receive credit toward an LLM externship as a consequence of that extended placement. Students seeking to extend such long-term experiences shall petition the Director of the Masters Externship Program in writing with supporting materials that demonstrate the following:

   The student’s experience during the subsequent LLM externship will be substantially different from the experience as a consequence of additional (and more difficult) responsibilities, new subject areas, new skills to be developed, or other evidence that the additional credit hours will be equivalent to taking an “advanced course” after taking an introductory course.

c. Procedures for Enrolling in an LLM Externship

1. Fill out in its entirety, including all signatures, the contract form available at www.vermontlaw.edu/MastersExternships.

2. Submit the fully executed contract to the Director of the Masters Externship Program for approval of the externship opportunity.

25 Students who matriculated into the LLM program prior to May 2012 may earn a minimum of two and a maximum of nine LLM externship credits.
(3) All fully executed contracts must be submitted to the Director of the Masters Externship Program by the first day of classes of the semester in which the student will be doing her or his externship.

(a) The contract, once submitted to the Director of the Masters Externship Program, will be copied and distributed to the Mentor and the Faculty Supervisor.
(b) Students who do not submit final, signed contract by this deadline will not be enrolled in the LLM externship and will not receive credit for their work. Students must petition the Committee on Standards for an exception to this rule.

(4) The Director of the Masters Externship Program may decline any LLM externship contract or opportunity described therein that does not conform to these regulations.

d. Grades

(1) All LLM externships are pass/fail.

(2) Faculty Supervisors assign the grade based on the student’s journals, the Mentor’s letter of evaluation and other information such as work product, emails, telephone conversations and/or meetings and site visits with the student and Mentor.

3. GRADES AND ACADEMIC STANDARDS

a. Grading System

Each student’s cumulative grade-point average is initially determined after completion of the first semester of course work, in accordance with the following grading system:

d. Probation and Dismissal

   (1) Good standing: To be in good academic standing, an LLM candidate must maintain an overall average of at least 2.20.

   (2) Probation: an LLM candidate will be placed on academic probation if, at any time after the completion of 6 credits of coursework, the student’s cumulative average is between 1.90 and 2.20.

   (3) Academic dismissal: An LLM candidate will be dismissed if:

      (a) the student has failed 6 credit hours of coursework; or

      (b) the student’s cumulative average is below 1.90 at any time after the completion of 6 hours of coursework;

      (c) the student’s cumulative average is below 2.20 at the end of any semester and if, at the end of any previous semester, the student was placed on academic probation; or

      (d) the student’s cumulative average is below 2.20 at the completion of the LLM program.

   (4) A student who would otherwise be dismissed under subparagraph 5.e.(3). will be allowed to continue for a second semester on academic probation if the student’s grade point average for the first semester on academic probation, if repeated for the second semester on academic probation with a credit load of 12 credits, is sufficient to achieve the required cumulative average of 2.20 at the end of the second semester on academic probation.

   (5) A student who is academically dismissed may not petition the Committee on Standards for readmission earlier than one year after the date of academic dismissal. The Committee will grant readmission only if it finds that the student has addressed the factors that contributed to the academic dismissal. If the Committee grants a petition for readmission, it may impose any conditions it deems appropriate.

27 If the faculty member submits the grade within this time period, the I designation will be removed from the transcript and the grade entered for the semester in which the student was originally registered for the course. Class rank, Dean’s List, and other honors will not be changed for that semester.

If the student receives an extension or the faculty member does not submit the grade within this time period, the I designation will remain on the transcript and the grade will be entered for the semester in which the work was actually completed.

28 For purposes of this regulation, the summer session shall be considered as a “semester.”
e. Degrees and Honors

(1) Degrees are awarded at the meetings of the Board of Trustees in the fall and spring and at the commencement held annually at the end of the spring semester.

(2) Vermont Law School grants degrees cum laude, magna cum laude, and summa cum laude. These degrees are awarded as follows:

- cum laude .................. 3.25
- magna cum laude ...... 3.50
- summa cum laude ..... 3.75

B. MASTER OF LAWS IN AMERICAN LEGAL STUDIES (LLM)

1. ELIGIBILITY

The Master of Laws in American Legal Studies is specifically designed for students who hold a law degree from an institution outside of the United States.

2. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

a. A minimum of 29 credits is required for the LLM degree. An LLM candidate may take a maximum of 33 credits.

b. Course load: The minimum course load for full-time LLM students is 10 credits. The maximum course load is 16 credits in the fall and 17 credits in the spring semester.

c. Each LLM candidate must satisfactorily complete the following courses: Constitutional Law, Civil Procedure I and II, Contracts, Torts, Criminal Law, Property, Legal Analysis and Writing I, and Legal Research. With the approval of the Director of International and Comparative Law Programs or the Director’s designee, an LLM candidate may substitute a different course for Contracts, Torts, Criminal Law, or Property if the candidate has successfully completed a comparable course at another law school. Although course requirements may be waived, the total number of credits required for degree completion remains unchanged.

d. LLM candidates have the option of enrolling in additional courses during their second semester, with prior approval of the Director of International Programs.

e. A cumulative average of 2.20 is required for successful completion of the LLM degree.

f. Residence requirement: To obtain this degree, students must be in residence at Vermont Law School for two semesters.

3. GRADES AND ACADEMIC STANDARDS

C. MASTER OF LAWS IN ENERGY LAW DEGREE (LLM)

1. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE DEGREE

a. General

(1) The degree of Master of Laws in Energy Law (LLM) is granted for regular attendance and satisfactory completion of the prescribed course of study. A minimum of 30 credits is required for the LLM degree. These credits must be selected from courses approved for the LLM program. A cumulative grade point average of 2.20 is required for successful completion of the LLM degree.

(3) Any remaining electives may be chosen from the courses and experiential options listed above and from the list of approved courses in section III.A.1.a. (4).
With the approval of the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee, an LLM candidate may waive any of the required courses if the candidate has successfully completed equivalent course work in a JD program at an ABA accredited law school or comparable international academic institution. Although requirements may be waived, the total number of credits required for degree completion remains unchanged.

The Energy Electives and General Electives requirements shall not be waived for courses completed prior to matriculation in the LLM program. All LLM candidates must take four credits of Energy Electives and nine credits of General Electives from the above list provided they do not duplicate prior course work. If an LLM candidate is unable to fulfill this requirement without duplicating prior coursework, the candidate must submit an alternative coursework plan to be approved by the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee.

The Project requirement shall not be waived because of prior completion of one of the listed options. LLM candidates who have completed one of the listed projects as part of a prior program must choose a different project to meet the LLM requirement.

LLM Thesis or Project

(a) Thesis

An LLM candidate may choose to write a thesis. Six credits will be given for the satisfactory completion of an LLM thesis. The thesis must be a substantial piece of written work of publishable quality. A 10-15 page thesis proposal must be approved by the LLM candidate’s faculty supervisor and the Director of the Environmental Law Center before the thesis is begun.

A student will have three terms to complete the thesis. A student will register in the term in which the thesis project is begun. The grade will be entered on the transcript in the semester the thesis is completed. Ordinarily, an LLM student will begin the thesis in the spring semester. If a student extends the thesis project beyond three terms, regulation X.C.2 (below) “temporarily excused from completion of a requirement” applies.

(b) Research Project

An LLM candidate may choose to undertake a research project, either alone or as part of a joint effort with other LLM candidates. A minimum of 2 and a maximum of 6 credits will be given for a research project. An LLM project must be a substantial undertaking, involving significant legal and policy research. A five-page research project proposal must be approved by the LLM candidate’s faculty supervisor and the Director of the Environmental Law Center before the project may be commenced. Students engaged in a joint project will be graded on their individual contribution to the project and on their teamwork skills.

A student will have two terms to complete the research project. A student will register in the term in which the project is begun. The grade will be entered on the transcript in the semester the project is completed. If a student extends the research project beyond two terms, regulation X.C.2 (below) “temporarily excused from completion of a requirement” applies.

Credits

(a) Credit Requirements and Course Load
(i) A minimum of 30 credits is required for the LLM degree. An LLM candidate may take a maximum of 36 credits from courses approved for the LLM degree; however, if a student has reached 30 credits and satisfied all degree requirements at the end of any semester, the degree must be awarded.

(ii) The minimum course load for full-time LLM students is 6 credits per semester. The maximum course load in the fall or winter semester is 14 credits per semester. The maximum course load in the summer program is 11 credits. No exceptions are allowed other than with the prior approval of the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee.

(b) Transfer of Credits Non-Vermont Law School JD Graduates

A student enrolled in the LLM program may be granted credit for courses satisfactorily completed in an LLM program at an ABA-approved law school or at the graduate level of a comparable international academic institution. A student may transfer a maximum of 6 such credits to the LLM program with the approval of the Director or the Director’s designee. Before granting such approval, the Director of the Environmental Law Center or his or her designee must determine that the course is relevant and important to the student’s overall program of study. Only courses with environmental or energy content are eligible for transfer credit. The Registrar must receive an official transcript showing that the course has been completed and that a grade of B minus or better (as defined in regulation VIII.C.1.) has been awarded. Transcripts from a foreign institution must be accompanied by a WES or AACRAO evaluation. Grades from transferred courses will be noted on the student’s transcript but will not be used in computing the student’s grade average. Once a student has enrolled as an LLM candidate, prior approval must be obtained from the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee to obtain credit for courses taken at another institution. No transfer credit will be given for a course completed more than 5 years prior to matriculation into the LLM program.

(7) Duration of Program

(a) To obtain the LLM degree, a student must complete the degree requirements within a period of 5 years from matriculation.

(b) Students may enter the LLM program in either summer or fall semester.

2. EXTERNSHIPS

The LLM Externship Program provides students with a field experience to test and develop their energy law and policy knowledge and skills.

a. Threshold Requirements for an LLM Externship

The LLM Externship Program provides students with a field experience to test and develop their energy law and policy knowledge and skills, and as such, the following requirements must be met:

(1) Fill out in its entirety, including all signatures, the contract form available at www.vermontlaw.edu/MastersExternships.

(2) Submit the fully executed contract to the Director of the Masters Externship Program for approval of the externship opportunity.

(3) All fully executed contracts must be submitted to the Director of the Masters Externship Program by the first day of classes of the semester in which the student will be doing her or his externship.

(a) The contract, once submitted to the Director of the Masters Externship Program, will be copied and distributed to the Mentor and the Faculty Supervisor.

(b) Students who do not submit final, signed contracts by this deadline will not be enrolled in the LLM externship and will not receive credit for their work.

(4) The Director of the Masters Externship Program may decline any LLM externship contract or opportunity described therein that does not conform to these regulations.
(5) For LLM students who anticipate practicing law in Vermont: If a student anticipates practicing law in Vermont, he or she may want to use the LLM externship to complete the clerkship requirement for admission to the Vermont Bar.

(a) If the externship is under the supervision of a Vermont attorney, students may be able to count the time toward the Vermont clerkship requirement. In entering into a Vermont legal internship the student should consult with the attorney/Mentor to determine whether he or she is willing to supervise the work in a manner that meets the Vermont Bar requirement.

(b) In order to meet this Vermont Bar requirement students must indicate their intention to the Vermont Board of Bar Examiners before engaging in the clerkship.

d. Grades.

(1) All LLM externships are pass/fail.

(2) Faculty Supervisors assign the grade based on the student’s journals, the Mentor’s letter of evaluation and other information such as work product, emails, telephone conversations and/or meetings and site visits with the student and Mentor.

(c. Probation and Dismissal)

(1) Good standing: To be in good academic standing, an LLM candidate must maintain an overall average of at least 2.20.

(2) Probation: an LLM candidate will be placed on academic probation if, at any time after the completion of 6 credits of coursework, the student’s cumulative average is between 1.90 and 2.20.

(3) Academic dismissal: An LLM candidate will be dismissed if:
   (a) the student has failed 6 credit hours of course work; or
   (b) the student’s cumulative average is below 1.90 at any time after the completion of 6 hours of course work;
   (c) the student’s cumulative average is below 2.20 at the end of any semester and if, at the end of any previous semester, the student was placed on academic probation; or
   (d) the student’s cumulative average is below 2.2 at the completion of the LLM program.

(4) A student who would otherwise be dismissed under subparagraph 5.c.(3), will be allowed to continue for a second semester on academic probation if the student’s grade point average for the first semester on academic probation, if repeated for the second semester on academic probation with a credit load of 12 credits, is sufficient to achieve the required cumulative average of 2.20 at the end of the second semester on academic probation.

(5) A student who is academically dismissed may not petition the Committee on Standards for readmission earlier than one year after the date of academic dismissal. The Committee will grant readmission only if it finds that the student has addressed the factors that contributed to the academic dismissal. If the Committee grants a petition for readmission, it may impose any conditions it deems appropriate.

d. Degrees and Honors

(1) Degrees are awarded at the meetings of the Board of Trustees in the fall and winter and at the commencement held annually at the end of the spring semester. Students successfully

30 If the faculty member submits the grade within this time period, the I designation will be removed from the transcript and the grade entered for the semester in which the student was originally registered for the course. Class rank, Dean’s List, and other honors will not be changed for that semester.

If the student receives an extension or the faculty member does not submit the grade within this time period, the I designation will remain on the transcript and the grade will be entered for the semester in which the work was actually completed.

31 For purposes of this regulation, the summer session shall be considered as a “semester.”
completing degree requirements at other times may request a certificate of completion prior to the receipt of a diploma.

(2) Vermont Law School grants degrees cum laude, magna cum laude, and summa cum laude. These degrees are awarded as follows:
- cum laude ................... 3.25
- magna cum laude .......... 3.50
- summa cum laude ......... 3.75

IX. CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS

A. CERTIFICATE IN DISPUTE RESOLUTION

1. General

The Certificate in Dispute Resolution seeks to provide students with the skills and substantive knowledge valuable to legal practice as well as a wide variety of problem-solving careers. The certificate requires coursework in arbitration, and mediation and/or negotiation, to build competency, writing skills, and practical experience.

2. Application Procedure

Students may declare in writing their intention to earn a Certificate in Dispute Resolution by signing a declaration form to be co-signed by the Director of the Dispute Resolution Program and the Registrar. Students may declare during any term. Completion of Certificate requirements will appear on the transcript.

3. Certificate Requirements

The Certificate in Dispute Resolution requires 15 credits with a grade of B or above in designated courses, listed below. For non-VLS students, four credits can come from non-VLS courses. Certificate courses may also be used to satisfy course requirements in the JD, MELP, and LLM degree programs.

B. GENERAL PRACTICE PROGRAM—CERTIFICATE REQUIREMENTS

Students who are accepted into the General Practice Program will be awarded a Certificate in General Practice upon completion of:

1. GPP 206

2. A minimum of 12 additional credits of General Practice Program (GPP) courses.

3. To complete the required 16 credits, students shall take 4 credits of courses approved for GPP credit during each semester of their participation in the program.

4. After completion GPP 206, and 4 additional credits of GPP courses, students may substitute a clinic or externship (of at least 4 credits) in lieu of enrollment in General Practice Program courses for one semester.

5. At the discretion of the Director, there may be additional non-curricular requirements that students must meet in order to receive the Certificate. These requirements may include but are not limited to attendance at professional and related events, and keeping of journals and other reflective work.

6. For good cause shown, the Director retains discretion to substitute equivalent course(s) or to alter the distribution, but not the number, of credits required for the Certificate.

C. INTERNATIONAL AND COMPARATIVE LAW CERTIFICATE
The International and Comparative Law (ICL) Certificate formally acknowledges a student’s academic concentration in international and comparative law.

1. Requirements

To earn the International and Comparative Law Certificate, each student must satisfactorily complete the following requirements:

a. Minimum of 18 credits in international, foreign and comparative law courses.

   In the minimum 18 credits of courses, the following courses are required:
   1. International Law;
      ii. a Comparative or Foreign Law course, from the list of approved courses designated in the registration materials as meeting this requirement; and
   iii. a Study Abroad course, from the list of courses designated in the registration materials as meeting this requirement.

   The remainder of the 18 credits may be taken from a list of international and comparative law courses approved for this purpose by Director of International and Comparative Law Programs; a list of courses that satisfy this requirement is published each year in the registration materials.

b. No more than 12 of the 18 required credits for this Certificate may be counted toward the 87 credits for the JD degree, so that a minimum of 93 credits is required to earn this Certificate with the JD degree.

c. Cumulative GPA of 3.00 or above.

d. Grade of B or above in both International Law and in the course that is used to meet the Comparative or Foreign Law course requirement of the certificate.

2. Pass/fail credits: No more than 10 credits taken on a pass/fail basis may be used to satisfy the Certificate’s credit requirement.

3. No more than 10 credits from a qualifying Semester-in-Practice may be used to satisfy the Certificate’s credit requirement.

4. Courses taken at an ABA-approved summer study-abroad program must have the prior approval of the Director of International Programs for the course to be used to satisfy the study-abroad requirement, and prior approval of the Registrar to determine that VLS will accept the credits.

5. Number of credits for courses taken at foreign institutions: Many foreign law schools determine the number of credits differently than U.S. law schools. The number of credits earned for courses taken at a foreign institution will be determined in accordance with the ABA regulation for determining course credits.

6. Declaration
Students wanting to earn the ICL Certificate must file an approved Declaration form with the Registrar as soon as possible but no later than the first day of classes of the Fall semester of their 3L JD year.
7. Checklist of courses meeting the certificate requirements.

D. CERTIFICATE IN CLIMATE LAW

1. General

The Certificate in Climate Law is a formal recognition that a student has pursued a concentrated course of study in the field of climate law.

2. Application Procedure

Students must declare in writing their intent to earn a Certificate in Climate Law by submitting a Declaration Form to the Registrar’s Office. Students must declare before the beginning of their final semester at VLS. Completion of certificate requirements will appear on the student’s transcript.

\(^{32}\) Credit maximum: A maximum of 10 credits from this course may be used to satisfy the course credit requirements for the Certificate in International and Comparative Law; however, all of the credits earned may apply to satisfy the J.D. requirements.

\(^{33}\) Number of credits for courses taken at foreign institutions: The number of credits earned for courses taken at a foreign institution will be determined in accordance with the ABA regulation for determining course credits.

\(^{34}\) Courses taken at an ABA-approved summer study-abroad program must have the prior approval of the Director of International Programs for the course to be used to satisfy the study-abroad requirement, and of the Registrar to determine that VLS will accept the credits.
3. Certificate Requirements

The Certificate in Climate Law requires 15 credits and a cumulative GPA of 3.00 in all courses that count toward the certificate. Certificate courses may also be used to satisfy course requirements in the JD, MELP, MERL, and LLM degree programs.

X. MISCELLANEOUS ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

The regulations in this section apply to all persons taking courses at, or through, Vermont Law School. They apply to students who are candidates for degrees, to students taking courses for credit, and to students auditing courses. The regulations in subsection A apply to all students at all times; the regulations in subsection B apply to all students taking courses in the fall and spring semesters; the regulations in subsection C apply to all students taking courses in the summer session. See regulation XII. for provisions of the Vermont Law School Honor Code.

A. GENERAL

1. Regular Attendance

Students are required to attend all classes except where religious observance, serious illness, personal emergency, or a reason that is adequate in the judgment of the professor prevents attendance.

a. If a student is absent from twenty (20%) percent of the regularly scheduled classes without adequate excuse, the student shall be automatically withdrawn from the course with a grade of F-Wd. Such withdrawal shall not be effective unless the student has been personally warned by the instructor. Personal notice shall include, but is not limited to, notice placed in the student’s Vermont Law School mailbox or notice sent to the student’s Vermont Law School e-mail address. In summer session, a student may not be absent for more than one class.

b. Individual faculty may adopt a more stringent attendance policy than specified in paragraph a, provided that students are given notice of that policy.

c. If a course instructor does not arrive within ten minutes of the scheduled beginning of class, and if no contrary notice has been given, students may disperse, and the class will not meet.

2. Leave of Absence

Requests for leaves of absence should be directed to the Registrar. Ordinarily, no leave will be granted before the completion of the first semester of the first year; leaves may be granted for up to one year. Requests for medical leaves of absence must be directed to the Committee on Standards.

3. Examinations

a. Students should use examination identification numbers assigned by the Registrar rather than their names on all examination and course papers unless requested to do otherwise.

b. Students are required to take a regularly scheduled examination in each course; in some courses, seminars, clinical programs, and the like, papers and other assigned work may be substituted.

c. Students are permitted to have in their possession in the examination room only material authorized by the instructor. Possession of any other materials is grounds for a grade of F and for action under the Vermont Law School Honor Code.

d. After an examination has been turned in, a faculty member may require of any student whose paper is found to be illegible that a typed copy of the examination be substituted for grading purposes. At the student’s expense the student will be provided by the Registrar with a photocopy of the student’s examination paper. The substitute copy of the examination, along with the typed...
copy, must be returned within ten days, or such shorter period designated by the faculty member. The typed copy must bear the signed certification of the student and typist that it is “an exact, true, and unedited copy of the original.”

e. Take-home examinations may be given at the discretion of the instructor. Any examination extending beyond a full day (9 a.m. to 5 p.m.) is considered a take-home examination. The time for a take-home examination in a first-year course is determined by the instructor and the Registrar. Take-home examinations in other courses will be scheduled for the entire examination period. Take-home examinations in summer school extend for the period designated by the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee.

f. An unexcused failure to take such an examination will result in an automatic F-Abs grade for the course. If a satisfactory explanation for the absence is approve by the Committee on Standards, an I (incomplete) is recorded; the regular course grade earned in a subsequent examination will be added to the permanent record when it becomes available.

g. Except as provided below, students are required to take final examinations at the regularly scheduled examination time unless extraordinary circumstances exist to justify departure from this policy. Extraordinary circumstances are defined as serious personal illness or other personal emergency which will prevent the student from taking the examination at its regularly scheduled time. Personal travel plans outside of an emergency situation will not constitute extraordinary circumstances.

Requests for permission to take a make-up examination must be made to the Assistant Dean of Academic Affairs in advance of the regular examination. If a student is prevented by sudden illness or other cause from submitting a written request, an oral request before the examination should be made to the Assistant Dean for Academic Affairs or the Registrar. Requests alleging illness or other medical problems must include a physician’s statement concerning the medical condition.

A request made after the regularly scheduled examination will generally not be granted, unless unforeseeable emergency circumstances prevented the student from making a pre-examination request.

h. When the Assistant Dean or the Committee on Standards has excused an absence from an examination, a make-up examination shall be arranged by the Registrar and the instructor. Make-up examinations will be given no later than two weeks following the regular examination period unless Assistant Dean or the Committee on Standards determines that the circumstances justifying the excused absence will continue to prevent the student from taking the examination during that time period.

i. A student seeking accommodation for disability must contact the Assistant Dean for Academic Affairs and follow the procedures outlined in the Vermont Law School Policy and Procedures for the Provision of Services to Students with Disabilities. The Assistant Dean for Academic Affairs will notify the Registrar of the appropriate accommodations to be provided a student. The Registrar will notify the student of the time and place for each examination.

j. A student seeking accommodation for a temporary disability must contact the Assistant Dean for Academic Affairs prior to the beginning of the examination period. (If the condition arises during the examination period, the student must contact the Assistant Dean or the Registrar as soon as possible within the examination period.) The Assistant Dean or the Registrar may require medical documentation of the temporary disability. The Registrar, in consultation with the Assistant Dean for Academic Affairs, will provide appropriate accommodation and notify the student of the time and place for each examination as well as the nature of the accommodation provided. Accommodation for a temporary disability will be provided only for examinations during one semester (or one summer session). A student seeking accommodation beyond one term should contact the Assistant Dean for Academic Affairs.

k. A student who is unable to take a regularly scheduled examination for religious reasons should contact the Registrar. The Registrar will move the examination to the first day, following the scheduled day, when that student is not taking another examination.

l. A student seeking additional time on examinations or other accommodation because English is not the student’s native language must contact the Assistant Dean for Academic Affairs. The student must provide the Assistant Dean with appropriate documentation supporting his or her request. The Assistant Dean will notify the Registrar of the appropriate accommodations to be provided a student. The Registrar will notify the student of the time and place for each examination.

m. A student should not be required to take more than one examination per day or three examinations on consecutive days.

1. Two Examinations on the Same Day: A student with two examinations scheduled on the same day may request a rescheduling of the examination for the course with the lower enrollment to the first day, following the scheduled day, when that student is not taking another examination.

2. Three Examinations on Consecutive Days: A student scheduled to take three examinations on consecutive days may request that one examination (usually in the course with the lowest enrollment) be rescheduled to the next available examination date. The next available examination date may be a Saturday.

n. Other Rescheduling Requests: Any request to take an examination early, or to reschedule an examination for any reason other than described in m.(1) and (2), above, must be submitted to the Committee on Standards for approval.

o. Requests made to reschedule examinations under m.(1) and (2) must be presented in writing to the Registrar’s Office, on the form available in the Registrar’s Office.

All other rescheduling requests, including all requests to reschedule an examination on a day earlier than the regularly scheduled examination, must be made by submitting a written petition to the Committee on Standards.

p. Upon approval of a request by the Registrar or the Committee on Standards, the student will be notified of the rescheduled day and time, and of the procedure for picking up and turning in the examination. A rescheduled examination may not be given on a day earlier than the regularly scheduled examination without the express consent of the faculty member. (Examinations with extended time may begin at a time earlier than the regularly scheduled examination if the examination is given on the same day as the regularly scheduled examination.)

q. The Registrar will maintain a list of rescheduled examinations showing the students and courses for which examinations have been rescheduled. The Registrar will note on the list the date each examination is administered and the date the completed examination is given to the professor.

r. A student taking a rescheduled examination must certify in writing, at the time she/he receives the examination, that he/she has not looked at the examination or discussed it with anyone.

s. PASS/FAIL OPTION
A student who experiences the death of a spouse, life partner, child, parent, brother, or sister any time after the beginning of the semester may elect to complete any or all of the particular semester’s course requirements on a pass/fail basis. The student must provide the Registrar’s Office with written notice prior to the administration of each examination or the due date of other required work for which this option is selected.

4. Grading Procedure

a. The recommended average grade for all first-year courses, other than Legal Writing II and Legal Methods, and for all other courses with an enrollment of 40 or greater is a B. For purposes of this regulation a B is equivalent to a numerical score of 2.84 to 3.17.

b. Once grades have been turned in to the Registrar, no grade change may be made without the approval of the Committee on Standards and ordinarily only if the instructor certifies that the change is necessary because of mathematical error.

c. The Committee on Standards may also undertake to review the substance of the work product of a course, or cause other members of the faculty or outside experts to undertake a review of the work product of a course, if, but only if, a student who complains about a grade:

1. Receives a grade below a C for the course; and

2. Alleges that the grade was based in whole or in part on factors other than the merits of the student’s performance in the course; and

3. Produces clear and convincing evidence extrinsic to the work product that the grade was based in whole or in part on factors other than the merits of the student’s performance in the course.

4. “Work product” includes, but is not limited to, an examination, take-home examination, research paper, empirical study, brief, memorandum of law, or oral exercise which has been electronically recorded.

5. “Factors other than the merits of the student’s performance in the course” are limited to prejudice against the student based upon the student’s race, color, religious belief, national origin, political belief, sex or sexual orientation, or personal animosity toward the student, or upon the personal, political, religious, moral, or ethical views of the faculty member.

6. If, and only if, the student satisfies the requirements of (1), (2), and (3) of this section, the Committee shall review, or cause the review of, the work product on its merits and make a determination as to whether the grade for the work product was justified. The standard shall be whether any reasonable faculty member teaching in the subject area would have given the grade complained of. If the Committee finds that a reasonable faculty member could have given the grade, the grade shall stand; if the Committee finds that no reasonable faculty member could have given the grade, the grade shall be removed from the student’s transcript and shall be replaced by a grade of pass.

d. It is explicitly recognized that, subject to the limitations described in this section, members of the faculty have very broad discretion to set academic standards and award grades and nothing herein shall be construed to otherwise limit that discretion.

5. Use of Name of Vermont Law School in a Representative Sense

Students in Vermont Law School shall not, without the consent of the President and Dean, either individually or collectively, use the name of Vermont Law School in a representative sense in any activity of any kind outside the regular work of the school. Violations of this rule are regarded as sufficient cause for dismissal.

6. Repetition of Failed Courses

Where a student has failed a required course, the Registrar will add the course to the student’s registration for the next available time that it is offered. Where a student has failed an elective course, the student may not re-register for the course except with the permission of the instructor teaching the course. Where the course is permitted to be repeated, both grades are shown on the student’s permanent record and are included in the cumulative average.

7. Tutoring in Basic English

Any student who has significant difficulty with basic English may be required to work in a tutorial program at the student’s expense.

B. FALL AND SPRING SEMESTERS

1. Changes and Withdrawals

a. Courses may not be added after the sixth class day of the semester without the written permission of the professor.

b. A student may drop an elective course no later than the end of the sixth day of classes.

c. A student who is added to a class from the waitlist on the sixth day of classes shall be permitted to drop any other course until the end of the seventh day of classes.

d. A student may not withdraw from a required course, an internship, clinical offerings, or General Practice Program courses. A student may withdraw from a limited enrollment course or seminar only with the written permission of the professor no later than the last day of classes for the semester. A student may withdraw from other elective courses no later than the last day of classes for the semester. A student may not withdraw from any course or seminar after the instructor has submitted a grade, including a grade of F-Wd, to the Registrar. If a student withdraws after the time limitations in subsections b. and c. (above) the course will appear on the student’s transcript with the notation “Wd.” A student who has received a “Wd” for a particular course may not take that course for credit without first obtaining the written permission of the instructor giving the course for credit.

e. No student may drop or add the South Royalton Legal Clinic or the Environmental and Natural Resources Law Clinic after the first day of classes. However, if the program is determined by the Director of the South Royalton Legal Clinic or the Environmental and Natural Resources Law Clinic to be under enrolled, a student may add the course, with the Director’s permission, within the first calendar week of classes.

f. No student may drop or add the Legislative Clinic after the last day of classes of the fall semester.

g. No student may drop or add Mediation Field Work after the required training session.

h. For any addition, drop, or voluntary withdrawal to be effective, written notice must be received by the Registrar before the close of office hours on the day indicated above.

i. A student may not withdraw from any course, seminar, internship, or clinic in the student’s final semester.
j. A JD student may not voluntarily withdraw from a course if doing so reduces the student’s course load to less than 10 credit hours. A MELP or a LLM student may not voluntarily withdraw from a course if doing so reduces the student’s course load to less than the minimum required to remain in the program.

k. A student who has registered for a course and who has not withdrawn from the course under the above regulations is expected to complete all requirements of the course.

l. Preferences for assignments to oversubscribed, limited enrollment courses, and seminars are determined by the Registrar under rules promulgated by the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs.

2. Special Students

Vermont Law School permits enrollment by students who are not enrolled in a degree program at Vermont Law School or another law school, provided that such individuals have obtained a bachelor’s degree or completed substantially all of the work required for a bachelor’s degree. Permission to take a particular class as a non-degree student rests in the discretion of the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs and the Professor teaching the course. Non-degree students are required to fulfill the same course requirements as degree candidates. They will be graded and receive Vermont Law School credit upon completion of the course. Non-degree students are subject to the same rules and regulations as degree candidates, and they have access to the Vermont Law School library and other Vermont Law School facilities.

Courses taken as a non-degree student may not be transferred into the JD program for credit and do not satisfy the residence requirement of regulation II.A.4. Vermont Law School does not grant credit toward the JD degree for courses completed prior to the student’s matriculation as a candidate for the JD degree at an ABA-accredited law school. (See regulation II.A.5.d.) Courses taken as a non-degree student may be transferred into the MELP program at the discretion of the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee. See regulation III.A.2.d.

Non-degree students are required to pay tuition on a per credit basis.

3. Auditing

a. A regularly enrolled student may audit free of tuition a maximum of two courses each semester provided (1) the student has completed the first year and is in good academic standing; (2) the student is taking for credit the minimum load of 10 semester hours; (3) the instructor consents; and (4) there is a seat available according to the Registrar’s records. The fact that a student has audited a course will be noted on the student’s record. A student who has audited for more than three weeks shall not be permitted to take the course for credit without first obtaining the permission of the instructor giving the course for credit. A student may change his registration to “audit” no later than the last day of classes for the semester if the instructor consents. Should a student decide to discontinue an audited course or the instructor determines the student has not satisfied the requirements to maintain audit status, the course will be removed from the student’s registration.

36 Audited courses do not count toward this total.

37 For summer school courses see regulation XIC.2.

38 For summer school courses see regulation XIC.3.
b. Auditing by non-Vermont Law School students is allowed with the consent of the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs and the instructor, under terms prescribed by them and upon payment of the required fee. Any certification of auditing of this type shall state that Vermont Law School makes no representation as to the individual’s (1) qualifications, (2) attendance, or (3) comprehension of the materials.

C. SUMMER SESSION

1. Course Load, Changes and Withdrawals

The following restrictions apply to all students.

a. Course Load: The maximum course load in the summer program is eleven credits. No exceptions are allowed other than with prior written approval of (1) the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee for students pursuing an MELP or LLM in Environmental Law degree or (2) the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs or the Vice Dean’s designee for students pursuing a JD degree.

b. Changes and Withdrawals:

(1) Students are not permitted to add or drop a summer course after the start of the second class period.

(2) A student may not withdraw from a required course or an internship. A student may withdraw from a limited enrollment course or seminar only with the written permission of the instructor no later than the last day of class of that course or seminar. A student may withdraw from other elective courses no later than the last day of class of that course. A student may not withdraw from an elective course after the instructor has submitted a grade, including a grade of F-Wd, to the Registrar. If a student withdraws after the time limitation in subsection (1) (above), the course will appear on the student’s transcript with the notation “Wd.” A student who has received a “Wd” for a particular course may not take that course for credit without first obtaining the written permission of the instructor giving the course for credit. A student who withdraws from an elective course after the time limitations in subsection (1) (above), will receive a tuition credit only in the amount allowed by the tuition refund schedule for withdrawals. (A copy of this schedule is contained in the Tuition and Expense section of the Vermont Law School summer bulletin.)

(3) A student who has registered for a course and who has not dropped or withdrawn from the course under the above regulations is expected to complete all requirements of the course.

(4) For an addition, drop, or voluntary withdrawal to be effective, written notice must be received by the Registrar before the close of office hours on the day indicated above.

2. Special Students

The Environmental Law Center permits course enrollment during summer session by students enrolled in other colleges and universities who can thereby advance their learning in their major field of study provided they receive the permission of the Director of the Environmental Law Center or Director’s designee. Such students shall be non-degree candidates but shall be graded and receive Vermont Law School credits upon successful completion of such a course.

3. Auditing
a. A regularly enrolled student may audit free of tuition one course during the summer session provided (1) the instructor consents, and (2) there is a seat available according to the Registrar’s records. The fact that a student has audited a course will be noted on the student’s record. A student who has audited for more than two class periods shall not be permitted to take the course for credit without first obtaining the permission of the instructor giving the course for credit. A student may change his registration to “audit” no later than the last day of the course if the instructor consents. Should a student decide to discontinue an audited course or the instructor determines the student has not satisfied the requirements to maintain audit status, the course will be removed from the student’s registration.

b. Auditing of summer session courses by students not enrolled in a Vermont Law School degree program is allowed with the consent of the Director of the Environmental Law Center or the Director’s designee and the instructor under terms prescribed by them and upon payment of the required fee.

XI. VERMONT LAW SCHOOL HONOR CODE

ARTICLE I. AN HONOR CODE FOR ACADEMIC INTEGRITY & HONESTY

A. Statement of principles

Vermont Law School is a community of adults and professionals committed to the principles of academic integrity and honesty which are the underpinnings for the responsible exercise of academic freedom. As an expression of this commitment, Vermont law School has developed this Honor Code with attendant procedures to deal with instances of academic dishonesty and misconduct which may occur in connection with any aspect of a student’s work and performance in curricular (e.g. courses, experiential programs) or co-curricular (e.g. law review, moot court) endeavors. It is the duty and responsibility of all members of the Vermont law School community to report any known or suspected violations of this Honor Code. The Honor Code seeks to preclude the following forms of academic dishonesty and misconduct:

1. Any conduct pertaining to academic matters that evidences fraud, deceit, dishonesty, or an intent to obtain unfair advantage over other students, and

2. Any conduct that violates Vermont Law School academic regulations or written policies not inconsistent with this Honor Code, and

3. Any other conduct pertaining to academic matters that raises serious doubts about the accused student's honesty, integrity, or fitness to practice law.

B. Prohibited Conduct

This Honor Code recognizes two classes of violations which may attract the sanctions described in Article V below. To assist students in understanding their responsibilities under the Honor Code, the following is a list of conduct pertaining to academic matters which violates this Honor Code.

CLASS ONE VIOLATIONS:
The following offenses shall qualify as Class One Violations under Article V:

1. A student shall not plagiarize. Plagiarism is knowingly appropriating another’s words or ideas and representing them in writing as one’s own. Whenever a student submits written work, including an examination, as his or her own, the student shall not use the words of another without acknowledging the source. If the words of another are paraphrased or the ideas of another are used, there must be a clear attribution of the source.

39 Non-academic matters are governed by a separate Code of Non-Academic Conduct.
2. A student shall not invade the security maintained for the preparation and storage of examinations.

4. While taking an examination, a student shall neither possess nor refer to any material not authorized by the instructor for use during the examination.

8. In connection with an examination or an academic assignment, a student shall neither give, receive, nor obtain information or help in any form not authorized by the instructor or the person administering the examination or assignment.

9. A student who is taking or has taken an examination shall not discuss any part of that examination with another student who is taking the examination or will be taking a deferred examination when such a discussion is likely to endanger the security of the examination questions.

10. A student shall not submit any written work, or part thereof, prepared, submitted or used by him or her for any other purpose (such as work prepared for or submitted in another course, work prepared for a law journal, clinic, law firm, government agency, or other organization), or prepared by another, except upon specific disclosure of the facts and receipt of permission from the instructor to whom the work is submitted.

11. A student shall not take or copy materials of an academic nature belonging to another student without the express consent of the latter.

CLASS TWO VIOLATIONS:
The following offenses will qualify as Class Two Violations under Article V:

1. A student shall not make a false statement regarding an academic matter to a law school faculty member, administrator or to the Honor Committee.

2. With respect to the Law School Library, a student shall not knowingly (a) mark, mutilate or destroy library material; (b) hide, misshelve, or misfile library material; or (c) remove library material from the library without authorization.

3. A student shall not obstruct the Honor Code process.

4. A student shall not engage in any other conduct which in determination of the Vice Dean and the Honor Committee evidences dishonesty or a manifest lack of fitness to practice law.

C. Standard of Proof

Before a student may be found to have violated this Honor Code, there must be clear and convincing evidence that the accused committed the acts constituting the violation. This burden of proof shall apply in both the informal and the formal processes.

Unless otherwise specified in the examples above, a student is guilty of a violation of the Honor Code if she or he acted purposely, knowingly or recklessly. A student acts purposely if it is the student’s conscious object to engage in prohibited conduct or to cause a prohibited result. A student acts knowingly when that student knows that such conduct is prohibited or knows that his or her conduct will cause a prohibited result. A student acts recklessly when that student consciously disregards a substantial and unjustifiable risk that his or her conduct will fall within prohibited conduct or cause a harmful result.

It is not a defense to charges of violating this Honor Code for a student to claim he or she has not received, read or understood this Honor Code, or is otherwise ignorant of its provisions. A student is held to have notice of this Honor Code by enrolling in a Vermont law school class.
ARTICLE II. ADMINISTERING THE HONOR CODE

A. Principal responsibility for administering the policies and procedures of this Honor Code shall lie with the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs and/or an Honor Committee duly constituted as described below.

B. The Honor Committee consists of six members who shall represent the student body, the faculty and the Administration and which shall act according to procedures as set forth below in Article IV.

C. The makeup of the Honor Committee shall be as follows: (a) the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs as Ex Officio member; (b) Four students, one elected from each of the JD classes and one from the MELP and LLM classes combined; (c) Two faculty members appointed by the President and Dean of the Law School.

ARTICLE III. TERM OF OFFICE

A. All student members shall be elected to serve one year terms with no bar to reelection for a subsequent term. If for any reason a student member is unable to complete his or her term or to participate in the resolution of a particular matter (See, Article III, Paragraph 3) an alternate student member shall complete the term or participate as necessary. The alternate student member shall be appointed by the President of the Student Bar Association (SBA), or by the Vice-President of the SBA, or by the Treasurer of the SBA, or by the Secretary of the SBA, if the President already serves on the Honor Committee.

B. All faculty members shall be appointed for one year terms. If for any reason a faculty member is unable to complete his or her term or to participate in the resolution of a particular matter (See, Article III, Paragraph 3), an alternate faculty member, appointed by the President and Dean of the Law School, shall complete the term or participate as necessary.

C. Any member of the Honor Committee (including the chair) who believes that he or she may be unable to render an impartial decision in any case shall excuse himself/herself from such case; alternatively, the Honor Committee may remove any Honor Committee member from a case if a majority of the remaining Honor Committee members believes that member may be unable to render an impartial decision in the case. Because Vermont Law School is a small community, knowledge of or acquaintance with the accused student and/or witnesses in a hearing, awareness of a case, participation in campus issues related to the subject matter of a case, or participation in the disciplinary process prior to the hearing of the case shall not automatically be grounds for disqualification. Any concern an accused student may have about the ability of any Honor Committee member or alternate to render an impartial decision in his or her case must be submitted in writing to the chair. This submission must include any supporting materials and must be submitted at least 72 hours in advance of the formal hearing.

ARTICLE IV. PROCEDURES

D. Initial Charge

1. A person who wishes to make a charge of a violation of the Honor Code against a student must report the violation to the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs. Such a report must be made in writing. An anonymous report of a violation will not be sufficient to initiate an investigation or hearing under this Honor Code.

2. As soon as practicable, but no later than fifteen working days (defined as periods during which all administrative offices of the Vermont Law School are open and operating under regular business hours) after receiving the written report of the violation, the Vice Dean shall notify the accused student in writing that a complaint has been filed. In addition, the Vice Dean will inform the accused student of his/her rights under the Honor Code, including the appointment of an advocate for the accused student. The Vice Dean

40 Ex Officio in this context means the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs participates, but does not vote, on matters before the Honor Committee. The Vice Dean participates in hearings before the Honor Committee under the Formal Process as described in IV (C).
will also inform the student that a preliminary investigation into the matter will be conducted by a named investigator whose report will be submitted to the Vice Dean.

3. At the same time as the Vice Dean notifies the accused student of the complaint, the Vice Dean shall notify the remaining Honor Committee members of the alleged violation and shall provide the Honor Committee with a preliminary timetable whether the matter proceeds under the formal or informal process.

4. The Investigator

The Vice Dean for Academic Affairs shall appoint an investigator from among the faculty, staff administration, or students. When the investigator appointee may be a student, this appointment shall be made in consultation with the President of the SBA (unless s/he is serving on the Honor Committee, in which case the consultation may be with the Vice-President of the SBA, or the Treasurer of the SBA, or the Secretary of the SBA). The investigator may speak with the accused student, and other witnesses, and may obtain statements and any evidence or facts necessary to report to the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs. The investigator shall submit a report about the matter to the Vice Dean within twenty-one (21) calendar days following his/her appointment as investigator unless good cause exists to warrant a reasonable extension of time.

5. Advocate for the Accused Student

The Vice Dean for Academic Affairs shall appoint an advocate for the accused student from among the faculty, staff, administration, or student body. When the advocate appointee may be a student, this appointment shall be made in consultation with the President of the SBA (unless s/he is serving on the Honor Committee, in which case the consultation may be with the Vice-President of the SBA, or the Treasurer of the SBA, or the Secretary of the SBA). The Advocate will serve as advisor to the accused. The advocate may also speak for the accused to the Honor Committee and act on the accused's behalf at the formal hearing. The accused student may prefer to have an advocate other than the appointed person in which event, the appointed advocate shall serve as an advisor on Honor Code procedure to the advocate of choice.

B. Informal Process

1. After receiving the investigator’s report, the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs may: (a) determine that even if the facts alleged are true, no violation of the Honor Code has taken place; or (b) determine that it is more probable than not that a violation has taken place and may proceed to take action as outlined in paragraph 2 below. Either determination shall be communicated to the accused student in writing within a reasonable time following the Vice Dean’s receipt of the investigator’s report.

2. If the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs determines that it is more probable than not that a violation of the Honor Code has occurred, the Vice Dean may proceed as follows. A discussion of the charges and the formal process as outlined below in Section C shall be held with the accused student. The student will be given the option of going forward with the formal process or agreeing in writing to abide by both the decision of the Vice Dean as to whether a violation of the Honor Code occurred and the penalty assessed by the President and Dean of the Law School upon recommendation of the Vice Dean. Such an agreement by the student will constitute a waiver of any right to the formal process including the right to appeal. The accused student does not waive the right to make public the outcome of the informal process. In this informal process, the President and Dean of the Law School retains the right to accept, reject or modify any recommendation which may be made by the Vice Dean. The decision of the President and Dean of the Law School is final.

C. Formal Process

1. If the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs concludes that the facts warrant a finding that it is more probable than not that a violation of the Honor Code has taken place and that the case is not one which will be dealt with informally above, the Vice Dean will notify the Honor Committee in writing of the nature of the complaint and of her or his conclusions. The Vice Dean will also notify the student accused in writing that the case is being referred to the Honor Committee for further proceedings. This notice shall include the names of all members of the Honor Committee.

2. The Vice Dean may request that the investigator conduct further investigation in preparation for the formal hearing.

3. The Honor Committee as described in Article II (3) shall conduct a formal hearing of this matter at a meeting scheduled not more than thirty (30) calendar days after the Vice Dean has reported a probable violation of the Honor Code to the Honor Committee. The Honor Committee shall meet to elect a chair for the hearing. It shall be the chair’s responsibility, prior to the formal hearing, to (1) distribute a copy of the investigator’s report to each member of the Honor Committee; and (2) to ensure that each member of the Honor Committee has received from the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs the written notice of the nature of the complaint and the Vice Dean’s conclusions. The Vice Dean for Academic Affairs is not a member of the Honor Committee when it sits in formal hearing.

4. Formal Hearing

   The Vice Dean, along with the appointed investigator, shall present the matter to the Honor Committee. This hearing is not intended to be adversarial in nature (e.g. a prosecution and defense role). Rather, the purpose of the hearing is for the Honor Committee to gather information to enable it to make a factual determination as to whether or not a violation of the Honor Code has occurred, and if so, to recommend a penalty. To that end, the Honor Committee will call and question witnesses and receive any relevant documents. Because this is not a trial, rules of evidence may be more relaxed in the interest of gathering all relevant information. The accused student will be entitled to have counsel present at the hearing, in addition to his/her advocate. The accused student or any such counsel or advocate will also have the right to call and question witnesses, the right of access to any and all documents offered as evidence, and the right to examine such documents.

   After hearing all witnesses and considering all evidence presented, the Honor Committee shall decide whether a violation of the Honor Code has occurred. A majority vote of the six Honor Committee members voting shall be necessary for a finding of violation and the imposition of any sanction. However, a recommendation of expulsion or a recommendation that an awarded degree be withdrawn shall require unanimity.

   After the formal hearing is concluded, the chair of the Honor Committee shall assign one member of the Honor Committee to prepare a written report stating: (1) the essential findings of fact upon which the committee’s determination of violation or no violation is based; (2) the conclusions of law which are necessary to support the determination; and (3) the recommended sanction if a determination of violation is made. Concurring and dissenting members may prepare reports explaining their positions. Copies of the report(s) shall be given to the accused student and to the President and Dean of the Law School.

   The Honor Committee shall tape record the hearing in each case. The recording, documents received and the opinion of the Honor Committee shall be retained in the President and Dean’s Office. This record may be referred to by the Honor Committee for any purpose and by the President and Dean of the Law School in the case of appeal, but the confidentiality of the record should otherwise be maintained. The accused student shall have the right to make public the results of the formal hearing. At any time after three years, the Honor Committee may destroy the record except for the final report/opinion of the Honor Committee and the opinion of the President and Dean of the Law School, if any.

   If the accused student does not appeal the decision of the Honor Committee within seven days after receiving the written report of the Honor Committee pursuant to Article VI, the decision of the Honor Committee shall become final and binding upon all parties, and the President and Dean of the Law School shall proceed to consider implementation of the recommended penalty. In so doing, the President and Dean of the Law School shall have plenary power to accept, reject or modify the recommended penalty. The decision of the President and Dean of the Law School is final.
D. Resolution of the Case Without a Hearing

At any time the accused shall have the right to make a proposal for resolution of the matter to the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs or to the Honor Committee. Any such proposal shall include acknowledgment by the accused student of a violation, and shall include a waiver of all rights to the formal process including the right to appeal under the Honor Code with the understanding that the President and Dean of the Law School can modify all agreed to sanctions.

E. Time Limitation

No complaint may be filed more than sixty (60) days after the occurrence of the alleged violation or sixty (60) days after the day that the alleged violation and/or the identity of the accused student should have reasonably been discovered.

F. The Power to Appoint Alternates

Should it become necessary at any point during the informal or formal processes, the President and Dean of the Law School shall have the power to appoint alternates to serve the role(s) of the Vice Dean(s).

G. Notice

Notice to the accused student shall be given through the United States mail to the local address contained in the accused student’s educational file. If there is no local address, notice will be sent to the accused student’s permanent address.

Notice to members of the Honor Committee required by this Honor Code can be provided either through the Vermont Law School campus mail system (the notice is thereby placed in the individual’s campus mailbox) or through the United States mail.

Notice will be considered given on the date the notice is placed in the mail.

ARTICLE V. SANCTIONS

If through the informal or formal process it is determined that the accused student has violated one or more of the provisions of this Honor Code, the Honor Committee members or the Vice Dean shall recommend a sanction in accordance with the provisions below:

Class One Sanctions: If the Honor Committee members or the Vice Dean conclude that the student has committed a Class One violation of the Honor Code as defined in Article III, Section B, the recommended penalty shall be suspension, expulsion or withdrawal of an awarded degree, unless the Honor Committee members or Vice Dean find substantially mitigating circumstances warrant a lesser penalty as set out in the following paragraph. A recommendation of expulsion or a recommendation that an awarded degree be withdrawn shall require unanimity.

Class Two Sanctions: If the Honor Committee members or Vice Dean conclude that the student has committed a Class Two violation of the Honor Code as defined in Article III, Section B, the Honor Committee members or Vice Dean shall recommend such lesser penalty as they deem appropriate, including, but not limited to: a warning; a fine; probation; reference to counseling; or notation in the student’s permanent file, unless the Honor Committee members or Vice Dean find substantially aggravating circumstances warrant a harsher penalty as set out in the preceding paragraph.

41 Grade adjustments have been excluded from the list of sanctions. Grading is solely a faculty function. A faculty member may consider a determination that a student violated the Honor Code, for example by cheating or plagiarism, in assigning a grade. The President and Dean of the Law School cannot, however, compel the faculty member to adjust a grade based on the result of an Honor Code determination.
Notation on Official Transcript: The fact of a violation, whether subject to a Class One or Class Two sanction, shall in the usual case be noted on the student's official transcript. For purposes of this section, the official transcript means the official record of the student’s academic history at Vermont Law School in all programs (e.g. JD, MELP, LLM, or joint-degree) in which the student is enrolled at the time of the violation.

ARTICLE VI. APPEALS

E. The accused student may appeal the decision of the Honor Committee directly to the President and Dean of the Law School. Within seven days after receiving the written report of the Honor Committee, any accused student wishing to appeal shall give written notice of such intention to the President and Dean of the Law School. The accused student shall include a statement of the basis for such an appeal with the written notice. The review shall be on the record.

F. The President and Dean of the Law School shall notify the Honor Committee and the involved faculty member, if any, of the appeal.

G. The Honor Committee shall make available to the President and Dean of the Law School a copy of the tape recording of the hearing and copies of any documents received by the Honor Committee.

H. The President and Dean of the Law School shall schedule a meeting with the accused student within a reasonable time after receiving the written notice of appeal. The President and Dean of the Law School shall allow the accused student, the student’s counsel or advocate, the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs and/or the investigator, to present arguments at that meeting.

I. Factual findings of the Honor Committee shall not be overturned on appeal absent a showing that the findings are not supported by relevant evidence. Deference shall be accorded determinations of credibility made by the Honor Committee. Determinations of what constitutes relevant evidence shall be overturned only for abuse of discretion.

Conclusions of law, including interpretations and applications of this Honor Code, may be overturned upon a showing that the conclusions are erroneous.

The President and Dean of the Law School shall have the plenary power to accept, reject, or modify the recommended penalty. The decision of the President and Dean of the Law School is final.

ARTICLE VII. AMENDMENT OF THE HONOR CODE

A. This Honor Code may be amended upon the initiative of (1) a majority vote of the members of the Honor Committee; (2) a majority vote of the faculty; or (3) a petition signed by 50 or more Vermont Law School students. Any amendment must be approved both by a majority of the student members of the Honor Committee together with the members of the Student Bar Association voting as one body and by the faculty. If a student is both a member of the governing body of the Student Bar Association and the Honor Code Committee, the student shall have only one vote.

B. Amendments to this Honor Code shall be effective upon approval by the faculty and by the student members of the Honor Committee together with the Student Bar Association.

XII. COMMITTEE ON STANDARDS POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The faculty has delegated responsibility for administration of the Academic Regulations to the Committee on Standards. Any student who seeks a discretionary decision provided for under the regulations, or the waiver of a regulation, must petition the Committee; students should not contact individual members of the Committee concerning any matter which may come before the Committee.
B. MEETINGS OF THE COMMITTEE

5. Regular meetings of the Committee are ordinarily held monthly. The schedule of regular meetings will be posted on the official bulletin board at the beginning of each semester. Special meetings are held at the discretion of the chair. The Committee may meet telephonically or electronically.

6. Three members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum for the Committee to take action upon student petitions.

7. The deadline for submission of petitions shall be on the Friday preceding the meeting of the Committee at which the student seeks a decision. The Committee may, in its discretion, consider late petitions or consider petitions telephonically or electronically outside a regularly scheduled meeting provided a quorum of Committee members acts on the petition(s).

12. The Registrar and Director of Academic Procedures or designee shall serve as Secretary to the Committee on Standards.

C. PETITIONS AND PERSONAL APPEARANCE

1. The student shall submit a typewritten petition to the Registrar via email, mail, or in person, setting forth in detail the student’s request and the reasons why the Committee should make an exception to the Academic Regulations and grant the request.

2. In any case which may result or has resulted in suspension or dismissal from the school, the student has a right to a personal appearance before the Committee. Such personal appearance must be requested at the time of the student’s original petition, and the student shall appear at the time the petition is being considered by the Committee. In any other case, the student may request a personal appearance, which shall be granted only by unanimous consent of the members of the Committee. Such requests should be made in writing and submitted to the Registrar no later than the Friday preceding the Committee meeting at which the student petition will be considered.

D. NOTICE OF ACTIONS

The Committee shall notify the students of its decisions in writing by mail or email. In addition, the Committee shall notify the following parties in writing of its action when appropriate: Registrar, President and Dean, student’s instructor, Business Office.

E. PETITIONS FOR REHEARING

If a student’s petition is denied in whole or in part, the student may request reconsideration of the petition. Such a request will ordinarily be granted only upon presentation of new information which was not available at the time of submission of the original petition. Students requesting rehearing shall make this request in writing by the Friday preceding the Committee meeting at which the student would like the petition to be reconsidered.
The Code of Conduct may be amended at any time by the President and Dean after consultation with the Student Services Committee, the Vice Dean, and the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity. Notice of amendment shall be given by posting on the official campus bulletin board, email, and through the campus mail.
CODE OF CONDUCT

Adopted 10/10/94
Amended 6/7/06
Amended 4/14/10
Effective Date July 1, 2013

ARTICLE I. STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

“I pledge that I will uphold the highest standards of academic excellence, honesty, professionalism, and integrity. In my academic and professional life, I will treat others with dignity, respect, and courtesy. I commit myself to zealous advocacy for justice and to ethical service without prejudice.”

This oath is sworn before a Vermont Supreme Court justice by all Vermont Law School students upon their first morning of school. Vermont Law School students are citizens of an academic and social community whose members are expected to show respect for the person, property, and rights of others. Students seeking admission to the Vermont Bar, as well as most other state bars, must meet a standard of conduct set by the bar. Vermont Law School is required to certify a student’s character and fitness for the bar and for clearance by the FBI and other investigators for positions with the federal government. Therefore, all students are expected to maintain the standards set in this Code of Conduct.

ARTICLE II. APPLICATION OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT

This Code governs all matters of conduct not covered by the Vermont Law School Honor Code. It applies to the conduct of all students of Vermont Law School (VLS) with regard to their actions in connection with the application and admissions process, educational activities, career services, employment, or other law school-related activities, when those actions occur on VLS property or in the use of VLS facilities (including the computer network and telephone and email systems). This Code applies to all students taking classes on campus, as well as all students taking distance learning classes and students participating in off-campus programs, such as externships or SIPs. This Code also applies when those actions occur off campus in connection with events sponsored by VLS or VLS-approved organizations, or in connection with official business undertaken for VLS, or in other circumstances where an action could have a significant impact on the educational or employment environment or the reputation or integrity of VLS or could pose a threat to the safety or other interests of VLS or members of the VLS community.

This Code of Conduct does not govern interactions between members of the Vermont Law School community that do not involve violations of its provisions. An employer-employee dispute, a contract dispute, a landlord-tenant dispute, a domestic dispute, or other civil dispute between two individuals who happen to be members of the Vermont Law School community is governed by local, state, or federal law rather than this Code except insofar as the dispute also involves actions by the parties that independently are violations of the Code.

Conduct covered by this Code may also violate local, state, and federal laws. This Code will not be used merely to duplicate the function of those laws, but where Vermont Law School’s distinct interests as an academic community are involved, the Law School may pursue enforcement of its own policies whether or not legal proceedings involving the same incident are underway or anticipated. Vermont Law School may use information from third-party sources, such as law enforcement agencies and the courts, to initiate or adjudicate proceedings under this Code of Conduct. Conversely, Vermont Law School will not shield law students from the law, nor will it intervene as a party in legal proceedings against a law student. In general, this Code prohibits:

1. Any conduct that evidences fraud, deceit, dishonesty, any intent to harm or to obtain unfair advantage over another, or a gross disregard for the rights of others; and
2. any conduct that violates Vermont Law School regulations or policies contained in the Vermont Law School Student Handbook; and
3. any other conduct or activities that raise serious doubts about the student’s honesty, integrity, or fitness to practice law, regardless of whether the conduct occurred on campus or off campus, and regardless of whether classes were in session or during semester breaks.
A student violates this Code of Conduct if he or she acts purposely, knowingly, or recklessly. A student acts purposely if it is the student’s conscious object to engage in prohibited conduct or to cause a prohibited result, whether or not the student knows the conduct is prohibited. A student acts knowingly when that student knows that such conduct is prohibited or knows that his or her conduct will cause a prohibited result. A student acts recklessly when that student consciously disregards a substantial and unjustifiable risk that his or her conduct will fall within prohibited conduct or cause a harmful result.

It is not a defense to charges of violating this Code of Conduct and related policies for a student to claim that she or he has not received, read or understood this Code, or is otherwise ignorant of its provisions. Students will be held accountable for policy violations that take place between the time they first arrive in South Royalton to begin their Law School career and their graduation, or the Law School’s confirmation of their withdrawal. Distance learning students will be held to have notice of this Code of Conduct and to be bound by its provisions upon their enrollment in a VLS course or program. The Law School may also initiate charges with respect to alleged misconduct of the sort described herein that occurs before matriculation, if it appears that such alleged misconduct may have an effect on the student’s fitness to remain a part of the Law School community or fitness to practice law, or that reflects negatively on the student’s honesty or integrity. Further, the Law School reserves the right to pursue withdrawal of a degree, if it is determined that the degree was in part procured through academic dishonesty, fraud, or other misconduct. Violations of the Code of Conduct include, but are not limited to:

- Alcohol policy violation
- Alteration, misuse, or forgery of documents, records, ID’s, or keys
- Any and all felonies and misdemeanors, excluding minor traffic violations
- Arson
- Attempting to improperly influence the decision of the VLS Disciplinary Board
- Conduct off campus that is incongruent with the mission and goals of VLS
- Deliberate tampering with fire safety equipment on campus
- Desecration, profanation, misuse of any VLS property
- Disruptive behavior
- Drug policy violation
- Failure to present proper identification of oneself or one’s guest when asked by VLS personnel or campus security; failure to comply with the directives of VLS personnel, including Fitz Vogt staff, or knowingly furnishing false information to VLS personnel
- Harassment, Sexual Harassment, Discrimination, and Retaliation Policy violation
- Lewd, indecent, or obscene conduct
- Lying
- Misuse of VLS fire equipment, VLS ID card, the VLS computer network, the VLS email system or telephones (including pay phones)
- Obstruction or disruption of educational activities, administrative functions, or other activities of the Law School
- Physical assault
- Sexual Assault Policy violation
- Theft, attempted theft, or sale of VLS property or property belonging to others
- Unauthorized entry into any VLS sponsored event or club/organization activity
- Unauthorized entry into or use of VLS or student facilities or property
- Use or possession of firearms, explosives, knives, ammunition, or other lethal devices on campus
- Verbal abuse
- Willful damage
- Reading, copying, altering, or deleting computer files in another user’s account without permission of that user; willfully modifying or disabling computer files, programs, or equipment provided by the Computer Center for general use; using VLS computing facilities for outside business purposes
- Any of the behaviors listed above and exhibited in electronic form are also prohibited.

Each student is responsible for keeping informed of any changes in this Code. Ignorance of regulations and changes to regulations are not an excuse for violations of the VLS Code of Conduct.
ARTICLE III. STUDENT’S DUTY TO REPORT

Vermont Law School is required to certify students’ and graduates’ good character and fitness to state bar examiners. Students are responsible for informing themselves on the character and fitness requirements of the bar in the state or states where they intend to practice. Students have a duty to promptly report to the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity any charges, arrests or convictions of a violation of any civil or criminal law, other than a minor parking violation or parking ticket. In their application to Vermont Law School, students are required to disclose such events, as well as any prior disciplinary action by an educational institution, government, or administrative agency (including any branch of the Armed Forces). Students who failed to disclose such in their application materials must report to the Associate Dean for Enrollment Management. A failure to disclose events which occurred prior to or during Law School may lead to more serious consequences than the event itself. Any failure to report is a violation of the Code of Conduct.

ARTICLE IV. PROCEDURE

A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. The procedures for investigating and resolving complaints under this Code include voluntary informal resolution, mediation, informal process and formal process. Additional specific provisions governing the handling of alleged violations of the “Harassment, Sexual Harassment, Discrimination and Retaliation Policy” and the “Sexual Assault Policy, Resources and Procedures” by students are set forth in those policies. Such specific provisions will apply to complaints that allege harassment, discrimination, retaliation or sexual assault within the scope of those policies, to the extent that such specific provisions differ from the provisions outlined in these more general procedures. The availability of these procedures does not restrict the authority of the President and Dean to take whatever action he or she deems necessary to maintain good order within the Law School or to determine whether harassment or discrimination is occurring and ensure that any such action cease.

B. COMPLAINT AND PRELIMINARY PROCEEDINGS

1. Any person may initiate a proceeding under this Code by making a complaint to the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity (the Associate Dean) alleging a violation of the Code. The complaint may be oral or written. Upon receiving a complaint that this Code has been violated, the Associate Dean shall meet with the complainant, outline the possible courses of action, and explain the operation of these procedures. The Associate Dean shall discuss the allegations with the complainant to determine whether all pertinent facts have been alleged. The Associate Dean may conduct a further investigation.

2. If the Associate Dean determines that the facts alleged, if true, would not establish a violation of the Code, the Associate Dean shall dismiss the complaint. When a complaint is dismissed for this reason, the Associate Dean may ask the complainant and the student complained against to meet in an effort to resolve differences between them. The fact that a complaint has been filed and dismissed will not be publicly disclosed by the Associate Dean or any party unless all parties agree.

3. If the Associate Dean determines that the facts alleged, if true, would establish a violation of the Code, he or she shall notify the student complained against of the substance of the complaint, meet with the student, outline the possible courses of action, and explain the operation of the procedures. The Associate Dean at his or her discretion may appoint advisors for the complainant and the student complained against. The appointed advisors serve as advisors only, and do not give legal advice. There is no attorney/client privilege between students and advisors. The students may retain legal counsel at their own expense. The Associate Dean shall give the student the opportunity to tell her or his side of the story. If it is appropriate in the circumstances, the Associate Dean may ask the parties to participate in voluntary informal resolution of the complaint as provided in subsection IV.C. and may take other actions designed to clarify and resolve issues for the parties and the Law School community.

3. If the Associate Dean does not request voluntary informal resolution, or that procedure does not result in resolution of the complaint, the Associate Dean shall appoint a Preliminary Investigator to conduct a preliminary investigation of the facts and submit a written report to the Associate Dean. When conducting a preliminary investigation, the Preliminary Investigator shall make every effort to avoid disclosing sensitive information, although full confidentiality cannot be guaranteed because some information may need to be shared with witnesses and otherwise as necessary in order to complete the preliminary investigation.

4. The Preliminary Investigator shall complete the investigation and submit her or his report within 30 working days after the date of appointment unless the time is extended by the Associate Dean for reasonable cause. Upon receipt of the Preliminary Investigator’s report, the Associate Dean may direct such further investigation as he or she deems necessary. The report may be given, as appropriate, to the parties, to the mediator under subsection IV.D., to the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs (Vice Dean) under subsection IV.E. or to the Chair of the Disciplinary Board and the President and Dean of the Law School (President and Dean) under subsection IV.F. The report will be included in the President and Dean’s confidential file under subsection IV.L., but will not otherwise be distributed or disclosed to anyone.

5. At the conclusion of the preliminary investigation, and after consulting with the complainant and the student complained against, the Associate Dean will determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe that a violation of this Code has occurred. If there are not reasonable grounds to believe that a violation has occurred, the Associate Dean shall dismiss the complaint. If the complaint is dismissed on this ground, the Associate Dean may ask the parties to meet in an effort to resolve differences between them and may take other actions designed to clarify and resolve issues for the parties and the Law School community.

6. If the Associate Dean finds reasonable grounds to believe that a violation of this Code has occurred, he or she shall determine whether the complaint is to be resolved by mediation as provided in subsection IV.D., informal process as provided in subsection IV.E., or formal process as provided in subsection IV.F. and shall take the steps necessary to initiate the procedure selected. Pending resolution of the complaint by one of these procedures, the Associate Dean, or the President and Dean, is authorized to take whatever interim measures he or she deems necessary to maintain good order within the Law School or to ensure that any harassment or discrimination complained of ceases.

7. The Associate Dean shall issue a written statement of reasons for any decision that he or she makes under this subsection and shall provide a copy of that statement to the parties and to the President and Dean.

C. VOLUNTARY INFORMAL RESOLUTION

With the agreement of the parties, the Associate Dean may work with them to reach an informal resolution of the complaint. Other members of the Law School community or outside individuals with appropriate experience or expertise may be asked to participate in an informal resolution process.

1. Voluntary informal resolution must be completed within 20 working days after the parties have signified their agreement to participate unless the Associate Dean extends the time for reasonable cause. If the process does not result in a resolution satisfactory to the parties and approved by the Associate Dean within the allotted time, the Associate Dean shall resume the proceeding at the point at which voluntary informal resolution was undertaken.

2. A written report of a voluntary informal resolution that reaches a result satisfactory to the parties and approved by the Associate Dean shall be provided to the President and Dean and made part of the confidential file of the complaint. The resolution reached shall not be disclosed by the Associate Dean or any party unless the parties agree.

3. An informal resolution of the complaint by the parties does not affect the power and responsibility of Vermont Law School to take whatever action may be necessary to ensure past and future compliance with all policies and regulations of the Law School.
D. MEDIATION

1. If the Associate Dean determines that mediation is appropriate, then the Associate Dean, or another mediator selected by the Associate Dean, may undertake mediation with the complainant and the student complained against. Mediation shall not be undertaken unless both parties agree.
   a. During mediation, each party may be accompanied by counsel or another person of his or her own choice and at his or her own expense.
   b. Possible resolutions through mediation include, but are not limited to, an apology (public or private); promise to cease the behavior complained about; counseling; limitations on contact; assurance of no retaliation; and/or notation in the student’s personal file.
   c. Mediation will be completed within 30 working days after the parties have signified their agreement to participate unless the Associate Dean, on the representation of the mediator that a mediated resolution is probable, extends the time.

2. A complaint shall be deemed resolved by mediation when both parties have signed a settlement agreement indicating their acceptance of the resolution reached in the mediation procedure, the mediator has approved and signed the agreement, and the Associate Dean has approved the agreement and dismissed the complaint with any necessary conditions.

4. If a complainant believes that a mediated settlement agreement has been breached, she or he shall make a complaint to the Associate Dean. If the Associate Dean decides that the mediation agreement has been breached, he or she shall undertake appropriate further proceedings or may recommend an appropriate sanction or disciplinary action to the President and Dean. The President and Dean may accept, reject, or modify the recommended sanction or disciplinary action.

5. Either party may withdraw from mediation at any time before resolution. If a party withdraws from mediation, the mediator will report the status of the mediation to the Associate Dean. The Associate Dean may dismiss the complaint or may reopen the preliminary investigation or may determine that the complaint should be resolved in another resolution procedure under this Code.

E. INFORMAL PROCESS

1. If the Associate Dean finds that mediation is not appropriate or mediation has not resulted in an approved settlement agreement and that the violation is subject only to Class Two Sanctions (as set out in Article V), he or she shall proceed as follows. The Associate Dean shall discuss the charges, the potential consequences, and the operation of the informal process with the student complained against. After discussion with the student and deliberation, the Associate Dean shall make a decision as to whether a violation has occurred and shall make a recommendation concerning sanctions to the President and Dean. In this recommendation, the Associate Dean is limited to Class Two Sanctions.

2. The student may appeal the decision and recommendation of the Associate Dean to the President and Dean. No other appeal is available. If the student does appeal, the President and Dean may affirm, reverse, or modify the decision of the Associate Dean, and may accept, reject, or modify any recommended sanction that may be made by the Associate Dean, provided that only a Class Two Sanction may be imposed. The President and Dean may confer with the Associate Dean during this process. The decision of the President and Dean is final.

3. If the student does not appeal, the President and Dean shall approve the recommended sanction.

4. The complainant will be informed of the final decisions and the sanctions, if any, that have been imposed upon the student complained against, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

F. FORMAL PROCESS

1. If the Associate Dean finds that mediation is not appropriate or has not resulted in an approved settlement agreement and that the violation is one the sanctions for which are not limited to Class Two Sanctions (as set out in Article V), he or she shall discuss the charges, the potential consequences, and the formal process with the student complained against. The student will be given the option of going forward with the formal process or agreeing in writing to abide both by the decision of the Associate Dean as to whether a violation of this Code of Conduct has occurred and by the sanction imposed by the President and Dean upon the recommendation of the Associate Dean. Such agreement by the student will constitute a waiver of any right to the formal process. In this process, the President and Dean may accept, reject, or modify any recommendation which may be made by the Associate Dean. The President and Dean may confer with the Associate Dean during this process. The decision of the President and Dean is final. In this process, the Associate Dean and the President and Dean are not limited to Class Two Sanctions.

2. If the student decides to proceed with the formal process, the Associate Dean will schedule a hearing before the Vermont Law School Disciplinary Board and shall give notice to all parties and the President and Dean. The hearing shall be held within 20 working days after notice is given unless the time is extended by the Associate Dean for reasonable cause. The notice shall include the date, time, and location of the hearing and a summary of the elements of the complaint.

3. The Vermont Law School Disciplinary Board shall be composed of the Associate Dean as a non-voting chair, three members of the Vermont Law School faculty committee on standards, administration or staff appointed by the President and Dean, and two of the five students elected by the student body during the fall elections.

4. The hearing shall not be a formal adversarial one in the sense that there will be a prosecution versus a defense. The purpose of the hearing is to gather information to enable the Disciplinary Board to make a factual determination and if necessary to recommend a sanction. To that end, the Associate Dean shall conduct the proceeding and shall have the right to call witnesses and present documents as evidence. The Associate Dean and all members of the Disciplinary Board shall have the right to question witnesses and examine documents offered as evidence. The Law School may have counsel present at the proceeding.

5. Because this is not a trial, rules of evidence may be more relaxed in the interest of gathering relevant information.

6. The student complained against will be entitled to have counsel or another person of his or her own choosing at the hearing. The student or any such counsel or person will also have the right to call and question witnesses and the right to introduce and examine documents offered as evidence. The Law School may also choose to have counsel present on its behalf to call and question witnesses and to introduce and examine documents offered as evidence.

7. After hearing all witnesses and considering all evidence presented, the Disciplinary Board shall decide whether a violation of the Code of Conduct has occurred. A majority vote shall be necessary for a finding of a violation and the recommendation of any sanction. However, a recommendation of expulsion or a recommendation that an awarded degree be withdrawn shall require unanimity. The Associate Dean shall appoint a member of the Disciplinary Board to prepare a written report stating: (1) the essential findings of fact upon which the Board’s determination of violation or no violation is based; (2) the conclusions which are necessary to support the determination; and (3) the recommended sanction if a determination of violation is made. Concurring and dissenting members may prepare reports explaining their positions. Copies of the report(s) shall be given to the student complained against and to the President and Dean.

8. The Disciplinary Board shall tape record the hearing in each case. The recording, the documents received, and the opinion of the Board shall be retained in the President and Dean’s Office. This record may be referred to by the Board for any purpose, but the confidentiality of the record should otherwise be maintained. At any time after three years, the Board may destroy the record except for the final report/opinion of the Board and the opinion of the President and Dean, if any, unless there is a pending request for production of the record or some other reason why, in the Board’s discretion, the record should be maintained.

9. If the student complained against does not appeal the decision of the Disciplinary Board within fourteen days after receiving the written report of the Board, the decision of the Disciplinary Board on the merits shall become final and binding upon all parties, and the President and Dean shall proceed to consider implementation of the recommended penalty. In so doing, the President and Dean may confer with the Associate Dean and shall have plenary power to accept, reject, or modify the recommended penalty. The decision of the President and Dean is final.

10. The student may appeal the decision of the Disciplinary Board directly to the President and Dean. If the student appeals, the President and Dean may affirm, reverse, or modify the decision of the Disciplinary Board and may accept, reject, or modify any recommended sanction. The President and Dean may confer with the Associate Dean during this process. The decision of the President and Dean is final.

11. The complainant will be informed of the final decisions and the sanctions, if any, that have been imposed upon the student complained against, to the extent permitted by applicable law.
G. CONFIDENTIALITY

1. All proceedings under this Code are confidential from the initial complaint through the final decision of the President and Dean. The identity of the complainant and other witnesses will be disclosed to the student complained against, unless the Associate Dean decides otherwise.
2. The Law School has the right to investigate incidents or situations brought to its notice.
3. All hearings and meetings are confidential and are not open to persons not directly involved in the proceedings.
4. The President and Dean has discretion to report violations of local, state, and federal law to the appropriate authorities. The President and Dean also has discretion to report the results to the Vermont Law School community, to the extent permitted by applicable law. The Associate Dean and the Disciplinary Board may recommend public acknowledgment of wrongdoing by an accused student as a sanction. The student complained against has the right to release only the results of the proceeding.
5. These confidentiality provisions cannot be waived except as provided in this subsection.

H. STANDARD OF PROOF

Before a student may be found to have violated this Code of Conduct, the Associate Dean or the Disciplinary Board must find that the student committed the acts constituting the violation by a preponderance of the evidence.

I. TIME LIMITATION

No complaint may be brought more than one hundred and eighty (180) days after the occurrence of the alleged violation or one hundred and eighty (180) days after the alleged violation should have reasonably been discovered by the Administration. If an individual has begun a proceeding under the Vermont Law School Honor Code, this time limitation shall be tolled during that proceeding.

J. THE POWER TO APPOINT ALTERNATES

Should it become necessary at any time during proceedings under this Code, the President and Dean shall have the power to appoint alternates to serve either in the role of the Associate Dean or as members of the Disciplinary Board. The President of the Student Bar Association also has the power to appoint alternate students to serve on the Disciplinary Board.

K. NOTICE

If written notice must be given to a student complained against, it shall be given by U.S. certified mail to the local address contained in the student’s educational file. If there is no local address, notice will be sent by U.S. certified mail to the student’s permanent address. Notice will be considered given on the date the notice is placed in the mail.

L. RECORDS

Records of all complaints and proceedings for their resolution shall be retained by the President and Dean in a confidential file and/or as described above.

ARTICLE V. SANCTIONS

Following the determination that the student complained against has violated one or more of the provisions of this Code of Conduct, the Associate Dean or the members of the Disciplinary Board shall recommend a sanction in accordance with the provisions below:

A. CLASS ONE SANCTIONS

If the Associate Dean or the members of the Disciplinary Board conclude that the student has committed a serious violation of the Code of Conduct, the recommended sanction shall be suspension, expulsion, or that the President and Dean recommend to the Board of Trustees withdrawal of an awarded degree, unless there are substantially mitigating circumstances that warrant a lesser penalty as set out in the following paragraph.

B. CLASS TWO SANCTIONS
If the Associate Dean or the members of the Disciplinary Board conclude that the student has committed a lesser violation of the Code of Conduct, the recommended sanction shall be such lesser penalty as is deemed appropriate, including, but not limited to a warning, a fine, restitution, community service, probation, reference to counseling, or notation in the student’s permanent file, unless there are substantially aggravating circumstances that warrant a harsher penalty as set out in the preceding paragraph.

C. NOTATION IN THE STUDENT’S OFFICIAL FILE
If the student complained against receives either a Class One sanction or a Class Two sanction the fact of the violation and the sanction shall be noted in the student’s official file, unless the President and Dean decides otherwise.

D. NOTATION ON OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPT
If the student complained against receives a Class One sanction, the fact of the violation and the sanction shall be noted on the student’s official transcript.

E. STUDENT STATUS
Ordinarily a student will not be permitted to graduate, or to withdraw with the expectation of returning to the Law School, while a disciplinary matter is pending. The disciplinary matter shall be held in abeyance until the matter is resolved. If a student withdraws with a disciplinary matter pending, the withdrawal will be considered a resignation from the Law School and the student will have given up any opportunity to return to the School. A notation to this effect will be made in the student’s permanent record. The Law School reserves the right to adjudicate disciplinary matters even after a student has withdrawn with a disciplinary matter pending.

ARTICLE VI. AMENDMENT
This Code of Conduct may be amended at any time by the President and Dean after consultation with the Student Services Committee, the Vice Dean and the Associate Dean. Notice of amendments shall be given by posting on the official campus bulletin board, email, and/or through the campus mail.
POLICY AGAINST HARASSMENT, SEXUAL HARASSMENT, DISCRIMINATION AND RETALIATION

Adopted 10/28/94
Amended 6/7/06
Amended 7/1/13
Effective Date: July 1, 2013. This policy applies to all complaints of discrimination or harassment made on or after July 1, 2013. The prior Nondiscrimination Policy and Procedures and related provisions apply to complaints made before that date.

A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Introduction: This policy applies to all Vermont Law School (VLS) employees, officers, trustees, and students with regard to their actions in connection with the application or admissions process, educational activities, career services, employment, or other law school-related activities when those actions occur on VLS property or in the use of VLS facilities (including the computer network and telephone and email systems). This policy also applies when those actions occur off campus in connection with events sponsored by VLS or VLS-approved organizations, or in connection with official business undertaken for VLS, or when the alleged conduct of concern involves interactions between VLS employees, officers, trustees and/or students, or in other circumstances where an action could have a significant impact on the educational or employment environment or the reputation or integrity of VLS, and/or could pose a threat to the safety or other interests of VLS or members of the VLS community. This policy also applies to the actions of VLS agents and contractors in the circumstances set forth in this paragraph to the extent that VLS can control their conduct. In addition to this Policy, VLS also maintains a Sexual Assault Policy. In some cases, alleged behavior may violate both policies. As a result, the investigative processes for both polices are structured to be coordinated when appropriate.

2. Notice of Non-Discrimination: Vermont Law School is committed to promoting an employment and educational environment free from unlawful harassment, sexual harassment, discrimination, and retaliation. Unlawful harassment or discrimination on the basis of age, race, color, creed, ethnicity, national origin, place of birth, ancestry, religion, sex/gender (including gender identity/expression), sexual orientation, marital status of students, service in the armed forces of the United States, HIV-positive status, genetic information, or against qualified individuals with disabilities on the basis of disability, as defined by applicable law, or other characteristics as defined and protected by applicable law ("protected characteristics") is prohibited and will not be tolerated. In compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 ("Title IX") and applicable state law, Vermont Law School does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its education programs and activities or in employment. Discrimination on the basis of sex prohibited by Title IX includes sexual harassment and sexual violence, such as rape, sexual assault, sexual battery, and sexual coercion. The Law School will take all necessary steps to end conduct prohibited by this policy, to prevent its recurrence, and to address its effects.

3. Title IX Coordinator: Vermont Law School has designated Shirley Jefferson, Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity, (802) 831-1333, to serve as its Title IX Coordinator. Diane Hayes, Director, Human Resources, (802) 831-1308, will act as Dean Jefferson’s alternate Title IX Coordinator when Dean Jefferson is unavailable. The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for coordinating VLS’s compliance with Title IX, including overseeing all complaints of sex discrimination and identifying and addressing any patterns or systemic problems that arise during the review of such complaints. Inquiries concerning Title IX may be referred to the Law School’s Title IX Coordinator or to the United States Department of Education’s Office of Civil Rights.
4. Definitions:

a. "Unlawful Harassment" is defined as verbal or physical conduct that, on the basis of a protected characteristic, has the purpose or effect, from the point of view of a reasonable person, either of interfering with an individual’s employment or educational performance or of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive employment or educational environment. Unlawful harassment may include, but is not limited to, the following actions if, as isolated acts or as part of a pattern, they have the prohibited purpose or effect on employment or educational performance or environment: jokes, derogatory expressions, or comments; the display of graphics, cartoons, or objects; sending or forwarding electronic mail messages; and other conduct offensive to a reasonable person possessing a particular protected characteristic.

b. “Sexual Harassment” is a particular type of unlawful harassment. In addition to conduct described in the preceding paragraph that is of a sexual nature, sexual harassment includes conduct that a reasonable person would judge to be unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when submission to or rejection of such conduct explicitly or implicitly affects employment or educational decisions concerning an individual, or when the conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an employee’s performance or a student’s educational experience, or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive employment or educational environment because of the employee’s or student’s gender. Sexual harassment specifically includes: (a) statements or threats which imply a link between an individual’s sexual conduct and his or her academic or employment status, advancement potential, salary treatment, grading treatment, participation in VLS programs or activities, or other employment or educational actions; (b) basing an employment decision such as hiring, promotion, retention, or compensation, or an educational decision such as admission, a grade, or participation in any VLS program or activity, on whether an employee, a student, or an applicant submits to sexual advances. Sexual harassment may occur regardless of the genders of the individuals involved.

c. “Discrimination” is defined as making a decision or taking an action that affects the terms or conditions of a person’s employment or education at VLS, or participation in or access to the benefits of any VLS program or activity, on the basis of a protected characteristic of that person.

d. “Retaliation” is defined as an adverse action taken against any person for making a good faith complaint of unlawful harassment, sexual harassment, or discrimination or for having participated in an investigation of such a complaint. Retaliation includes but is not limited to ostracizing the person, pressuring the person to drop or not support the complaint, or adversely altering that person’s educational, living, or work environment. Retaliation may be unlawful and may constitute a violation of this policy depending on the circumstances, whether or not the complaint is ultimately found to have merit.

5. Academic Freedom: In the establishment and enforcement of this policy against unlawful harassment, VLS recognizes and affirms that free, honest intellectual inquiry, debate, constructive dialogue, and the open exchange of ideas are essential to the Law School’s academic mission and must be respected even when the views expressed are unpopular or controversial. Respect for speech in all its forms is, therefore, an important element in the “reasonable person” standard to be used in judging whether harassment has occurred. This policy is meant neither to proscribe nor to inhibit discussions or presentations of differing points of view, in or out of the classroom, concerning complex, controversial, or sensitive matters, including sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, race, ethnicity, religious orientation, age, physical ability, or other protected characteristics, when in the judgment of a reasonable person, those discussions or presentations are conducted appropriately and with respect for the dignity of others. VLS also recognizes, however, that verbal conduct can be used specifically to intimidate or coerce and to inhibit genuine discourse, free inquiry, and learning. Such abuses are unacceptable. If someone believes that another's speech or writing is offensive, wrong, or hurtful, he or she is encouraged to express that judgment in the exercise of his or her own freedom of speech or to seek an appropriate remedy under the Law School’s procedures for enforcing this policy.
6. Outside Agencies: All members of the VLS community have the right to pursue discrimination and harassment complaints, including sexual harassment and sexual assault complaints, and complaints of retaliation, beyond the Law School. Such outside agencies include local, state and federal enforcement agencies, including local and state police as appropriate, as set forth below. Complainants may pursue an internal complaint under this policy or with an external agency, or pursue both at the same time.

Students may contact the following agencies:

- Vermont Human Rights Commission, 14-16 Baldwin Street, Montpelier, VT 05633-6301, Tel: (800) 426-2010 ext. 25 (voice), TTY: (877) 294-9200, Fax: (802) 828-2481, Email: human.rights@state.vt.us
- United States Department of Education, Office of Civil Rights, 8th Floor, 5 Post Office Square, Boston, MA 02109-3921, Tel: (617) 289-0111, Fax: (617) 289-0150, Email: OCR.Boston@ed.gov

Employees may contact the following agencies:

- Vermont Attorney General’s Office, Civil Rights Unit, 109 State Street, Montpelier, Vermont 05609-1001; Tel: (802) 828-3171 or (888) 745-9195, TTY: (802) 828-3665, Fax: (802) 828-3187, Email: civilrights@atg.state.vt.us
- Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), Boston Area Office, John F. Kennedy Federal Building, Government Center, Room 475, Boston, MA 02203, Tel: (617) 565-3200, TTY: (617) 565-3204, Email: info@ask.eeoc.gov

Each of these agencies can conduct investigations, facilitate conciliation, and, if it finds that, there are reasonable grounds to believe that unlawful conduct has occurred, take the case to court. There are certain time deadlines for filing complaints with state and federal agencies and/or in state or federal court.

7. Other Resources: There are many resources available to individuals affected by sexual harassment, inappropriate sexual misconduct, and/or sexual assault. A list of these resources is set forth in the Sexual Assault Policy.

8. Questions: If any person has questions or concerns regarding this policy, he or she should talk with the VLS Director of Human Resources, the Associate Dean for Students Affairs and Diversity, and/or the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs.

B. PROCEDURES FOR HANDLING COMPLAINTS OF HARASSMENT, SEXUAL HARASSMENT, DISCRIMINATION, OR RETALIATION

All information in the following sections applies to student, staff or faculty of Vermont Law School who wish to report a complaint of harassment, sexual harassment, discrimination, or retaliation. Vermont Law School is committed, and required by law, to take action when it learns of potential harassment or discrimination. The Law School will take all necessary steps to ensure that complaints are promptly investigated and addressed, so it is important that such complaints or concerns be presented in a timely fashion. A person who feels harassed or discriminated against is primarily responsible for bringing these concerns to the Law School’s attention, but employees and students are also encouraged, and supervisors and all other responsible employees are required, to report incidents or patterns of prohibited harassment or discrimination to appropriate Law School personnel.

1. Complaints. Any Vermont Law School student, faculty member or staff member who has reasonable cause to believe that a student, faculty member, staff member, officer, trustee, agent, or contractor of Vermont Law School has engaged in conduct prohibited by this policy or who believes that he or she has been subjected to retaliation for having brought or supported a good faith complaint covered by this policy, or for having participated in an investigation of such a complaint, is encouraged to bring this information to the immediate attention of the Title IX Coordinator, an employee’s supervisor, the Director of Human Resources, any Dean or Vice President, or the President and Dean of the Law School (President and Dean). The complainant will be encouraged, though not required, to provide a written statement of the factual basis for the complaint and requested remedial action (if any). Any supervisor or responsible employee having first-hand knowledge of conduct prohibited by this policy shall immediately make such a complaint.

2. Handling of Complaint. When a complaint is made, the person receiving the complaint should assure the complainant that the complaint will be investigated promptly by the Law School, that appropriate corrective action will be taken, and that the complainant will not suffer retaliation as a result of making a good faith complaint of unlawful harassment, sexual harassment, discrimination or related retaliation. The person to whom a complaint has been made shall immediately inform the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs of the complaint and transmit the written complaint or other material concerning the matter to the Vice Dean. The Vice Dean will appoint a Vice President, Associate or Assistant Dean, or Director to undertake the investigatory responsibilities set forth in paragraph 3. If a complaint involves the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs, the person to whom it is made shall inform the President and Dean, who will appoint another dean or director to undertake those responsibilities. If a complaint involves the President and Dean or another officer or Trustee, the Vice Dean shall inform the Chair of the Board of Trustees, who will appoint a Trustee to undertake those responsibilities. If a complaint involves the Chair, the Vice Chair will appoint a Trustee to undertake those responsibilities. With the approval of the President and Dean, or the Chair or Vice Chair of the Board of Trustees if appropriate, a qualified individual from outside the Law School community may be appointed to undertake or assist in those responsibilities.

The Title IX Coordinator’s responsibilities include overseeing all Title IX complaints and identifying and addressing any patterns or systemic problems that arise during the review of such complaints. The Title IX Coordinator or her designee will be available to meet with students as needed.

3. Investigation. The person appointed by the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs (the Vice Dean) under paragraph 2 (the “Investigator”), will promptly make an initial determination as to whether the complaint alleges conduct prohibited by this policy. Absent extenuating circumstances, this initial determination will occur within five business days of receipt of the complaint. The complainant and respondent will be provided with notice of the identity of the appointed Investigator, and will be informed that any objections to the service of the appointed Investigator on grounds of conflict of interest or a lack of impartiality should be submitted in writing to the Vice Dean within 3 days of notice of the appointment. The Vice Dean will decide promptly whether the appointed Investigator will or will not continue to conduct the investigation. Any materials collected or notes prepared by the Investigator during the objection period will be turned over to any replacement Investigator. The replacement Investigator will decide whether to use such materials or not. If the Investigator determines that the complaint falls within this policy, he or she will, individually or in conjunction with other Law School officers or individuals (including, if warranted, outside investigators), promptly and equitably conduct or supervise an investigation of the complaint, as appropriate under the circumstances. The investigation will be conducted in a thorough, impartial and expeditious manner. The parties will not be permitted to question or cross-examine each other directly during the course of the investigation. The nature and scope of the investigation is within the discretion of the Investigator. Absent extenuating circumstances, the investigation of a complaint under this policy will ordinarily be completed within 45 calendar days. If the complainant or respondent requests an extension of this general 45 day period, he or she should make a written request for an extension to the Investigator, who will make a decision on the request after having provided the other party notice of the request and an opportunity to respond.

4. Intermediate Remedial Action. The Investigator or other school official may take interim remedial action, including by way of example only, issuance of no contact orders or temporary changes in assignment of duties, classes or housing (where requested and reasonably available), to protect complainants on an interim basis.
5. Informal Resolution. The Investigator may recommend and participate in voluntary alternative dispute resolution such as informal meetings or mediation sessions with the parties. A complainant will not be required to participate in alternative dispute resolution and may end the alternate dispute resolution process at any time. The Law School may also decide, at its discretion, not to pursue or to discontinue informal resolution. Mediation between the complainant and the respondent will not be pursued in cases involving allegations of sexual assault.

6. Investigator’s Report. After the investigation is completed, the Investigator shall issue a report to the Vice Dean, together with recommended findings, based upon the preponderance of the evidence standard, i.e., whether it is more likely than not that the policy was violated. The report may be issued orally or in writing, depending upon the nature and complexity of the information. The Investigator’s report is advisory in nature.

7. Determination. The Vice Dean is not bound by the Investigator’s report and may accept or reject the Investigator’s recommended finding in whole or in part, and/or may request additional relevant information before making a final determination. The Vice Dean should avoid duplicating the efforts of the Investigator and should not accept the Investigator’s recommended findings without first conducting a careful review of all of the evidence. Either party may choose to meet individually with the Vice Dean prior to his/her final determination. Equally, the Vice Dean may request an individual meeting with either party or any other person(s) as appropriate. After reviewing the Investigator’s report and recommended finding, the Vice Dean shall issue a final determination as to whether conduct prohibited under this policy occurred. The final determination will be based on a preponderance of the evidence standard. Absent extenuating circumstances, the Vice Dean will issue the final determination within ten business days after receipt of the Investigator’s report. The complainant and respondent will ordinarily be notified of the final determination of the Vice Dean as to whether this policy was violated. In sexual harassment or sexual assault cases involving student-complainants, both parties will be notified of the final determination concurrently in writing, to the extent permitted by law. However, information regarding discipline or sanctions will not be shared with any complainant under this policy except as required and/or permitted by law.

8. Adjudication. The Vice Dean will work with those Law School officials who have authority over the individuals involved in the matter and the Law School will promptly take any necessary and remedial action to prevent recurrence of any harassment, discrimination or retaliation and to correct its discriminatory effects on the complainant and others, as appropriate. If the Vice Dean determines that a staff or faculty member has engaged in conduct in violation of this policy, he/she will report the determination to the appropriate supervisory authority, in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ II.G and H of the Vermont Law School Staff Handbook (July 1, 2005) and § V.F of the Vermont Law School Faculty Handbook (January 2011). The appropriate supervisory authority shall consider the initiation of disciplinary proceedings and/or action up to and including termination of employment. If the Vice Dean determines that the President and Dean, another officer or Trustee, or an agent or contractor of the Law School engaged in conduct in violation of this policy, he/she will make recommendations for action appropriate in the circumstances to the Chair or Vice Chair of the Board of Trustees, or to the administrative officer responsible for the relevant agency or contractual relationship. If the Vice Dean determines that a student has engaged in conduct in violation of this policy, he/she will refer the matter to the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity for disciplinary action, up to and including expulsion, in accordance with the hearing procedures set forth in the “Sexual Assault Policy, Resources, and Procedures” at Article IV, Section C, §§ 7-11.
SEXUAL ASSAULT POLICY, RESOURCES AND PROCEDURES

ARTICLE I. VLS SEXUAL ASSAULT POLICY

A. Purpose
Sexual assault is a crime. The purpose of this Sexual Assault Policy is to make clear that sexual assault, as defined herein, constitutes a violation of Vermont Law School’s Code of Conduct and to provide members of the VLS community who may have been sexually assaulted with information about reporting incidents of sexual assault, medical facilities, and available counseling.

B. Definition
Sexual assault is knowingly engaging in physical contact of a sexual nature with any person without the consent of that person and includes rape, sexual battery and sexual coercion. The gender and sexual orientation of the assailant and of the victim are not relevant for purposes of this definition. Impaired judgment because of the use of alcohol or other drugs is not a defense to a charge of sexual assault. Moreover, a person who is under the influence of alcohol or other drugs may not be able to give valid consent to sexual contact.

C. Scope
The sexual assault policy applies to conduct on VLS property, at VLS sponsored events, including student group events. The policy also applies in other circumstances where the alleged conduct: could have a significant impact on the educational or employment environment or the reputation or integrity of VLS; involves interactions between VLS employees, officers, trustees and/or students; or could pose a threat to the safety or other interests of VLS and its community. Further, because the Code of Conduct prohibits “any conduct that raises serious doubts about the student’s honesty, integrity, or fitness to practice law” VLS may in certain cases investigate and address any sexual assault charges against a law student, regardless of the circumstances of the assault.

D. Reporting
VLS strongly encourages any student or employee who feels that he or she has been the victim of sexual assault to contact local authorities. Reporting the incident does not obligate you to prosecute, but gives you the option to prosecute. Delayed reporting will diminish the possibility of collecting potentially crucial evidence. Nevertheless, it is never too late to report an assault or to seek support and medical attention.

E. Confidentiality
Although VLS will make every effort to maintain confidentiality with respect to reported sexual assault, this confidentiality is not absolute. Where criminal conduct has occurred, or where the health and/or safety of others in the community may be in danger, it may be necessary for VLS to take appropriate steps to protect the safety of its students and employees, including the person who has reported the assault. Please do not be discouraged to come forward: your reporting of a sexual incident may help prevent other assaults, and information will be shared only to the extent necessary to protect our community’s safety.

Subject to the foregoing, VLS will strive to maintain confidentiality in responding to a complaint of sexual assault, including inquiries regarding the investigation, the disciplinary process, and the final outcome of any disciplinary proceeding – although, by law, both the accuser and the accused will be informed of the outcome of disciplinary proceedings involving an alleged sexual assault or attempted sexual assault.

Communications with the counselors are confidential medical and/or mental health communications, and will not be shared with others in the VLS community absent the presence of a serious risk of danger to an identified individual. Communications with medical providers are also confidential communications, subject to the same limited exception. Reports or records maintained by VLS (including the Counseling Service records), and other confidential records may, however, be subject to subpoena if civil or criminal charges are filed in court.
F. Vermont Law School Disciplinary Sanctions

A student who violates the Sexual Assault Policy will be subject to disciplinary proceedings under this Policy independently of whether legal proceedings involving the same incident are underway or anticipated. See Article IV of this Policy.

An employee of VLS who violates either the Standards of Professional Conduct or who violates the Sexual Assault Policy will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including the termination of employment. If the Associate Dean determines that the President and Dean, another officer or Trustee, or an agent or contractor of the Law School has engaged in conduct in violation of this policy, he/she will make recommendations for action appropriate in the circumstances to the Chair or Vice Chair of the Board of Trustees, or to the administrative officer responsible for the relevant agency or contractual relationship. VLS will encourage and assist a complainant in reporting any illegal conduct to the appropriate authority, and may have to do so independently where it determines that the circumstances pose an ongoing threat to a member or members of the VLS community.

ARTICLE II. MATERIALS AVAILABLE REGARDING SEXUAL ASSAULT AND SEXUAL OFFENSES

Educational materials concerning rape, sexual assault, and sexual harassment are available from the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity. These materials are available for the purpose of creating awareness and prevention of sexual assault acts and to provide resources if you, a friend, or a relative become the victim of rape or sexual assault.

You can also obtain educational materials confidentially by contacting any of the rape crisis centers listed in Section III (D) of this document.

ARTICLE III. RESOURCES FOR VICTIMS OF SEXUAL ASSAULT

A. Obtaining Support

You are in control to decide whether you want to talk with somebody about the incident and with whom you want to talk. The choice to report the crime to the police is also yours, unless VLS determines that the circumstances pose an ongoing threat to a member or members of the VLS community. If you are unsure about what to do immediately after a sexual assault, these are some of your options:

1. Call a rape-crisis hotline.
   a. Safeline 1-800-639-7233
   b. WISE (Women’s Information Services) 603-448-5525
   c. Safeline and WISE trained counselors are available 24 hours a day. They can who talk with you about your options, and they can accompany you through any or all stages of the process including going to the hospital and reporting to the police.

2. Go to a friend’s house or any place where people can give you emotional support

3. Call the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity at (802) 831-1333.

4. Call Clara Martin Center 24-hour Emergency Service at (800) 639-6360.

B. Obtaining Medical Attention

It is important to seek medical attention, even if you do not have visible injuries.

1. Seeking medical attention immediately or shortly after an assault provides the most options in the prevention of pregnancy and sexually transmitted infections.

2. You do not need to make a report or talk to the police in order to seek medical attention.

3. Gifford Medical Center (728-4441) in Randolph and Dartmouth- Hitchcock (603-650-5000) in Lebanon are the only area hospitals that possess necessary medical tests for rape/sexual assault incidents.

4. Do not bathe, shower, douche, brush your teeth, change your clothes or clean up before you obtain medical attention.

5. You will need to bring a change of clothes with you, because your clothing will be collected as evidence.
6. You can get evidence collected anonymously and have it kept for at least six months so you can decide whether filing a report with police is right for you.

C. Obtaining Emergency Contraception
Emergency contraception (EC) can prevent pregnancy after unprotected vaginal intercourse. It is also called "morning-after" contraception, emergency birth control, or backup birth control. EC dramatically reduces the risk of pregnancy when started within 72 hours (3 days) after unprotected intercourse. It must be started prior to 120 hours (five days) in order to reduce the risk of pregnancy. The sooner it is started, the better. The hospital may provide this upon your visit. If it does not, or if you do not wish to go the hospital, EC is available over-the-counter at local pharmacies and drug stores.

- Pharmacies known to carry EC:
  - Rite Aid Pharmacy, Gifford Family Health Center, Route 107, Bethel. Closed Saturday and Sunday (802) 234-5289
  - Walgreens Drug Store, 3 Airport Rd., W. Lebanon, NH (Exit 20 off I89S.) Open 24 Hours a Day (603) 298-5796

D. Reporting the Rape or Assault
As a legal adult, the decision of whether or not to report the crime is yours, absent circumstances described above in A. Law enforcement may be reached at:
- State Police (Bethel office): (802) 234-9933
- South Royalton Police Department: (802) 763-7776 or 911.
If you want assistance in making this report, see the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity who will be happy to talk with you about it, be there when you call, or accompany you, if you so choose. VLS will assist students who would like to have support in contacting law enforcement.

E. Seeking Counseling
1. VLS provides up to three free short-term confidential counseling services to Vermont Law students. For evaluation, consultation and/or referral, contact our counselors, Hill Anderson, LICSW, at (802) 649-2317, or Eleanor Lowenthal, LMFT, at (802) 333-0340.
2. Alternatively, you may want to contact a community mental health center near you (see General Area Information).
3. Or you may prefer to use a specialized support line such as
   - Safeline 1-800-639-7233
   - WISE (Women’s Information Services) 603-448-5525
   - SafeSpace (for LGBTQQ survivors of violence) 1-866-869-7341
   - Clara Martin Center 24-hour Emergency Service (800) 639-6360

F. Get Assistance from the Law School
1. For initial counseling and referral to counseling and legal reporting sources, and/or if, in the aftermath of rape or sexual assault, you are having difficulty concentrating on your work at school or effectively dealing with various aspects of your life, see the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity. The Law School may make reasonable accommodations to assist you, including assistance with changes in your academic schedule and/or living arrangements, should such changes be required. Depending on your needs, you may be eligible for academic accommodations such as leave of absence, reduced course load, or rescheduling of exams.
2. If you feel close to another faculty or staff member at the Law School, talk to that person about what you are experiencing and what options may be available. They can assist you in completing a Sexual Assault Incident Report. You and/or that faculty or staff member (with your permission) can then consult with the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity.
ARTICLE IV. VERMONT LAW SCHOOL DISCIPLINARY ACTION

A. Sexual assault is a violation of the Vermont Law School Code of Conduct. The Code applies to conduct:

1. by students of VLS with regard to their actions in connection with the application and admissions process, educational activities, career services, employment, or other law school-related activities;
2. by students of VLS with regard to their actions in connection with law school related activities when those actions occur on VLS property or in the use of VLS facilities (including the computer network, telephone, and email systems);
3. that occurs off campus in connection with events sponsored by VLS or VLS approved organization, or in connection with official business undertaken for VLS or in other circumstances on campus or off campus, while classes are in session or during semester breaks; and
4. in any circumstances where the reputation or policies of VLS would be involved or in other circumstances where an action could have a significant impact on the educational or employment environment or the reputation or integrity of VLS (such as, by way of example but not limitation, where alleged conduct involves interactions between VLS employees, officers, trustees and/or students).

B. A person who believes she or he has been a victim of rape, or other sexual offenses, forcible or non-forcible, by another member of the Law School community, may, in addition to any other available legal remedy, bring Code of Conduct violation charges against that individual.

C. The following procedural rules apply to violations of this Policy:

1. Complaint. The Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity (the Associate Dean) will meet with the complainant, who will make a written or oral complaint describing the incident. The complaint should include the date of the alleged assault, the name of the person who allegedly committed the assault (hereinafter, the respondent), and should describe the circumstances of the alleged assault. The complainant should also identify any witnesses who may have knowledge of the circumstances. The Associate Dean will make an initial determination as to whether or not the complaint alleges conduct prohibited by this policy. The complainant may request that charges be withdrawn at any time and the Law School will attempt to honor the wishes of the complainant. However, to accommodate cases where compelling evidence suggests significant individual or community safety concerns, the decision whether to discontinue an investigation or dismiss charges rests within the sole discretion of the Law School. Safety for the student and the campus community as a whole is of primary concern.

2. Advisors. The Associate Dean may, at his or her discretion, appoint advisors for the complainant and respondent. The appointed advisors serve as advisors only, and do not give legal advice. There is no attorney/client privilege between the students and the advisors. The students may retain legal counsel at their own expense.

3. Investigation Overview. If the Associate Dean determines that the complaint does fall within this policy, he/she will appoint an investigator to investigate the facts and prepare a written report. The Investigator may be a Vermont Law School employee or official or may be an external investigator with appropriate experience or expertise. The complainant and respondent will be provided with notice of the identity of the appointed Investigator, and will be informed that any objections to the service of the appointed Investigator on grounds of conflict of interest or a lack of impartiality should be submitted in writing to the Vice Dean within 3 days of notice of the appointment. The Vice Dean will decide promptly whether the appointed Investigator will or will not continue to conduct the investigation. Any materials collected or notes prepared by the Investigator during the objection period will be turned over to any replacement Investigator. The replacement Investigator will decide whether to use such materials or not. Absent extenuating circumstances, this initial determination and appointment of an Investigator will occur within five business days of receipt of the complaint. The Associate Dean will advise the respondent that charges have been filed against him/her and are being investigated. Should a respondent who has been notified of an investigation fail to cooperate with the investigator, the investigation may proceed, a finding may be reached, and a sanction may be imposed based upon the information available.

4. Interim Remedial Measures. During the investigation, the Associate Dean may issue interim remedial measures, such as issuance of a no-contact order to restrict contact and communication between the complainant and the respondent. Other preventative measures may be taken where requested and reasonably available, such as room changes, class changes or, in particularly serious cases, interim removal of a student from campus.

5. Additional Violations. If, prior to or during the investigation, Vermont Law School becomes aware that additional violations have allegedly occurred or additional policies have allegedly been violated, additional charges may be added to and resolved through this investigation. In the event that additional charges are added to the investigation, the Associate Dean will notify the respondent of the additional charges promptly and in writing.

6. The Investigation. The investigation will be conducted in a thorough, impartial and expeditious manner. Absent extenuating circumstances, the investigation of a complaint under this policy will ordinarily be completed within 45 calendar days. If the complainant or respondent requests an extension of this general 45 day period, he or she should make a written request for an extension to the Investigator, who will make a decision on the request after having provided the other party notice of the request and an opportunity to respond.

   The complainant and respondent will be asked to identify all relevant witnesses they would like the Investigator to interview. Both students may provide, if they wish, a list of questions they would like the Investigator to ask of particular witnesses or of each other. The Investigator is not required to interview any particular witness, even if identified by one of the parties. Nor is the Investigator required to ask questions provided by either party. At the conclusion of the investigation, the Investigator will share the witness statements and relevant materials with both the complainant and the respondent. Both will have the opportunity to respond to this information in writing within five business days. The deadline for the receipt of such responses is also the deadline for receipt by the Investigator of character reference letters for each party. If new evidence is gathered at any stage, it will be shared with both the complainant and the respondent and each will have an opportunity to submit a written response within a time frame set by the Associate Dean. When the final responses, if any, have been received from the complainant and respondent, the Associate Dean will share each student’s response with the other student. The Investigator will submit a final report to the Associate Dean. The final report will include all investigation materials, the responses from the complainant and respondent, any character references, and the Investigator’s recommended finding of whether this Policy or the Policy Against Harassment, Sexual Harassment, Discrimination, and Retaliation has been violated, based on a preponderance of the evidence standard, i.e. whether it is more likely than not that the policy was violated, along with the Investigator’s rationale for this recommendation.

7. Sexual Misconduct Review Panel. Upon receipt of the Investigator’s report, the Associate Dean will convene a Sexual Misconduct Review Panel. This Panel will ordinarily consist of five members drawn from a pool. The pool includes five faculty members selected by the Vice Dean of Academic Affairs, five staff members selected by the Dean and President, and five students elected by the student body during the fall elections. The Associate Dean will choose five panel members from this pool to attend the hearing and make determinations. Each panel will have at least one member from each of the three groups listed and, if possible, at least one member of the opposite sex. All pool members will receive annual training by the Title IX coordinator or her alternate.

   The claimant and/or respondent may challenge the participation of any member of the review panel for conflict of interest or other good cause. Familiarity alone does not create a bias issue. Only where there is a determination that a panel member will not be able to provide an unbiased and impartial decision should an alternate be selected by the Associate Dean.
8. Hearing. The Panel will be provided with the Investigator’s complete report and supporting materials but is not bound by his/her recommended finding. Absent extenuating circumstances, the Sexual Misconduct Review Panel will hold a closed hearing on whether the Sexual Assault Policy or the Policy Against Harassment, Sexual Harassment, Discrimination, and Retaliation has been violated within fifteen business days after receipt of the Investigator’s complete report. The complainant and respondent shall be notified concurrently of the date, time, and location of the hearing. The complainant and the respondent will have an equal opportunity to present relevant witnesses and other evidence, to have support people or counsel present, to access information to be used at the hearing, and to present character witnesses. The hearing shall not be a formal adversarial one in the sense that there will be a prosecution versus a defense. The purpose of the hearing is to gather information to enable the Sexual Misconduct Review Panel to determine whether the Sexual Assault Policy and/or the Policy Against Harassment, Sexual Harassment, Discrimination, and Retaliation has been violated. To that end, the Sexual Misconduct Review Panel, as well as the complainant and respondent, shall have the right to call witnesses, question witnesses and examine documents offered as evidence. Neither the complainant nor the respondent will be permitted to question or cross-examine each other, either directly or through counsel, but may submit questions to the Panel. The Panel shall have full discretion to decide whether to ask the party the requested questions or not. Either the complainant or the respondent may request physical separation from the other at the hearing, including visual separation, such as through the use of a screen, video-conferencing or other such technology. Because this is not a civil or criminal trial, the rules of evidence may be more relaxed in the interest of gathering relevant information. It should be noted that extraneous information such as the complainant’s or the respondent’s prior sexual history with others is likely to be excluded, and not considered by the Panel in its deliberations on whether the charged misconduct occurred (a respondent’s involvement in other incidents may, however, be considered by the Panel in its determination of sanctions, as discussed below).

9. Finding and Sanction. The Panel will issue a finding regarding whether the Sexual Assault or Policy Against Harassment, Sexual Harassment, Discrimination, and Retaliation has been violated, based upon the preponderance of evidence standard. Absent extenuating circumstances, the Sexual Misconduct Review Panel will issue its findings, in writing, within 10 business days after the Hearing. A majority of the Panel members must find that a policy violation occurred for a finding of responsibility. The Associate Dean will notify the complainant and respondent concurrently and in writing of the finding to the extent permitted by law. If a finding is made that no policy has been violated, the respondent will have no record of the charge or its outcome in his/her permanent file. Complainants may appeal a finding of no responsibility, as set forth below. If the Panel determines that either Policy has been violated, the complainant may submit an Impact Statement to the Panel and the respondent may submit a Sanction Statement to the Panel, within three business days of the notification. The Panel will reconvene, consider the Impact Statement and Sanction Statement if any have been submitted, and determine a sanction. A violation of the Sexual Assault Policy will be subject to Class One sanctions. Class One sanctions include but are not limited to suspension, expulsion or withdrawal of an awarded degree. Prior conduct and judicial history may be taken into account in determining a sanction. Respondents should also be advised that additional non-disciplinary outcomes, such as (by way of example but not limitation) extending and modifying no-contact orders, may also be imposed regardless of the finding. The Associate Dean will notify the complainant and respondent concurrently and in writing of any sanction to the extent permitted by law. Absent extenuating circumstances, the Sexual Misconduct Review Panel will issue a decision regarding sanctions, if applicable, within 5 business days after receipt of an Impact Statement and/or Sanction Statement, if any. If neither Statement is submitted, the Panel will issue a decision on sanctions within 8 business days of issuing its finding.

10. Appeals. The complainant and respondent both have the right to appeal the decision of the Sexual Misconduct Panel to the President and Dean. The purpose of the appeal is to review the adjudication process. Appeals may be made on the basis of one or more of the following: discovery of significant new factual material not available to the Sexual Misconduct Review Panel that could have affected the original outcome (but omission of factual information by the appealing party that was or should reasonably have been available to the appealing party before the hearing is not grounds for appeal), or violation of procedure where the violation prevented fundamental fairness. The right of appeal is only available to a complainant or respondent who participated in the investigative process. An appeal must be made in writing within 5 business days of receipt of the finding in cases where no violation is found and within 5 business days of receipt of the sanction in cases where a policy violation has been found. The appeal must include the grounds for appeal and provide an outline of supporting evidence. The President and Dean will notify the Associate Dean and the other student of the appeal and will request his or her response to the appeal. The Associate Dean and the other student may provide a written response within five business days of the request. The President and Dean may deny the appeal or, if the appeal grounds have been met, may return the case to the Sexual Misconduct Review Panel for reconsideration, or convene a new Sexual Misconduct Review Panel. If the case is returned to the Sexual Misconduct Review Panel, the President and Dean shall identify which aspects of the case merit further review. Absent extenuating circumstances, the President and Dean will notify the complainant and respondent concurrently, in writing, of his/her determination within 15 business days, to the extent permitted by law, and will notify the Associate Dean, in writing, with instructions for any further action. All decisions by the President and Dean are final.

11. The Record. The Sexual Misconduct Review Panel will tape record the hearing in each case. The recording, the documents received, and the findings and action shall be retained in the President and Dean’s Office. This record may be referred to by the Panel for any purpose, but the confidentiality of the record will otherwise be maintained. At any time after three years, the President and Dean’s Office may destroy the record except for the final determination, unless there is a pending request for the record or the President and Dean determines that there is some need to continue to maintain the record confidentially. Additional information on sanctions, notations in student files and status if a student withdraws while disciplinary action is pending is set forth in Article V of the Code of Conduct.
ACCIDENTS, SAFETY HAZARDS AND EMERGENCIES
Accidents occurring on the grounds of Vermont Law School should be reported to the Vice President for Finance and Administration, and an Incident Report should be filed. Minor repairs, requests, and suspected safety hazards should also be reported to the Vice President for Finance and Administration in Debevoise Hall, or a member of the Safety Committee. Emergency information is also posted on the Safety Bulletin Board in Oakes Hall.

The VLS campus is private property. Please note that all campus facilities are primarily for the use of our faculty, staff and students. The Law School reserves the right to ask people who are not members of the VLS community to leave. Under the VLS Code of Conduct, students may be asked to present their student ID. Failure to present your ID may result in your being asked to leave. Other campus visitors may be asked to identify themselves and provide ID. If you see someone using our facilities whose actions cause concern, please notify Dean Jefferson at extension 1238, Diane Hayes at extension 1308 or Buildings & Grounds at extension 1285 or after hours at 802-356-4328.

ALCOHOL POLICY
I. Introduction
Vermont Law School’s Alcohol Policy is congruent with Vermont State Law, local regulations, and the Mission of Vermont Law School, and is promulgated to assure the appropriate distribution and consumption of alcoholic beverages on the campus. The administration and interpretation of the Alcohol Policy ultimately rests with the Dean or designee, who in this instance, are the Deans.

II. Alcohol and Substance Abuse
Any student who feels he or she may have a problem with alcohol or drugs is encouraged to contact the VLS Counselor or the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity for a discussion of options. The Vermont Lawyers Assistance Program (VTLAP) provides confidential assistance to law students, lawyers, judges and their families in coping with alcoholism and other addictions, depression, or other personal or professional crisis. VTLAP is exempt from reporting professional misconduct under Rule 8.3. Information between VTLAP volunteers, and a lawyer, judge or law student who seeks assistance, is strictly confidential and will not be disclosed except upon express authority of the affected person. For more information, please see their website www.lapvt.org.

The Student Bar Association and/or the Student Ambassadors maintain a SafeRide program on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights from 10pm to 3am. The SafeRide cell phone numbers are 802-299-1117 and 802-299-1116. SafeRide volunteers will pick students, staff, or faculty up from any location in South Royalton and take them to Bethel, Randolph, Royalton, South Royalton, and Tunbridge. If there is any doubt in your mind that you have had too much to drink, please call SafeRide at 802-299-1117 or 802-299-1116. No questions will be asked or judgments made, no records will be kept, and you will be taken home safely.

Students are responsible for informing themselves on the character and fitness requirements of the bar in the state or states they intend to practice. Vermont Law School is required to certify a student’s character and fitness for the bar. Students have a duty to promptly report to the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity any charges, arrests or convictions of a violation of any civil or criminal law, other than a parking violation or parking ticket.

Students who attend classes, meetings, or any academic or professional function on campus while intoxicated will be asked to leave by the professor or event sponsor. If the student resists, the professor or event organization shall call the Associate Dean for Student Affairs or Campus Security (at extension 1100 if after hours), who will ask the student to leave and/or call the police for assistance. If the student is disruptive or violent, the Associate Dean or Campus Security will take the appropriate steps, including calling law enforcement for assistance. If the student is disruptive or violent, the incident will be investigated as a violation of the Code of Conduct and sanctions may be imposed.
IV. Alcohol on Campus
   A. Basic Regulations
      (1) Consumption of alcoholic beverages on Vermont Law School property is a privilege accorded under specified conditions to individuals of legal age according to Vermont Law School.
      (2) Recognizing that not all individuals may choose to consume alcoholic beverages and recognizing the social emphasis of all events, any function providing an alcoholic beverage must also provide two non-alcoholic beverages.
      (3) The sponsoring individual or organization must furnish information concerning the program, facility arrangements, food service needs, and the type and amount of beverages to be served, as directed on the Student Organization Event Form and Alcohol Planning Document. Forms are available in the Dean’s Office or on the K drive under K:\Students\event planning.
      (4) All recognized organizations and sponsors of registered social events are prohibited from providing alcohol to minors. Consistent with, and related to this restriction, the serving of kegs, beerballs, and alcoholic punch drinks/wine may only be served by our Food Services Director, a licensed caterer.
      (5) Any event which includes alcohol as part of its program should focus as much as possible upon the social nature of the event in its promotional campaign and not over emphasize the sale or availability of alcohol beverages at social events.
      (6) The safe occupancy level of the approved space must be determined and steps taken to insure compliance with the fire safety code of VLS and the state of Vermont.
      (7) No alcohol may be carried into or consumed in campus buildings, including outdoor areas at recreational events, (See Section I(A)(1) above) with the exception of approved designated areas, without the submission and approval of the Alcohol Event Planning Document and Student Organization Event Form.
      (8) Scheduled events must remain within the approved designated area (see Section III(C) for further requirements).
      (9) A charge of no less than $100 will be billed to the organization/individual sponsoring an event if the facility used is not properly cleaned within eight hours after the function has ended.

V. Organized Private Parties
   A. Organized private parties are considered events that involve an approved number of invited guests and have alcohol being served by the sponsors within an approved area in a manner consistent with applicable laws.
   B. Alcohol may not be sold under any conditions at private parties.
   C. The events require the submission and approval of the Alcohol Planning Document six (6) weeks prior to the event.

VI. Campus-Wide, Licensed Events:
   A. The sponsoring organization/individual must complete and have approved the Student Organization Event Form and Alcohol Planning Event Document at least six (6) weeks prior to the event. These forms are available from the Deans Office. Completion of the form indicates an understanding of the Alcohol Policy, and a responsibility to fulfill the regulations therein.
   B. The sponsoring organization or individuals must assume financial responsibility for all associated cost (i.e., security, damages, etc.)
   C. The sponsoring organization or individuals must post easily visible signs that read “No alcohol beyond this point” to ensure that no alcohol may be carried into or consumed in campus buildings, including outdoor areas at recreational events, outside of the approved designated areas (see I(A)(7), (8) above).

VII. Responsibility and Liability
   For any party or other event, the persons who sign the required application or registration forms are responsible for the safe conduct of the event. Staff persons involved in clearance procedures are responsible for ensuring that the event is conducted in a safe and acceptable fashion and for monitoring the event for the general safety of the participants. Situations determined to be in non-compliance with regulations of the Alcohol Policy may be immediately suspended by appropriate VLS staff. Responsibility for any adverse consequences that may occur as the result of a party or other event may implicate any person or group involved with that event, in particular, those planning and monitoring its outcome. Any violation of this policy shall be reported to the appropriate Dean.
PROGRAM FOR THE ELIMINATION OF ALCOHOL AND SUBSTANCE ABUSE

The Federal Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989, requires that Vermont Law School implement a program for the elimination of drug and alcohol abuse. The federal law mandates that “...as a condition of receiving funds or any other form of financial assistance under any Federal program [including aid funds], an institution of higher education must certify that it has adopted and implemented a program to prevent the unlawful possession, use, or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol by students and employees” on the Law School property or at school-sponsored activities. At a minimum, the law specifically requires that our program include:

1. Annual distribution in writing to each employee and student of:
   - Standards of conduct that clearly prohibit, at a minimum, the unlawful possession, use of distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol by students and employees on its property or as part of any of its activities.
   - A description of the applicable legal sanctions under local, state or federal law for the unlawful possession or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol.
   - A description of the health risks associated with the use of illicit drugs and the abuse of alcohol.
   - A clear statement that the institution will impose disciplinary sanctions on students and employees (consistent with local, state and federal law), and a description of those sanctions, up to and including expulsion or termination of employment and referral for prosecution, for violations of the standards of conduct. A disciplinary sanction may include the completion of an appropriate rehabilitation program.

2. A biennial review by the institution of its program to:
   - Determine its effectiveness and implement changes, if needed.
   - Ensure that its disciplinary sanctions are consistently enforced.

SANCTIONS

In compliance with federal requirements, the unlawful possession, use, or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol by students or employees on Vermont Law School property or as a part of any Vermont Law School activity is a violation of not only the law but the Law School regulations. Possession, use, or distribution of certain non-prescription drugs, including marijuana, amphetamines, heroin, cocaine, and non-prescription synthetics procurement or distribution of alcohol if one is under 21 years of age; and provision of alcohol to anyone under 21 years of age are considered serious breaches of policy. Vermont Law School will respond to violations of its drug and alcohol abuse policy with action consistent with school disciplinary and personnel policies and local, state, or federal law. Sanctions may include: substance abuse counseling; referral to or mandatory participation in an appropriate drug assistance or rehabilitation program; disciplinary action including reprimand, probation, expulsion or termination of employment; and/or possible referral for prosecution. State penalties for illicit manufacture, use, and distribution of controlled substances are outlined in Vermont Statutes (Title 18, Chapter 84) Possession and Control of Regulated Drugs [http://www.leg.state.vt.us/statutes/fullchapter.cfm?Title'18&Chapter'084]. A copy of the complete federal regulations is available from the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity, who can respond to inquiries and clarify VLS policy.

DRUG USE AND INELIGIBILITY FOR FEDERAL FINANCIAL AID

Students denied eligibility for an indefinite period can regain it after successfully completing a rehabilitation program (as described by law), passing two unannounced drug tests from such a program, or if a conviction is reversed, set aside, or removed from the student’s record so that fewer than two convictions for sale or three convictions for possession remain on the record. In such cases, the nature and dates of the remaining convictions will determine when the student regains eligibility.

The Law School is committed to educating students and employees about the implications of substance abuse; to promoting institutional programs with those objectives; and to supporting the efforts of individuals to overcome substance abuse problems. To this end, students and employees should familiarize themselves with the possible behavioral and medical consequences of substance abuse described below. The school psychologist can provide confidential counseling and referrals to appropriate drug and alcohol counseling, treatment, and rehabilitation programs accessible in the vicinity of the Law School.

The Law School’s current policy is intended to meet minimum legal requirements and to allow for modifications and refinement as necessary. It is not meant to restrain dissent of the free and open discussion of issues surrounding drug and alcohol use and abuse or of related Federal laws and policies. As an educational institution, we encourage inquiry and dialogue. A truly workable approach to eliminating drug and alcohol abuse is based on fairness and information, not merely punishment.

SPECIFIC DRUGS AND THEIR EFFECTS:
SOURCE: Network of Colleges & Universities Committed to the Elimination of Drug and Alcohol Abuse

TOBACCO
The smoking of tobacco products is the chief avoidable cause of death in our society. Smokers are more likely than nonsmokers to contract heart disease – some 170,000 die each year from smoking-related coronary heart disease. Lung, larynx, esophageal, bladder, pancreatic, and kidney cancers also strike smokers at increased rates. Some 30 percent of cancer deaths (130,000 per year) are linked to smoking. Chronic obstructive lung diseases such as emphysema and chronic bronchitis are 10 times more likely to occur among smokers than among nonsmokers.

Smoking during pregnancy also poses serious risk. Spontaneous abortion, preterm birth, low birth weights, and fetal and infant deaths are all more likely to occur when the pregnant woman or mother is a smoker. Cigarette smoke contains some 4,000 chemicals, several of which are known carcinogens. Other toxins and irritants found in smoke can produce eye, nose, and throat irritations. Carbon monoxide, another component of cigarette smoke, combines with hemoglobin in the blood stream to form carboxyhemoglobin, a substance that interferes with the body’s ability to obtain and use oxygen.

Perhaps the most dangerous substance in tobacco smoke is nicotine. Although it is implicated in the onset of heart attacks and cancer, its most dangerous role is reinforcing and strengthening the desire to smoke. Because nicotine is highly addictive, addicts find it very difficult to stop smoking, of 1,000 typical smokers, fewer than 20 percent succeed in stopping on the first try. Although the harmful effects of smoking cannot be questioned, people who quit can make significant strides in repairing damage done by smoking. For pack-a-day smokers, the increased risk of heart attack dissipates after 10 years. The likelihood of contracting lung cancer as a result of smoking can also be greatly reduced by quitting.

ALCOHOL
Alcohol consumption causes a number of marked changes in behavior. Even low doses significantly impair the judgment and coordination required to drive a car safely, increasing the likelihood that the driver will be involved in an accident. Low to moderate doses of alcohol also increases the incidence of a variety of aggressive acts, including spouse and child abuse. Moderate to high doses of alcohol cause marked impairments in higher mental functions, severely altering a person’s ability to learn and remember information. Very high doses cause respiratory depression and death. If combined with other depressants of the central nervous system, much lower doses of alcohol will produce the effects just described. Repeated use of alcohol can lead to dependence. Sudden cessation of alcohol intake is likely to produce withdrawal symptoms, including severe anxiety, tremors, hallucinations, and convulsions. Alcohol withdrawal can be life threatening. Long-term consumption of large quantities of alcohol, particularly when combined with poor nutrition, can also lead to permanent damage to vital organs such as the brain and the liver. Mothers who drink alcohol during pregnancy may give birth to infants with fetal alcohol syndrome. These infants have irreversible physical abnormalities and mental retardation. In addition, research indicates that children of alcoholic parents are at greater risk than other youngsters of becoming alcoholics.

CANNABIS
All forms of cannabis have negative physical and mental effects. Several regularly observed physical effects of cannabis are a substantial increase in the heart rate, bloodshot eyes, a dry mouth and throat, and increased appetite. Use of cannabis may impair or reduce short-term memory and comprehension, alter sense of time, and reduce ability to perform tasks requiring concentration and coordination, such as driving a car. Research also shows that students do not retain knowledge when they are “high”. Motivation and cognition may be altered making the acquisition of new information difficult. Marijuana can also produce paranoia and psychosis. Because users often inhale the unfiltered smoke deeply and then hold it in their lungs as long as possible, marijuana is damaging to the lungs and pulmonary system. Marijuana smoke contains more cancer-causing agents than tobacco. Long-term users of cannabis may develop psychological dependence and require more of the drug to get the same effect. The drug can become the center of their lives.

INHALANTS
The immediate negative effects of inhalants include nausea, sneezing, coughing, nosebleeds, fatigue, lack of coordination, and loss of appetite. Solvents and aerosol sprays also decrease the heart and respiratory rates and impair judgment. Amyl and butyl nitrite cause rapid pulse, headaches, and involuntary passing of urine and feces. Long-term use may result in hepatitis or brain damage. Deeply inhaling the vapors, or using large amounts over a short time, may result in disorientation, violent behavior, unconsciousness, or death. High concentrations of inhalants can cause suffocation by displacing the oxygen in the lungs or by depressing the central nervous system to the point that breathing stops. Long-term use can cause weight loss, fatigue, electrolyte imbalance, and muscle fatigue. Repeated sniffing of concentrated vapor over time can permanently damage the nervous system.

COCAINE
Cocaine stimulates the central nervous system. Its immediate effects include dilated pupils and elevated blood pressure, heart rate, respiratory rate, and body temperature. Occasional use can cause a stuffy or runny nose, whole chronic use can lacerate the mucous membrane of the nose. Injecting cocaine with contaminated equipment can cause AIDS, hepatitis, and other diseases. Preparation of freebase, which involves the use of volatile solvents, can result in death or injury from fire or explosion. Cocaine can produce psychological and physical dependency, a feeling that the user cannot function without the drug. In addition, tolerance develops rapidly. Crack or freebase rock is extremely addictive, and its effects are felt within 0 seconds. The physical effects include dilated pupils, increased pulse rate, elevated blood pressure, insomnias, loss of appetite, tactile hallucinations, paranoia, and seizures. The use of cocaine can cause death by cardiac arrest or respiratory failure.

OTHER STIMULANTS
Stimulants can cause increased heart and respiratory rates, elevated blood pressure, dilated pupils, and decreased appetite. In addition, users may experience sweating, headache, blurred vision, dizziness, sleeplessness, and anxiety. Extremely high doses can cause a rapid or irregular heartburn, tremors, loss of coordination, and even physical collapse. An amphetamine injection creates a sudden increase in blood pressure that can result in stroke, very high fever, or heart failure. In addition to physical effects, users report feeling restless, anxious, and moody. Higher doses intensify the effects. Persons who use large amounts of amphetamines over a long period of time can develop an amphetamine psychosis that includes hallucinations, delusions, and paranoia. These symptoms usually disappear when drug use ceases.

DEPRESSANTS
The effects of depressants are in many ways similar to the effects of alcohol. Small amounts can produce calmness and relaxed muscles, but somewhat larger doses can cause slurred speech, staggering gait, and altered perception. Very large doses can cause respiratory depression, coma, and death. The combination of depressants and alcohol can multiply the effects of the drugs, thereby multiplying the risks. The use of depressants can cause both physical and psychological dependence. Regular use over time may result in a tolerance to the drug, leading the user to increase the quantity consumed. When regular users suddenly stop taking large doses, they may develop withdrawal symptoms ranging from restlessness, insomnia, and anxiety to convulsions and death. Babies born to mothers who abuse depressants during pregnancy may be physically dependent on the drugs and show withdrawal symptoms shortly after they are born. Birth defects and behavioral problems also may result.

HALLUCINOGENS
Phencyclidine (PCP) interrupts the functions of the neocortex, the section of the brain that controls the intellect and keeps instinct in check. Because the drug blocks pain receptors, violent PCP episodes may result in self-inflicted injuries.

The effects of PCP vary, but users frequently report a sense of distance and estrangement. Time and body movements are slowed down. Muscular coordination worsens and senses are dulled. Speech is blocked and incoherent. Chronic users of PCP report persistent memory problems and speech difficulties. Some of these effects may last 6 months to a year following prolonged daily use. Mood disorders—depression, anxiety, and violent behavior—occur. In later stages of chronic use, users often exhibit paranoid and violent behavior and experience hallucinations. Large doses may produce convulsions and coma, as well as heart and lung failure. Lysergic acid (LSD), mescaline, and psilocybin cause illusions and hallucinations. The physical effects may include dilated pupils, elevated body temperature, increased heart rate and blood pressure, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, and tremors. Sensations and feelings may change rapidly. It is common to have a bad psychological reaction to LSD, mescaline, and psilocybin. The user may experience panic, confusion, suspicion, anxiety, and loss of control. Delayed effects, or flashbacks, can occur even after use has ceased.

NARCOTICS
Narcotics initially produce a feeling of euphoria that often is followed by drowsiness, nausea, and vomiting. Users also may experience constricted pupils, watery eyes, and itching. An overdose may produce slow and shallow breathing, clammy skin, convulsion, coma, and possible death. Tolerance to narcotics develops rapidly and dependence is likely. The use of contaminated syringes may result in disease such as AIDS, endocarditis, and hepatitis. Addiction in pregnant women can lead to premature, stillborn, or addicted infants who experience severe withdrawal symptoms.

DESIGNER DRUGS
Illegal drugs are defined in terms of their chemical formulas. To circumvent these legal restrictions, underground chemists modify the molecular structure of certain illegal drugs to produce analogs known as designer drugs. These drugs can be several hundred times stronger than the drugs they are designed to imitate. Many of the so-called designer drugs are related to amphetamines and have mild stimulant properties but are mostly euphoriants. They can produce severe neurochemical damage to the brain. The narcotic analogs can cause symptoms such as those seen in Parkinson’s disease: uncontrollable tremors, drooling, impaired speech, paralysis, and irreversible brain damage. Analogs of amphetamines and methamphetamines cause nausea, blurred vision, chills or sweating, and faintness. Psychological effects include anxiety, depression, and paranoia. As little as one dose can cause brain damage. The analogs of phencyclidine cause illusions, hallucinations, and impaired perception.

ANABOLIC STEROIDS
Anabolic steroids are a group of powerful compounds closely related to the male sex hormone testosterone. Developed in 1930s, steroids are seldom prescribed by physicians today. Current legitimate medical uses are limited to certain kinds of anemia, severe burns, and some types of breast cancer. Taken in combination with a program of muscle-building exercise and diet, steroids may contribute to increase in body weight and muscular strength. Because of these properties, athletes in a variety of sports have used steroids since the 1950s, hoping to enhance performance. Today, they are being joined by increasing numbers of young people seeking to accelerate their physical development. Steroid users subject themselves to more than 70 side effects ranging in severity from liver cancer to acne and including psychological as well as physical reactions. The liver and the cardiovascular and reproductive systems are most seriously affected by steroid use. In males, use can cause withered testicles, sterility, and impotence. In females, irreversible masculine traits can develop along with breast reduction and sterility. Psychological effects in both sexes include very aggressive behavior—“roid and rage”—and depression. While some side effects appear quickly, others, such as heart attacks and strokes, may not show up for years. Signs of steroid use include weight and muscle gains (if steroids are being used in conjunction with a weight training program); behavioral changes, particularly increased aggressiveness and combative ness; jaundice; purple or red spots on the body; swelling of feet or lower legs; trembling; unexplained darkening of the skin; and persistent unpleasant breath odor. Steroids are produced in tablet or capsule form for oral ingestion, or as a liquid for intramuscular injection.

JD Students: are billed for tuition in the fall and spring semesters. JD credits taken during the Summer Session are billed on a per credit basis and do not count towards residency requirements.

Joint Degree Students (MELP Only Credits): are billed on a per credit basis at the prevailing per credit rate for 21 credits.

In addition to the 21 MELP-ONLY credits, Joint Degree students are permitted to “share” 9 credits from their JD program. The sharing needs to happen in the spring and/or fall semester as the cost of these shared credits is assumed to be paid under the JD tuition price in the fall and spring semesters. Joint Degree students must have a thorough understanding of their degree requirements. It is essential that they have read the academic regulations and program guidelines relating to this degree and that they regularly apprise their advisor and the Registrar of any changes in their program plan.

Master’s Program (Excluding LLM-ALS): Students: are billed on a per credit basis at the prevailing per credit rate for 30 credits.

Occasionally, an MELP or LLM student will receive permission to complete his or her program requirements within two semesters.

The student must notify and obtain permission from the Environmental Law Center, Registrar, and Business Office (in writing) of this intention (acceleration). The total cost of the program would then be charged in two equal installments (fall and spring) instead of charged in three semesters.

LLM (American Legal Studies) students: are billed on a per credit basis at the prevailing per credit rate for 29 credits.

All residential students taking five (5) or more credits are required to be covered by a health insurance policy, whether it be a Vermont Law School policy through Blue Cross Blue Shield of Vermont, or a comparable outside policy. Failure to participate in a health insurance plan will result in a $1,000 noncompliance penalty fee.

Billing

Bills will either be printed and put in student mailboxes or distributed via your Vermont Law School email account and available through CampusWeb throughout the academic term. Bills will only be generated if there is a balance due. If a bill has not been generated, students should view their account on Campus Web. A student becomes liable for his/her tuition upon registration. Students at Vermont Law School are expected to take responsibility for being aware of payment deadlines and policies. Failure to receive a statement of account is not sufficient cause for extending payment due dates.

Students may request a third-party billing by completing and submitting a Third Party Billing Form online or you may request a form directly from the Business Office.

Please note that submitting a third-party billing request does not give Vermont Law School permission to talk to the third party. If you would like a third party (spouse, partner, parent, guardian, employer) to be able to discuss your account/financial aid with us, an Information Release form (online or you may request a form directly from the Business Office) will need to be completed and submitted to the Business Office.

TUITION PAYMENT POLICY

All tuition and fees are due to Vermont Law School seven (7) days prior to the first day of classes for Residential students.

All tuition and fees are due to Vermont Law School two (2) business days prior to the start of classes for Distance Learning students.

The Business Office will work with the Financial Aid Office to verify the amount of loan money the student will be receiving. Upon verification of the loan proceeds, tuition that will be covered by the funds will be deferred until receipt of the funds. If a student wishes to have charges on their account other than tuition (health insurance, library fine, software charge, etc.) paid from Federal Loans, he/she will need to complete and submit a Nonallowable Charge Form (www.vermontlaw.edu/students/x8257.xml) or you may request a form directly from the Business Office). Payment, for any portion not covered by loan disbursement is due seven (7) days prior to the first day of classes for Residential students. Payment, for any portion not covered by loan disbursement is due seven (7) days prior to the first day of classes for Distance Learning students.

Students may pay by check, cash, money order, cashier’s check, credit card (online only; MasterCard, Discover or American Express only), or wire transfers (please contact the Business Office for instructions). Checks should be mailed to: Vermont Law School, Attn: Business Office; PO Box 96, South Royalton, VT 05068, or presented to the cashier on the 2nd Floor of Abbott House. Students’ account numbers and/or names must appear on all checks and money orders to ensure they are credited to the appropriate accounts.

Unpaid Tuition Drop Policy

Any residential student, who, by the last day of the add/drop period, still has a full tuition balance on their account will be notified using their Vermont Law School email account regarding outstanding tuition and fee delinquencies and will be given seven (7) business days from the last day of add/drop period to make payment or make payment arrangements. After the seven (7) business days, if no payment or payment arrangements have been made, the student will be subject to academic dismissal from Vermont Law School. Appeals to this decision may be made in writing to the Comptroller in the Business Office.

Interest charges in the amount of 12% per annum, will be charged to all accounts with an outstanding balance beginning 30 days after the due date. This applies to all residential students for whom financial aid has not fully covered the initial tuition charge, or charges that are incurred during the semester (IT software/repair, library fines, etc.). A hold will also be placed on all outstanding accounts for grades, transcripts, and diplomas (if applicable).
Payment Plans
Vermont Law School offers payment plans, which allow a student to spread his/her tuition payments over a 4-month period each semester. Payment plans are currently offered to on-campus/residential students only.

Payment plans are for the fall and spring semesters only. In the fall semester; payments begin August 10th and end November 10th. In the spring semester, payments begin January 10th and end April 10th. Payments are due the 10th of each month, and late payments are subject to a $25 late charge on the 15th of each month. Payment plans that are in arrears for one month will be automatically terminated and the balance due on the account will become due immediately. Students who have had their payment plan agreements terminated will not be permitted to participate in the program in the future.

In order to participate in a payment plan, students must contact the Accounts Receivable Clerk either in person or via email, prior to the first day of classes obtain a payment plan application. A $75 nonrefundable processing fee is required with each application per academic year. Payment plans may be for one or both semesters in an academic year. Applications must be resubmitted, with the nonrefundable processing fee, for each academic year.

Refunds
Any student with a credit balance of $5.00 or more on their account have the credit returned to them in the form of a refund disbursement check during the normal refund schedule. Any student with a credit balance of less than $5.00 on their account will have the credit returned to them in the form of a refund check at the end of the academic year. Vermont Law School Business Office issues checks every day during the first two weeks of a semester. After the first two weeks, checks are issued on Mondays and Wednesdays. After the first two weeks of the semester, when a check is issued a email notification will be sent to the student’s Vermont Law School email address. If the student has not received notification of a refund check, the student should view their account on Campus Web. All charges must be paid in full before refunds can be issued. If a student has a miscellaneous charge (health insurance, library fine, software charge, etc.) on their account and have signed a Non-allowable Charge Form, indicating “NO”, a refund will not be issued until the charge is paid, or a new form is submitted, indicating “YES.”.

Valid photo identification is required when picking up a refund check. Any refund check reported as lost and requested to be reissued will be subject to a $20 stop-payment charge on the student’s account. This charge will be deducted from original refund check amount.

Retained Payment
If payments (checks, online) are returned by a student’s bank, the payments are considered not made. If the student’s payments are returned for any reason (e.g., insufficient funds, stop-payment order, closed account, etc.) Vermont Law School will charge a $25 returned payment fee to their account. Notification of the returned item will be emailed to the student via their Vermont Law School email address and a letter will be placed in their Chase Center student mailbox.

Personal checks may not be used for repayment of a returned check or fee; only cash, money orders, cashier’s checks are accepted.

Vermont Law School automatically submits all paper/physical checks twice for payment if the check was returned for any reason.

Veterans Benefits
Students who qualify for Veterans Administration (VA) Educational Assistance Programs may use their benefits at Vermont Law School. For further information about VA Programs that VLS participates in, please contact the Financial Aid Department: finaid@vermontlaw.edu.

Withdrawals: Balances Due and Refunds
If you are considering withdrawing or taking a leave of absence, we encourage you to consult with your academic advisor, the Registrar’s Office, the Business Office, and the Financial Aid Office. A student may receive a refund for the semester in which he/she withdraws depending on the date of withdrawal, minus the non-refundable deposit and any non-refundable fees. A student withdrawing (from a course or program) or taking a leave of absence from the school is required to complete a Request to Withdraw/Leave of Absence form and obtain the Registrar’s signature.

Your balance due or refund will be based on:

1. The date you submit the applicable form (Request to Withdrawal/Leave of Absence) – if you are a Residential student
2. The date you last accessed the LMS (Learning Management System) - if you are a Distance Learning student
3. The date you submit written notification of withdrawal (date of request on Request to Withdraw form or date of email to Registrar) if you are participating in the Residential Summer Session.
4. Any applicable Title IV Regulations (Federal Financial Aid) and scholarship pro-ration.

Note: Distance Learning students who are attending Residential Program classes will be subject to the Residential program withdrawal policy.

Note: Residential students who are attending Distance Learning Program classes will be subject to the Distance Learning program withdrawal policy.

RESIDENTIAL PROGRAM
The semester tuition charges will be adjusted according to the following schedule for students taking Residential classes. A student withdrawing (from a course or program) or taking a leave of absence from the school is required to complete an Request to Withdraw/Leave of Absence form and obtain the Registrar’s signature. No credit adjustments will be made for any nonrefundable fees or deposits.

*Note: The calendar week for cancellation of tuition ends on FRIDAY. For example, if the add/drop period ends on a Wednesday, the withdrawal period for the purpose of tuition credit calculation, will be the end of the business day on Friday of that same week, this would constitute week 1 of the policy. If a student withdraws on the Monday AFTER the end of add/drop, the withdrawal calculation would be for week 2.

The date of withdrawal for purpose of calculating the tuition credit is the date of request on the submitted form.

Appeals to the above policy or calculation for special circumstances may be made in writing to Vermont Law School’s Comptroller, Jim Ouellette, jouellette@vermontlaw.edu.

Transcript requests will not be released for any student who has an outstanding balance with Vermont Law School until the balance and any applicable interest is paid in full.

SUMMER TERM
Students may add or drop courses before the second class meeting. VLS students need to do this through the Campus Web Portal. Students visiting VLS for summer courses must email the Registrar’s Office; Registrar@vermontlaw.edu or go to the Registrar’s office before attending the second class to report the “drop.” Tuition charges will be adjusted with no financial penalties during the add/drop period.
Withdrawal from a class may be done on-line via the Campus Web Portal. Please be advised that there is no date recorded when withdrawing online, and as such there will be no tuition credit adjustment made.

*If you wish to receive a tuition credit (if applicable) as a result of your withdrawal, written notice (Request to Withdraw form or email Registrar@vermontlaw.edu) is required. If no written notification is received, no adjustments will be made to the student account.

Students who submit written notification of withdrawal (Request to Withdraw form or email Registrar@vermontlaw.edu) after the second class meeting are subject to the tuition credit schedule. The portion of tuition credit will be calculated on a daily pro-rata basis beginning with the first day of classes until the date of written notification of withdrawal.

There is no tuition credit after 60% of the session has been completed (see schedule below).

Title IV Refunds

Should any payments received for a student be made in full or part by any Federal Financial Aid, the Financial Aid Office is required by federal regulations to calculate a Return to Title IV Funds (R2T4) amount for any student who withdraws. A withdrawal includes students who are dismissed, take a leave of absence, or who discontinue enrollment in classes on or after the first day of class. A Return to Title IV Funds (R2T4) is the amount of unearned aid you received at the beginning of the term that must be returned to the federal aid program. Vermont Law School will return any unearned aid to the applicable lender on the student’s behalf. The student will then be required to repay the unearned aid back to Vermont Law School to the extent there is a balance on the student account. Any aid received in excess of the earned amount is considered unearned. The earned portion of the aid is calculated on a daily basis using calendar days of the semester in which the student withdrew. Vermont Law School scholarships will be adjusted based on the same calculations as Federal Financial Aid.

DISTANCE LEARNING PROGRAM

Tuition charges will be adjusted according to the following schedule for students taking Distance Learning classes. A student withdrawing (from a course or program) or taking a leave of absence from the school must complete a Request to Withdraw/Leave of Absence form and obtain the Registrar’s signature. No credit adjustments will be made for any non-refundable fees or deposits.

Note: Within one semester, there are two Distance Learning Terms and this policy is based on terms for Distance Learning classes.

If a student withdraws on the Monday AFTER the end of add/drop, the withdrawal calculation would be for week two.

Title IV Refunds
Title IV Refund Regulations and scholarship prorations for the Distance Learning Program are the same as the Regulations for the Residential Program. Please see Title IV Refunds under Residential Program (previous page).

Dismissals and Suspensions
A student who is either dismissed or suspended for any reason during the academic semester will receive a tuition credit based on the applicable tuition credit percentage in effect at the time of dismissal/suspension (within first four weeks).

Payment Plans
Students who are enrolled in the payment plan option and withdraw during the refund period (first four weeks), should note that their refund will be calculated on the full amount charged, and not the amount remitted via the payment plan.

Return of Title IV Funds
In addition to Vermont Law School’s tuition credit policy, the Financial Aid Office is obliged to return to the federal government that portion of federal aid that is unearned. The Financial Aid Office will calculate unearned aid based on a daily pro-rata calculation. All Vermont Law School scholarship will follow the same daily prorata calculation as unearned aid.

It is important to understand that after 60% of the semester has been completed, there will be no adjustment to the financial aid received. The daily prorata calculation follows the guidelines set in the Federal Return to Title IV funds regulations.

An example of this calculation is available in the Financial Aid Office. Students who withdraw prior to the 60% point in the semester, and who received Federal loans, will owe a prorated repayment to these loans. Vermont Law School will calculate and return money owed to the Federal loan program as part of the refund/repayment process. Repayments due the Federal loan program are first allocated to the Federal Stafford unsubsidized loan, then the Stafford subsidized loan, then the Perkins loan, and then the Graduate Plus loan. Any unused portion of Vermont Law School scholarships and grants will be subject to the semester proration calculation. After payments to Vermont Law School scholarships and grants have been satisfied, remaining funds (if any) will be used to repay outside scholarship sources and finally to reimburse personal payments (unless otherwise dictated by prior arrangements with an outside funding program). If the student is due a refund, any non-refundable deposits are subtracted from the refund.

You should be aware that if you withdraw early in the semester, you could potentially owe money to Vermont Law School.

Delinquent Accounts
If a student withdraws, takes a leave of absence, or is dismissed from Vermont Law School and still owes a balance and no payments or payment arrangements are made within 120 days, the account will be sent to our current collection agency: Williams & Fudge, Inc. Statements of account, including interest on the account will be sent to the student on a monthly basis. A certified letter of warning will also be sent for accounts at risk for being sent to collections.

CAMPUS BULLETIN BOARD POLICY

The posting policy is designed to promote activities on and off the Vermont Law School campus. Violations of the posting policy could lead to a Code of Conduct violation. The VLS Student Bar Association is in support of the posting policy and will assist in the enforcement of the policy in the common areas of Chase and Oakes Hall. All final decisions on violations will be referred to the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity for immediate resolution. If you have any questions or suggestions regarding the posting policy, please feel free to contact the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity.

Posting Policy:

In Chase Center Breezeway and Oakes Hall all bulletin boards that are labeled will be the responsibility of the group or individual assigned the bulletin board to maintain and update on a regular basis. Posters dated more than 30 school days old should be removed by the group or individual. It is strongly suggested that posters in labeled and public areas be removed upon completion of the program or event. VLS Buildings & Grounds staff will continue to remove any posters that are on walls or doors in both buildings without prior approval from the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity. Materials placed on bulletin boards designated to a student group are the property of that student group. Unauthorized removal or alteration of materials is prohibited. Failure to abide by this policy could result in the removal of assigned bulletin board privileges by the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity and could result in a VLS Code of Conduct violation.

All posters and posting of posters should meet the following guidelines:

- Recyclable paper should be used when possible.
- All posters should be dated and in appropriate posting sections in the common section of both buildings.
- Posting over other posters or signs is prohibited.
- Posters must be placed on bulletin boards with tacks not staples.
- As a general guideline, posters should be no larger than 400 square inches (20” x 20”).
- Posters should not hinder the use or restrict access to hallways, doorways, stairs, corridors, or fire equipment. Posters may not be attached to light fixtures or exit signs.
- Student organizations and nonstudent organizations requesting assigned bulletin board space in Chase Breezeway or Oakes Hall should contact the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity in Debevoise Hall.

The official bulletin board is located in Oakes Hall and is used for official documents including, but not limited to, advanced assignments, exam schedules, and policy changes.

CELL PHONE AND ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION DEVICES

The use of cell phones, PDAs, and other electronic communication devices during in-class examinations is strictly forbidden. Please follow exam instructions and faculty directions carefully: your professor may request that you keep these devices out of the examination room. In the absence of specific instructions from your professor, turn the devices off and store them away until you turn in your exam.

If you are concerned about a possible emergency call during an exam, direct the caller to contact the Registrar’s Office phone number (831-1265). Cell phone use in the classroom is not permitted: cell phones must be turned off in any room where classes or lectures are being held.

Cell phones must be turned off or set to vibrate-only in computer labs, Chase Center, and designated “quiet study areas.” Cell phone use in these areas is not permitted: please step out to make or take a call.
Library cell phone policy: Cell phones must be turned off or set to vibrate-only. Cell phone use is not permitted except in:

- Unoccupied study rooms
- Phone booth
- Connector to Chase

Please use a low voice when using a cell phone in these acceptable areas. The library reserves the right to ask patrons to leave if they are using cell phones in restricted areas or disturbing others in any area of the library.

CLASS CANCELLATIONS
CANCELED classes are usually listed on the VLS website and the Technology website. Notice may also be sent via email.

SCHOOL CANCELLATIONS / DELAYED OPENINGS
Vermont Law School rarely closes. If weather conditions are very poor, we are more likely to delay classes than to close the school entirely. A delayed opening means that the school opens at 9:45 AM in time for second period (9:55 AM) classes. In all cases, each person should use their own best judgment about traveling in bad weather conditions. Information about a delay or closing will be transmitted via:

- VLS Web page - www.vermontlaw.edu
- Sovernet’s ‘SNOW DAYS ON THE WEB’ http://corp.sover.net/school closings
- WPTZ-TV (Channel 5)
- VLS email system
- VLS telephone switchboard 802-831-1000

If school is closed or there is a delayed opening, this information will be available on the VLS switchboard, i.e., the voice mail public greeting (802-831-1000). If you hear the normal greeting, school is open.

The decision to cancel or delay school is usually made by 6:30 AM so that the information can be disbursed as early as possible. You may want to check more than one source of information in the event that there is a lag in the posting of the information.

Please note that email and voice mail messages for cancellation or delay will always contain the day and date. For example, “It is Tuesday, February 5th, and Vermont Law School has a delayed opening today.”

The weather in Vermont varies considerably from location to location; it may not be possible for us to know what the conditions are like in your particular area. If you commute to school, please use good judgment in deciding whether the conditions in your area are safe for travel. Students are responsible for checking announcements to determine whether school will be canceled or have a delayed opening.

USE OF LAPTOP COMPUTERS FOR EXAM TAKING – SOFT TEST USE
Each professor has the right to determine whether to ban, permit, or require the use of laptops for in-class examinations. All students must abide by the professor’s exam policy, unless an exception is necessary as accommodation of a documented disability. Whenever the use of laptops is permitted, students are encouraged to exercise this option and take their in-class examinations on their own laptop computers.
Laptop exam takers must use SofTest for their in-class exams. SofTest is simple word processing software that blocks access to any stored files or the internet during the examination. It also prevents decipherable examination information from being stored on the computer. Any tampering with SofTest and the exam upload process may be considered a violation of the Honor Code or the Code of Conduct.

When the use of laptops and SofTest is mandatory for an in class exam, students who do not own a laptop should be prepared to secure one for exam taking purposes as Vermont Law School will not provide it.

Students using computers for take-home examinations are generally not required to use SofTest unless they receive specific instructions to do so.

EQUIPMENT REQUIRED FOR THE USE OF SOFTTEST AT VERMONT LAW SCHOOL

SofTest may be used on a PC running English 32-bit Versions of Windows XP, 32-bit and 64-bit Versions of Windows Vista, Windows 7, and Windows 8. SofTest also operates on Macs, MAC OS X 10.6 (Snow Leopard), 10.7 (Lion), or 10.8 (Mountain Lion); Server version of Mac OS X is not supported. You must have administrative rights to the computer you are using to register and download ExamSoft software. For optimal success, we recommend that you have at least a 2 GHz Pentium III CPU (or Industry Equivalent), at least 2 GB of RAM, and 1GB or higher of free disk space. Screen Resolution must be 1024x768 or higher. SofTest cannot be used on virtual operating systems such as Microsoft's Virtual Machine, Parallels or VMware, VMware Fusion or any other virtual environments.

Laptops must be able to connect to the internet (preferably via wireless), we recommend utilizing IE 7.0 or later, as all Exams require a download and upload process. Please check the requirements well before your exam for updated information. The Vermont Law School Technology Department and Registrar’s Office do not set the minimum standards for SofTest. Anyone who has equipment meeting the general Vermont Law School standard will have equipment meeting the SofTest standard.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SOFTTEST FOR IN-CLASS EXAMINATIONS

Use of SofTest software is free to all students that have completed the registration process. Specific information about using this software at Vermont Law School can be found on our own ExamSoft home page, www.ExamSoft.com/Vermontlaw.

Students must download and register the SofTest software ONCE, EVERY ACADEMIC YEAR even if they have registered and used ExamSoft software in the past. Questions or problems registering SofTest or downloading the software should be directed to the ExamSoft technical support at: 866-429-8889 (a toll free number) or support@examsoft.com. Neither Vermont Law School’s Technology department nor the Registrar’s Office supports ExamSoft technical issues. Students must register and download SofTest by the date set by the Academic Dean’s Office each semester. These dates are sent by email and listed on the home page of www.ExamSoft.com/Vermontlaw.

All students are emailed their username and passwords via ExamSoft each semester, and sent reminders to register throughout the academic year Using this set of username/password students will log into the www.ExamSoft.com/Vermontlaw website to download the most current version of the SofTest software. Once the software is installed, students will be prompted to register the software and restart their machine. Students are encouraged to practice using SofTest before their examinations; the practice examination is available for immediate download and can be taken multiple times.

Students should come to exams with a fully changed battery, a power cord, and any other necessary equipment. Please arrive in the exam room at least 15 minutes prior to the starting time of the exam to set up computers; no additional time is given for setting up and logging in computers. Completed exams are uploaded to a secure server. The exams are then downloaded and printed by law school staff and distributed to faculty in place of the traditional blue books. The printed copies are retained by the Registrar’s office or professor for one year. More information about the use of ExamSoft in the Academic Year of 2013–14 will be provided via email notices. Any questions about policy or procedure should be addressed to Ms. Ashley Closterman in the Faculty Support Office, 105 Waterman Hall, via email: Aclosterman@vermontlaw.edu, or phone at ext. 1264.
CONFIDENTIALITY OF STUDENT RECORDS
FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT (FERPA)

I. Confidentiality Policy

VLS maintains the confidentiality of student educational records as required by the federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA).

A. Persons Outside Vermont Law School. No one outside VLS shall have access to, nor will VLS disclose any information from, a student’s educational records without the written consent of the student except, pursuant to FERPA, to officials of other institutions in which the student seeks to enroll, to persons or organizations providing a student financial aid or enforcing provisions of student financial aid received, to accrediting agencies carrying out their accreditation function, to persons in compliance with a judicial order, and to persons in an emergency in order to protect the health or safety of students or other persons.

B. Persons within VLS. School officials must demonstrate a “need to know” before personally identifiable student information, located outside their immediate domain, may be released to them. Such releases are documented in the student file.

1. School officials are those members of VLS who act in the student’s educational interest within the limitations of their need to know, which includes deans, faculty, administrators, clerical and professional employees, and other persons who manage student record information.

2. Within the VLS community, only those persons, individually or collectively, acting in student’s educational interest are allowed access to a student’s educational records. This includes persons in the Offices of the Registrar, Admissions, Comptroller, Financial Aid, and Business Services, and academic personnel within the limitations of their need to know. In addition, the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs, the Assistant Dean for Academic Affairs, and the Director of the Academic Success Program have full access to student information contained in the administrative computer system.

C. Directory Information. At its discretion, VLS may provide such information, in accordance with the provision of FERPA, to include: student name, mailing address and telephone number, date of birth, dates of attendance, class year, full-time or part-time status, degrees and awards received, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended by the student.

1. A student may withhold directory information by notifying the Registrar in writing within two weeks after the first day of classes for the fall semester.

2. Requests for nondisclosure will be honored by Vermont Law School for only one academic year; therefore, authorization to withhold directory information must be filed annually in the Office of the Registrar.

II. Student Inspection of Records

FERPA provides each student with the right to inspect and review information contained in his/her education records, to challenge the contents of his/her education records, to have a hearing if the outcome of the challenge is unsatisfactory, and to submit explanatory statements for inclusion in his/her file if the decision of the hearing panel is unacceptable.

A. Written Request. The Registrar has been designated to coordinate the inspection and review procedures for student education records, which will include admissions, academic, and financial files; and academic cooperative education, and placement records.

1. A student wishing to review her/his education records must make a written request to the Registrar using the “Request for Copies of Documents in File” form available outside the Registrar’s Office. In some circumstances, a copy will not be made (e.g., an academic record for which a financial “hold” exists, or a transcript of an original or source document which exists elsewhere). Copies are made at the student’s expense at prevailing rates which are listed on the form.

2. Records covered by the Act will be made available within forty-five days of the request.

B. Exceptions and Exclusions. As provided by the Act:

1. Education records do not include records of instructional, administrative, and educational personnel which are the sole possession of the maker and are not accessible or revealed to any individual except a temporary substitute; employment records; or alumni records.
2. A student may not inspect or review financial information submitted by his/her parents; confidential letters and recommendations associated with admissions, employment, job placement or honors and to which he/she has waived his/her rights of inspection and review; or education records containing information about more than one student, in which case VLS will permit access only to that part of the record which pertains to the inquiring student.

3. VLS is not required to permit a student to inspect and review letters of recommendation to which the right to access was waived.

C. Correction Records. A student who believes that his/her education records contain information that is inaccurate or misleading, or is otherwise in violation of his/her privacy or other rights, may discuss his/her problems informally with the Office of the Registrar.

1. If the decision is in agreement with the student’s requests, the appropriate records will be amended. If not, the student will be notified within a reasonable period of time that the records will not be amended, and she/he will be informed by the Office of the Registrar of his/her right to a formal hearing.

2. A student’s request for a formal hearing must be made in writing to the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs who, within a reasonable period of time after receiving such requests, will inform the student of the date, place, and time of the hearing. A student may present evidence relevant to the issues raised and may be assisted or represented at the hearing by one or more persons of his/her choice, including attorneys, at the student’s expense. The hearing panel, which will adjudicate such challenges, will be the Committee on Standards.

3. Decisions of the hearing panel will be final, will be based solely on the evidence presented at the hearing, will consist of written statements summarizing the evidence and stating the reasons for the decision, and will be delivered to all parties concerned.

4. The education record will be corrected or amended in accordance with the decision of the hearing panel, if the decision is in favor of the student.

5. If the decision is unsatisfactory to the student, the student may place with the education record statements commenting on the information in the record, or statements setting forth any reasons for disagreeing with the decision of the hearing panel. The statements will be placed in the education record, maintained as part of the student’s records, and released whenever the records in question are disclosed.

6. A student who believes that the adjudication of his/her challenge is unfair or not in keeping with the provisions of the Act may request, in writing, assistance from the Dean of Vermont Law School to aid him/her in filing complaints with The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act Office, Department of Education, Room 4074, Switzer Building, Washington, DC 20202.

Revisions and clarifications of this policy will be published as experience warrants.

DIRECTORY OF RECORDS

- Office of Admissions (Abbott House): Records in the Office of Admissions are not covered under FERPA. These records receive FERPA protection and gain student access only upon the applicant’s matriculation.

- Office for External Relations (Curtis House): Any student who has completed one full semester at VLS becomes a member of the Alumni Association at the time their student status ceases. The Alumni Office records may include both home and business addresses and telephone numbers, name of spouse or significant other, name and address of parents, and history of contributions to Vermont Law School. Directory information for “alums” is no longer protected by FERPA, but alumni are afforded the opportunity to withhold release of directory information by contacting the Office for Institutional Advancement. All other information contained in their records is for internal use only.

- Office for External Relations (Curtis House): This office solicits information directly from students, including name, address, class, degree program(s), degree completion, previous education, gender, date of birth, race, cumulative grade point average/class rank, honors such as Law Review and/or Moot Court Advisory Board, and work-study eligibility. Any information forthcoming from students is available only to personnel in the department.

- Office of the Comptroller/Business Office (Abbott House): The Business Office maintains an accounting of a student’s financial obligations to VLS. Failure to meet this obligation will result in the Business Office withholding approval of release of a student’s transcript, bar certification, and/or diploma. Therefore, the general information of indebtedness will be shared with the Registrar’s Office and the Dean’s Office and/or holds are placed on the student information system. In addition, the Business Office maintains the record of a student’s VLS parking sticker number in conjunction with the student’s license plate number. None of this personally identifiable information will be disclosed to anyone outside the institution. In addition, students are given the opportunity to authorize other individuals to make inquiries of their accounts by completing a Business Office/Financial Aid Office Release Authorization Form. This form is considered in effect until further notice, i.e., the student submits an updated form. It is assumed that a student not completing this form does not consent to any release of information.

- Environmental Law Center (Debovoise Hall): Summer Session applicants are processed by the ELC and records are transferred to the Registrar’s Office upon the student’s registration.

- Office of Financial Aid (Abbott House): A student’s financial aid file contains their Institutional Student Information Report (ISIR), notice of financial aid eligibility and awards, loan applications, and other pertinent information requested to assess eligibility for financial assistance. Federal Perkins promissory notes and collection information is also kept in the Financial Aid Office for graduates who receive these loans. Copies of educational loan deferment forms are placed in the student’s file prior to being sent to the lending agencies. A student has access to all this information. The Office of Financial Aid will release to scholarship committees the level of a student’s financial need (e.g., none, high, etc.), but will not share any specific information. The Office of Financial Aid is notified by various agencies when a student/alum is in default on an educational loan and will inform the Registrar’s Office of this default status when a student/alum has requested the release of a transcript or bar certification.

- Office of the Registrar (Abbott House): Upon matriculation, electronic copies of some of a student’s application file become accessible to the Registrar’s Office. At that time, these records (electronic or paper) fall under the protection of FERPA. This record may contain the following application materials: application for admission, LSDAS summary report or GRE report, letters of recommendation, personal statement, letter of acceptance, and transcripts reflecting all post-secondary education. A student may review and/or request copies for his/her own use except any letters of recommendation to which he/she has waived the right to access. Official copies of transcripts from other institutions are also in the student record. As a student progresses through his/her educational program, the electronic educational record will include requests for release of information, copies of letters reflecting any probationary and/or disciplinary action, and other status changes. The Registrar’s Office maintains electronic records of student academic progress with an official transcript (showing course names, grades, semester and cumulative grade point average and class rank, where applicable.) A notice of loan default may be appended to the student’s official transcript if received. Independent of a student’s individual record, the Registrar’s Office maintains archives of student petitions to the Committee on Standards, with a copy of the decision electronically maintained. Release of most information in the Registrar’s Office requires a student’s written permission, with the following exceptions: 1) When a student is being placed on academic probation, the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs, the student’s faculty advisor, the head of the program for Academic Success, and the Director of Financial Aid are notified; 2) when a student has been academically dismissed, the same people as listed in #1 above, with the exception of the head of the program for Academic Success, are again notified; in addition, the Library, Office of Career Services, the Alumni Office, and all deans are notified of a student’s “withdrawal,” without mention of the circumstances; 3) when a student voluntarily withdraws or is granted a leave of absence, all people listed above, again with the exception of the head of the program for Academic Success, are notified; 4) if a student petitions the Committee on Standards, the committee members may be provided full access to the educational records maintained in the Registrar’s Office; 5) the Director of Financial Aid needs to know class rank and probation status to determine the continued eligibility for scholarships and/or work-study funds; therefore, the class rank list is provided to the Director of Financial Aid; 6) if a member of the faculty needs to be reminded of a grade they issued a student, this information will be given with the understanding that it cannot be shared with a third party.
DISABILITY POLICY AND PROCEDURES

I. INTRODUCTION

Vermont Law School, as an institution, assumes the ultimate administrative responsibility for ensuring compliance with the mandates of section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. It is the responsibility of the Director of the Academic Success Program (ASP) to certify student disabilities and to recommend reasonable and appropriate accommodations in light of the nature of a student’s disability and academic program requirements. The Director of ASP will serve as a liaison between and resource to, the students and faculty.

A. The law school recognizes its legal obligation to make reasonable accommodations designed to provide overall educational program accessibility for otherwise qualified persons with disabilities. It is a law school policy that students with disabilities who have been admitted to the law school through the normal admissions process and have thus been deemed qualified to undertake the academic program be given reasonable accommodations.

B. To the extent deemed reasonably possible and readily achievable, the location of programs within the physical plant will provide equal access to mobility- and visually-impaired students.

1. The law school physical plant is an eight-acre complex of buildings, many of which were built at the turn of the century. Some areas within older buildings are inaccessible to mobility-impaired students or difficult to access. All buildings are accessible on the first floor, either through a ground-level entrance or a ramp. Whenever a mobility-impaired student needs to meet with faculty or staff whose offices are in limited-access areas, the law school will provide an alternative space for the meeting.

2. Information concerning law school facilities that are accessible to and usable by mobility-impaired students is appended to this policy.

C. The law school seeks to accommodate students with disabilities on an individual basis. Individual students are given reasonable and necessary accommodations based on specific information and assessment data documented by a professional from outside the law school who, in the judgment of the school, is qualified to provide such information and assessments.

D. While the law school will strive to accommodate students as fully as possible, reasonable accommodations do not include measures that fundamentally alter the academic program of the law school or that place undue administrative or financial burdens on the law school.

E. The faculty has the responsibility for maintaining the integrity of the academic program. When course accommodations are required for a student, the intent is to provide that student with equal access to the essential course content and to mitigate the impact of the disability on the student’s learning and/or academic performance without compromising course or program integrity. Accommodations may involve modification of the way in which material is presented or how learning is evaluated; however, accommodations that compromise the essential integrity of the course shall not be required of faculty by Vermont Law School. Faculty may not dispute the fact, nature, and/or extent of a disability that has been certified by the Director of ASP. Faculty, however, have the right to ask the Director for clarification of recommended accommodations and to suggest alternative accommodations perceived to be more appropriate in light of the nature of the course or program. Alternative accommodations must be appropriate and effective as those recommended in mitigating the disability. Alternative accommodations may not be implemented until they are approved by the Director of ASP. Faculty who are dissatisfied with the accommodations recommended may consult with the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs. Faculty are encouraged to share with the Director of ASP information about the course and/or program, so that the Director is best able to make appropriate accommodation recommendations. Faculty are to implement the accommodation as soon as possible, but in no case more than five academic days after the notification has been received. If no further consultation occurs between faculty, student, and the Director of ASP, Vermont Law School assumes that accommodations will be provided as delineated in the notification. Time is of essence in implementation of any academic accommodations. Delays in the negotiations or the implementation of accommodations can be construed as a form of discrimination.
III. ADMISSIONS POLICY
A. The law school does not discriminate on the basis of disability. No limitations are placed on the number or proportion of persons with disabilities who may be admitted or enrolled.
B. Any information concerning an applicant’s disability provided during the admissions process is voluntary or optional and is maintained in accordance with laws relating to confidentiality.
C. Students should not assume that because their application to law school indicates the presence of a disability that this information is known to the Director of ASP. New students should inform the Director, under the procedure in Part IV, below, of the need for accommodations well in advance of their matriculation.

IV. POLICY OF REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS FOR ENROLLED STUDENTS
A. The law school will provide, as necessary, reasonable and readily achievable accommodations, including academic adjustments and auxiliary aids, to ensure otherwise qualified student’s with disabilities access to the school’s services, programs, and activities. To the extent necessary to accommodate a student with a particular disability, and to the extent deemed reasonable and consistent with the academic program, course loads, course examinations, and other methods of evaluating academic achievement will be adapted and administered so as to minimize the effect of the disability and accurately measure academic achievement in the course.
B. Accommodations will not be provided if they fundamentally alter the nature of the program or if they would be unduly burdensome either financially or administratively to the law school.
C. All accommodations are prospective; there no retroactive accommodations for work completed before the submission of a request for accommodations and all required documentation.

V. PROCEDURE FOR REQUESTING REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS
A. Identifying the Need for Accommodations: Students with disabilities who require accommodations are responsible for making these needs known to the Director of ASP in a timely fashion and for providing any required documentation and evaluations.
   1. Students should not assume that because their application to law school indicated the presence of a disability that this information is known to the Academic Support Program (ASP) Director. A student seeking accommodation for a disability should make a direct request to the ASP Director.
   2. In cases where only minor accommodations are required (such as requesting to sit in the front row because of a visual or hearing impairment), the student may simply make a request of the faculty member. If requests for minor accommodations are not responded to adequately, the student should make the request to the ASP Director.
   3. Students who do not require accommodations need not make their disabilities known.
B. Verification of Disability:
   1. A student who makes a request for accommodation due to a physical, mental, or learning disability must provide current professional verification documentation to the Academic Support Program Director.
   2. The cost of obtaining the professional verification will be borne by the student.
   3. The documentation required varies, depending on the nature of the disability. Students must follow Vermont Law School’s disability-specific documentation guidelines, available at the Office of the Assistant Dean of Academic Affairs, or at the Academic Success Office.
   4. If the law school requires an additional assessment for purposes of obtaining a second opinion by an appropriate professional of the law school’s choosing, then the law school shall bear the cost not covered by any third party payor.
C. Additional Information: Students seeking reasonable accommodations for a disability will be asked to submit to the ASP Director a history of academic adjustments and accommodations received in postsecondary institutions or in places of employment. Such a history of adjustments and accommodations will be subject to verification.
D. Verification of Temporary Disability: Students seeking accommodations on the basis of a temporary disability must provide documentation to the Assistant Dean for Academic Affairs verifying the nature of the condition, stating the expected duration of the condition, and describing the accommodations deemed necessary.
1. Verification must be provided by a professional health care provider who, in the opinion of the law school, is qualified in the diagnosis of such conditions.

2. The assessment or verification of disability must reflect the student’s current level of disability, and shall be no older than 60 days.

3. The cost of the professional verification will be borne by the student.

4. If the initial verification is incomplete or inadequate to determine the extent of the disability and appropriate accommodations, the law school will have the discretion to require supplemental assessment of a temporary disability. The cost of the supplemental assessment will be borne by the student.

5. If the law school requires an additional assessment for purposes of obtaining a second opinion by an appropriate professional of the law school’s choosing, then the law school shall bear the cost not covered by any third party payor.

E. Determination of Reasonable Accommodations: The Director of the Academic Success Program has authority to decide whether accommodations will be granted in individual cases. The ASP Director will review all documents submitted to verify a disability and may conduct a personal interview to explore the personal and academic needs of the student in the law school setting.

1. A student must immediately report any dissatisfaction with an accommodation to the ASP Director. After the accommodation has been in place, each student receiving accommodations may meet upon request with the ASP Director to evaluate the effectiveness of the accommodation.

2. Accommodations will be subject to review and possible termination upon any change in the nature of the student’s disability or the student’s failure to properly utilize the services provided.

3. Services for students who improperly procure accommodations under this policy will be immediately terminated and the student may be subject to disciplinary action under the Vermont Law School Code of Conduct.

4. Subject to applicable rule of confidentiality, the ASP Director shall provide information to appropriate administrative staff and faculty when necessary to arrange for efficient administration of academic adjustments and accommodations.

F. Records and Privacy: Information concerning a student’s disability and accommodations made is treated as confidential under applicable laws and law school policies and is provided only to individuals who are privileged to receive such information on a need to know basis. Faculty members who are informed of a disability are advised that this information is confidential.

1. The law school will maintain confidential records relating to accommodations based on disability within the Academic Success Office. The records will include documentation submitted to verify the disability. The Registrar’s Office will receive a copy of the ASP Director’s letter to the student detailing the accommodations that have been found reasonable and justified in light of the student’s needs. Upon graduation or termination of enrollment, these records shall be archived apart from official educational records.

2. All documents produced by consultants in the performance of services for the law school will remain the property of the law school.

VI. GRIEVANCE AND APPEAL PROCEDURES

A. Students, who request accommodations and believe that such accommodations have been impermissibly denied, should bring this matter to the attention of the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs.

B. If the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs is unable to resolve the matter informally, or if the student is dissatisfied with the resolution, the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs will ask the President and Dean to review the accommodation request and the accommodation will be granted or denied.

1. The President and Dean may affirm, reverse, or modify the finding and/or recommendation of accommodation. The President and Dean may confer with the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs during this process.

2. The appeal decision of the Dean is final.

C. Students who believe that they have been discriminated against on the basis of their disability in matters other than an accommodation request should use the procedure described in the Vermont Law School Policy Against Harassment, Sexual Harassment and Discrimination.
VII. ACADEMIC DISMISSAL AND READMISSION

Students who are academically dismissed sometimes raise a disability as the basis for the academic difficulty. The burden is on the student to clarify why the disability was not brought to the attention of the administration, if it had not been previously, to explain why accommodations were not requested, or to explain why accommodations that had been provided were inadequate.

Readmission petitions should be discussed with the Vice Dean for Academic Affairs. The Committee on Standards considers and decides on such petitions.

VIII. POST-GRADUATION POLICY AND SERVICES

A. The law school will assist students in documenting accommodations received during law school as an aid in requesting accommodations for bar examinations.

B. The Office of Career Services will assist all graduates, with or without disabilities, in developing career opportunities after the completion of studies at Vermont Law School.

IX. DEFINITIONS

A. “Person with a disability” means a person who (1) has a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities; (2) has a record of such impairments; or (3) is regarded as having such impairment.

B. “Otherwise qualified person with a disability” means an individual with a disability who meets the academic and technical standards requisite to admission and participation in the law school’s educational program and activities.

DOGS ON CAMPUS

If you have a dog, please obey these rules. The safety and cleanliness of public areas in town and the law school campus are important to all who use them. This policy was established out of respect for the health and safety concerns of students, employees, and visitors, and in an effort to reduce property damage caused by unattended dogs.

Campus Policy

- With the exception of service dogs, dogs may not be brought into school buildings.
- Dogs brought on campus should be leashed at all times.
- Clean up after your dog and properly dispose of all waste.
- In the interest of safety and the welfare of your dog, please do not leave it unattended in your car, or tie your dog to trees, doors, benches, etc.

Town of Royalton Ordinances

- All dogs 6 months or older must be licensed. To be licensed, your dog must have had a rabies vaccination within the past 24 months (or within the past 12 months for a dog 6 months to 1 year old). License applications are available at the Town Clerk’s Office.
- Dogs within the village limits, including Vermont Law School property, must be leashed at all times.
- Dogs are prohibited on the village green and the Carpenter Recreation Fields, whether leashed or not. Violation of this ordinance can result in impoundment of the dog and a $25 fine, plus impoundment fees.
- The Water District has prohibited dogs from the path to Kent’s Ledge as well as the Fire District property within the source protection area to protect the watershed.

FIREARMS, WEAPONS AND EXPLOSIVES

In the interest of the safety and peace of mind of students, employees, and visitors, Vermont Law School prohibits the possession and use of firearms, weapons, (including hunting weapons and bows), and explosives (as defined in Vermont Law) on all school property including, but not limited to, buildings, parking lots (including parked cars), common areas, school-owned residences, and at any school sponsored event or other law school related activities.

FITNESS CENTER POLICY

Please refer to the above link for the Fitness Center Policy for an explanation of membership, procedures, regulations, and safety issues. All fitness center members are required to read the Fitness Center Policy before becoming members. Inquiries, requests, and concerns about the Fitness Center should be addressed to the Facilities Operations Manager. Any fitness center policy violations a member witnesses should be reported to the person at the desk or the Facilities Operations Manager. Appeals regarding the Fitness Center Policy should be submitted to the Vice President for Finance and Administration on the second floor of Debevoise Hall who oversees the Facilities Operations Manager.

FINANCIAL AID POLICIES
The cost of attendance at Vermont Law School is based on the amount needed to meet direct institutional costs and provide a moderate allowance for living expenses for a 9- or 12-month academic year. Individual living and personal expenses may vary and costs in excess of the established allowances will have to be met from other sources. It should also be noted that the cost of attendance is related to your status as a student and cannot be increased to accommodate financial obligations beyond that status. The total of scholarship and loan and work study funds that you receive cannot be more than the total Cost of Education.

The last day to request any budget increase or remaining loan funds will be the last day of classes: April 25, 2014.

Student Budget Increase Policy
A student budget represents an estimate of the costs a student will incur for a specified period of enrollment, usually one academic year. The total aid a student may receive from Student Financial Assistance programs and other sources cannot exceed the student's budget. The Financial Aid Office has set student budgets that represent the amount of tuition and fees needed to attend Vermont Law School. Additional amounts are built into a student's budget to represent estimated expenses for books, a modest cost of living allowance*, transportation, personal, Health Insurance and student loan fees. A student's budget may be increased on a case-by-case basis beyond the set standards for reasonable expenses. Reasonable expenses and the accompanying required documentation are defined below.

*Financial aid programs are meant to fund the student and may not cover a spouse or family.

Reasonable Expenses and Required Documentation Housing allowance is based on average apartment costs within the area and from the results of an annual student survey. We recognize that this may not reflect expenses for families or for house payments; however, the federal government only allows costs for the student. Therefore, we do not increase budgets for increased housing expenses.

Medical insurance for the student only is considered a valid expense for which a student's budget may be increased.
The maximum allowable increase for any student health policy is $3,627. Unreimbursed, emergency medical or dental expenses will be considered. Acceptable documentation is a copy of the PAID receipt from the medical facility, physician, or dentist, documenting all insurance payments, with an annual adjustment of up to $2,500.

Child-care costs for the student's dependents are considered a reasonable budget expense. In determining reasonable expenses, consideration will be given to the age of the dependent(s). Documentation is required, in the form of a signed, written statement or a company receipt from the child's care provider itemizing the monthly costs.
Tuition and fees for preschool or private school are excluded.

PC or laptop computer adjustments require documentation in the form of a PAID invoice or receipt. Reasonable computer expenses will not exceed a one-time only adjustment of up to $2,500 or the cost of the receipt, whichever is less.

Transportation expenses such as automobile repairs will be considered. Only those repairs necessary to keep the automobile in safe working condition will be evaluated. Auto repair costs will be considered up to $2,500 annually.
Acceptable automobile repair documentation is a copy of a PAID receipt and an invoice outlining the repairs.
Normal upkeep and maintenance such as oil changes, tires, and tune-ups will not be considered. Note: Automobile expenses such as car payments or car insurance cannot be considered.
SIP Expenses can be considered for a budget adjustment. Students planning an SIP experience should notify the Financial Aid Office at least two months prior, so that there is sufficient time to process the request.

Bar Exam Fee for one state exam can be included in a third-year law student’s budget. Students must submit the request in writing, stating the state in which the exam will be taken and the cost of the exam.

If you would like to make a budget adjustment, contact the financial aid office.

Other Financial Aid Policies:

- Financial aid offered by the school is awarded on the basis of financial need or merit. All students who apply and are eligible for assistance will be offered financial aid subject to availability of funds.
- To maintain eligibility for financial aid a student must be in good academic standing and making satisfactory academic progress as determined by the school.
- All scholarships and financial aid will be awarded on a yearly basis. Students are required to file a FAFSA each year to determine if the student will continue to qualify for aid.
- All awards received, including but not limited to: Fellowship, Tuition Waiver, or Stipend is included as anticipated Financial Aid, and will reduce any or all institutional scholarship previously awarded by Vermont Law School.
- All outside scholarships received by a student to attend Vermont Law School must be reported to the Financial Aid Office even though they may be received after aid from the school has been awarded. Federal regulations require the school to consider these resources in determining a student’s total award.
- Vermont Law School reserves the right to review and modify the award based on changes of a student’s financial or academic status or the availability of funds, which are beyond its control.
- Any funds received under the Federal Work Study, Federal Perkins Loan, or the Federal Direct Loan programs must be used solely for expenses related to attendance at Vermont Law School.
- If a student leaves school before completing the academic year, the student may be responsible for repayment of a pro-rated amount of any portion of aid payment made which cannot be reasonably attributed to meeting the educational expenses related to attendance at Vermont Law School. The amount of such repayment is to be determined on the basis of criteria set forth by the Secretary of Education.

FOOD AND BEVERAGES IN LAW SCHOOL BUILDINGS

No food is permitted in the library, the Computer Lab, classrooms, or the Fitness Center. Beverages in nonspill containers are permitted in the library, the Computer Lab, the classrooms, and the Fitness Center. There are food and beverage vending machines located in the side entryway of the Chase Center. No alcohol may be carried into or consumed in campus buildings, including outdoor areas at recreational events, with the exception of events that have received prior approval. (Refer to the Alcohol Policy in Miscellaneous Policies and Procedures.)

FRAUDULENT OR DISHONEST CONDUCT POLICY

Vermont Law School’s aspirations reflect our values (including being a community that values respect, integrity, innovation, openness, justice and responsibility, and promotes ethical decision-making). This policy and its related procedures reflect the desire to conduct the Law School’s business ethically and with integrity. Vermont Law School will investigate any possible fraudulent or dishonest use or misuse of Law School resources or property by faculty, staff, or students. Anyone found to have engaged in fraudulent or dishonest conduct is subject to disciplinary action by the Law School up to and including dismissal or expulsion, and civil or criminal prosecution when warranted. The VLS Fraudulent or Dishonest Conduct Policy and procedures are found at the link above. It is the responsibility of all faculty, staff, and students to read and follow this policy.
FUND RAISING AND SOLICITATION POLICIES
Please see the Student Group Manual for information about fund raising at VLS: K:\Students\Student Group Resources\Student Group Manual

FUND RAISING POLICY
Raising money is always an important issue for student organizations. Many student organizations collect dues or have fund raisers to support their activities. Fund raisers range from simple (e.g., car washes and bake sales) to sophisticated (e.g., raffle and soliciting local businesses). In addition, the Student Bar Association funds dozens of student organizations each year, providing annual operating budgets, and special activity funds. When embarking on fund raising projects here are your options:

I. Raising money on campus (use Student Organization Event Form available in the Dean’s Office)
   A. Examples:
      1. Bake sales
      2. Selling merchandise (flowers, doughnuts, candy, etc.)
      3. Selling services (housekeeping, yard work, car washes)
      4. Rummage sales
      5. Raffles
      6. Events where admission is charged
      7. Selling concessions at events
      8. Auctions--on or off campus-must be held at least two weeks apart and must be approved by the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity

II. Off-campus fund raising must be approved by the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity.

III. Requesting funds from the Student Bar Association
   A. Examples:
      1. SBA operational budgets
      2. Special activity funds

IV. Collecting dues from members

V. Cosponsoring programs with other organizations is another option. Look for VLS departments or other student organizations with a similar mission and pool resources to cosponsor events.

VI. Once funds have been raised, Student Organizations should have an off-campus account to ensure proper handling of funds or discuss with the Business Office about deposits as restricted funds. See Off-Campus Accounts below.

VII. After a student group has held an auction, the group treasurer has five days to deposit these funds into the off-campus account or with the Business Office. The treasurer must also give an accounting of these funds to the Comptroller of the Law School.

Off-Campus Accounts
Student organizations are allowed to maintain off-campus checking accounts (except Administrative appointed committees or organizations). Organizations must be recognized by the SBA in order to open an account using Vermont Law School’s tax-exempt number (which can be obtained by contacting the Business Office.) Student organizations should have two signatures required on all withdrawals of organizational funds, one of which must be the Student Group’s Faculty Advisor. The VLS Comptroller also has the option of being listed as an authorized signature. These signatures must be kept updated at the bank as officer’s change. Student organizations should use their student organization mailbox located in the Chase Center as the address for bank statements.

Funding through the Student Bar Association
There are two sources of funding from the Student Bar Association: annual operational budgets and special activity funds.

Operational Budgets
Operational budgets may be allotted to organizations to help supplement costs that were not met through fund raising. The SBA holds budget hearings near the beginning of each academic semester. Check your email for times and locations of meetings.
1. The Student Bar Association uses the following guidelines to determine if an organization is eligible for an operational budget and/or special activity funds.
   a. Current and new student organizations must be properly recognized by the Student Bar Association may apply for an operational budget.
   b. Funded organizations must have an open membership, whereby any enrolled student may be a member without a selection policy or process.
   c. SBA shall not fund any activities, events, or organizations that do not adhere to VLS policies or procedures as stated in the Code of Conduct.

Financial Records
All student organizations must keep accurate records of revenues and expenses. At the end of the Spring Semester, all student groups must complete the Annual Financial Summary form to the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity. Revenue include all fund raising, donations, membership fees, SBA funding, funds from external sources such as national sponsors, and VLS funding such as the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity funding. Expenses include speaker fees, travel expenses, conference materials, food and alcohol, and supplies for fund raising purposes.

SOLICITATION POLICY
The primary concern of Vermont Law School is the fostering of education and study. As one aspect of that process, Vermont Law School encourages participation by students, faculty, and staff in matters of public interest. This policy exists with three objectives in mind. The first is to allow Vermont Law School to continue its normal educational functions without undue interruptions. The second is to enable candidates, political parties and interest groups equitable and reasonable opportunity to solicit on campus. The third is to protect the individual rights of Vermont Law School community members, such as rights of privacy and personal security. Solicitation means the sale or offer for sale or sales promotion of any property or service and/or receipt of or request for any gift or contribution. It is with these considerations in mind that Vermont Law School promulgates the following policy.

Statement of Policy
1. Location of solicitation:
   a. Public areas - Public areas are those areas generally open to the public, which do not serve a specified educational, administrative, research, health, and campus dining, athletic, or recreational purpose. Examples of public areas include outdoor walkways and building entryways and lobbies. Public areas are open to all forms of non-commercial solicitation during the normal operating hours of the Law School, all persons or organization who wish to engage in non-commercial solicitation are nonetheless required to follow the approval process outlined below.

   2. Solicitation must be conducted in a way:
      a. That will not disturb or interfere with the regular academic or institutional program being conducted on the campus.
      b. That will not interfere with the free and unimpeded flow of pedestrian or vehicular traffic or sidewalks, street, or entrances to the campus buildings or common areas of campus buildings.
      c. That will not harass, embarrass, or intimidate the person or persons being solicited.
      d. Charitable fund-raising campaigns conducted on campus by individuals, student organizations or non-student campus groups must be approved by the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and the Executive Director of Institutional Advancement.
      e. Student organizations may solicit local vendors or merchants for donations only with prior approval from both the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and the Executive Director of Institutional Advancement. Students should make it known that they are only representing their respective group and are not acting in any official capacity for Vermont Law School.
      f. Student organizations and affiliated groups may solicit on campus only with the written approval of the Associate Dean for Student Affairs. A properly completed Event Form must be submitted in advance(K:\Students\Event Planning). Approval will be granted under the following conditions.
         (1) The primary purpose of such sales will be to raise money for the benefit of the campus group or for charitable cause.
         (2) All solicitation must be conducted by and only by members of the affiliated group.
(3) Outside vendors are not permitted to conduct solicitation on behalf of student organizations. Solicitation must be conducted in space approved by the Associate Dean for Student Affairs. Other areas may be designated in special circumstances as determined by the Associate Dean for Student Affairs.

(4) Activities authorized by the VLS administration involving the sale of goods or services including but not limited to activities of VLS.

(5) Bookstore personnel and representatives of education-supply firms are exempt from this policy.

(6) Room Reservation Event forms and compliance agreement can be picked up in the Dean’s Office. Students are responsible for obtaining required signatures.

g. Students and student organizations may not solicit VLS Alumni, although the Law School has supporters who may be interested in funding other VLS activities on campus. For more information, contact the Executive Director of Institutional Advancement.

3. Raffle Guidelines: It is lawful for tax-exempt organizations to conduct raffles in accordance with, but not limited to, the following regulations:

a. A raffle is a lottery in which a prize is won by a random drawing of the name or number of one or more persons purchasing chances.

b. Most clubs and organizations operating under the auspices of VLS must claim tax-exempt status. The maximum cash prize for a raffle is $10,000. There is a $50,000 limit on the values of merchandise that may be offered.

c. No alcoholic beverages may be raffled.

d. An organization may sponsor only two raffles per year. (Exceptions are granted by the Associate Dean for Student Affairs).

e. Proceeds derived from the raffle may be expanded door prizes and operation of the raffle and religious, charitable, scientific, literary, and educational purposes.

4. Appeals Procedure:

a. The student organization or group aggrieved by a decision covered by this section of the code is entitled to appeal to the President and Dean’s Office by written notice on or before the fifth class day after the decision is announced. The notice shall contain in the student’s or organizations’ name and mailing address, a concise description of the complaint, the reason for disagreement with the decision, and the date the decision was announced.

b. When notice of the appeal is received, the President and Dean shall delegate responsibility for hearing that appeal. The delegate shall provide the student organization with an opportunity for a hearing and the person or organization shall be notified at least one day before the date of the hearing.

c. Decisions made by the President and Dean are final with no appeal.

LICENSING AND USE OF VLS NAME AND TRADEMARK

Vermont Law School’s federally registered trademark includes: “Vermont Law School,” “VLS,” the Vermont Law School logotype, the official Vermont Law School seal and design, bell tower graphic, and art and/or word(s) associated with or referring to Vermont Law School.

Everyone, including officially recognized student organizations, who wishes to use the names, marks, logotype, seals and/or symbols of Vermont Law School on products such as clothing, uniforms, or furniture, on publicity items distributed beyond campus, such as posters, flyers, or postcards, or other items (including letterhead, envelopes, forms, or publications) is required to obtain prior approval from the Office of External Relations. For usage permission and more information, contact the Office of External Relations. A copy of VLS identification standards, which includes logotype usage information, may found on k/common/communications/logos

LOCKER POLICY

Vermont Law School provides a limited number of lockers for students to use during the academic year. Lockers are located on the first floor of the Oakes Classroom building and are assigned by the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity.
Lockers are available on a first come, first served basis. Priority will be given to students with disabilities. An email announcement will go out when lockers are ready for rent. Please see Theresa Johnson, Executive Assistant, if you have questions about lockers.

The cost for rental is $10 per year. The funds collected will be used to maintain existing lockers and purchase additional lockers in future years.

Immediately after the final day of the academic year, it is the renters’ responsibility to remove all belongings. Buildings and Grounds personnel will remove all contents three days after the close of the Academic Year.

PARKING
- Enforcement
  The administration of VLS expects that persons using the parking areas will use common sense and avoid parking in driveways, on grassed areas, or restricted areas that indicate no parking. Should enforcement action be necessary, the Vice President for Finance and Administration will determine appropriate action. Enforcement activities may include the placing of notes on windshields, the assessment of parking tickets, and, in extreme conditions, the towing of vehicles. Particular attention will be paid to abuse of handicapped and overnight parking policies.
- Disabled Parking
  VLS attempts to establish an appropriate number of disabled persons parking spaces. Individuals wishing to use temporary handicapped parking may obtain the authorization from the Business Office. Individuals wishing additional disabled parking spaces may request the same from the Facilities Operations Manager, who will make every effort to efficiently implement these requests.
- Designated Parking Areas
  The law school has refrained from creating large numbers of restricted parking areas. However, the areas behind the Pierce House and between Rogers House and Curtis House are restricted to faculty and staff only. Only clinic staff, including students who are working as interns, are permitted to park behind the Pierce House. Designated Car Pool spaces are located in the parking lot behind the Cornell Library and in the lot across from the entrance to Oakes Hall. There are two designated parking spaces for the Zip Cars and four for electric vehicles in the Oakes Hall lot.
- Overnight Parking
  The law school does not allow overnight parking. It is the responsibility of landlords in the community to provide parking for their tenants associated with their facilities.
- Emergency Parking
  In the case of hazardous driving conditions due to a snowstorm, limited parking will be available in the lot near the Eaton House. Cars must be removed within 12 hours after the storm ends.
- Reports of Damage
  VLS is not responsible for damage to vehicles. During the winter months, persons should exercise caution in parking near buildings because of the potential for damage from falling ice and snow. Damage to vehicles in parking lots is a matter for the vehicle owner and his or her insurance company. Any damage should be reported to the Vice President for Finance and Administration, and a Campus Incident Report Form should be completed. As a matter of courtesy, the administration expects that any person responsible for damage to another vehicle will seek the owner and report the damage.

PEACEFUL ASSEMBLY
Peaceful assembly or picketing to petition for redress of grievances is a cherished Constitutional right, particularly in an education environment, as long as it does not block ingress or egress to the campus or Vermont Law School facilities. In contrast, abuse of persons or property, or physical confrontations that deny freedom of passage or freedom of speech have no rightful place in the Vermont Law School community and will not be tolerated on campus. Those students who deny others the right to peaceful assembly shall be subject to the VLS Code of Conduct. The democratic principle of open discussion and presentation of opinions, popular or unpopular, carries with it the obligation to let individuals speak and to permit audiences to listen.

POLITICAL ACTIVITIES ON CAMPUS

Policy Statement. VLS’s institutional participation or intervention in any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office is strictly forbidden. VLS’s officials, administrators, faculty, staff, and student representatives are not authorized to participate, in their official capacity, in any political activity in support of or in opposition to a candidate for public office. When making statements in their individual capacity, such persons must indicate clearly that they are not representing VLS. Consistent with its mission, VLS promotes and encourages the discussion of legal, social and political issues, and the free expression of viewpoints and ideas. Thus, VLS will fully support and respect the First Amendment rights of the individual members of the VLS community. Nothing in this Policy shall limit the rights of students, faculty or staff to express their opinions or to engage in political activity when acting in their individual capacities and not as representatives of VLS.

Purpose of the Policy. Tax Exempt Organization Restrictions Under the Internal Revenue Code, VLS is absolutely prohibited from directly or indirectly participating or intervening in any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for elective public office. The prohibition applies to all campaigns including campaigns at the federal, state and local level. The purpose of this policy is to ensure VLS’s compliance with the IRS restrictions by establishing guidelines and procedures for school-sponsored political activity.

Applicability of Policy. All VLS students, faculty, staff, and student organizations. All VLS facilities, services and activities.

Activities Covered by Policy. For purposes of this policy, the term “political activity” is defined as any activity related to a candidate’s political campaign for public office. The policy therefore affects lobbying, candidates’ appearances on campus, voter registration drives, political rallies, fundraising events, dissemination of campaign materials, and publication of political statements.

POLICY

VLS shall not participate directly or indirectly in partisan political activity

VLS may not engage in partisan political activity, therefore no person may engage in such activity in VLS’ name or on its behalf.

Use of VLS’s name

Neither VLS’s name nor seal may be used on letters or other materials intended for partisan political purposes. Whenever VLS’s name appears as part of the name of a student organization, such as “VLS’s Students for Candidate A,” the organization must make clear that the opinions expressed are those of the individuals in the organization and not an official opinion of VLS or its trustees.

Use of VLS’s resources

VLS’s offices, addresses, and email addresses may not be used as a return mailing address for partisan political mailings. VLS telephones may not be used for partisan political purposes. VLS’s services, such as interdepartmental mail and mailing lists; equipment, such as copiers and facsimile machines; and supplies may not be used for partisan political purposes. No VLS employee may, as part of his or her job, be requested to perform tasks in any way related to partisan political purposes. This section shall not limit the right of SBA-recognized political groups to use campus resources for their internal operations and activities, such as meetings, events unrelated to a political campaign, and general communications.

Use of VLS’s email

Sending mass emails in support of or in opposition to a particular candidate is not permitted. Mass emails advertising a political event or otherwise addressing political issues are permissible, subject to the restrictions set on the Code of Conduct.
VLS-Sponsored Political Events
A VLS-Sponsored political event must be in the format of a candidate forum or debate. At a minimum, all viable candidates for a political office must be invited to participate, although VLS strongly encourages participation of all candidates. VLS must invite all candidates participating in the debate to any VLS or SBA sponsored social activity held in conjunction with the debate.

Procedures
Organizers shall submit an Event form for approval. Please contact Kathy McCullough, Campus Scheduler, for applicable deadlines and additional information about scheduling requirements; see Event Planning in the Institutional Resources section of Student Handbook. Promotional materials advertising the event must not contain explicit or implicit endorsements of any particular candidate, position on an issue, or political party. At the beginning of the event, the following disclaimer should be read: “VLS does not endorse or oppose any political candidate or organization in connection with any campaign or election, and the use of the law school’s facilities for this event should not be construed as the school’s endorsement of, or opposition to, any candidate.” Organizers are responsible for communicating with the political candidates or their organizations to ensure awareness of and compliance with VLS guidelines.

Political Activity organized by student organizations
SBA-recognized student organizations can either sponsor or host political events. A sponsored event is an event that receives any kind of financial support from the SBA or a SBA-recognized student group. Student organizations host an event when they invite a political organization or candidate to visit the VLS campus, but do not provide funding for the event. Because the conduct of a student group may be attributable to VLS, the following restrictions apply.

General guidelines
Organizers must request approval from the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity for any kind of political event. Contact the Dean’s Office for the appropriate forms and applicable deadlines. Organizers are responsible for communications with the political candidates or their organizations to ensure awareness of and compliance with VLS guidelines. Fundraising events are prohibited. On campus voter education, voter registration, and “get out the vote” drives must be nonpartisan. When in doubt about whether an event complies with VLS rules, do not guess; contact the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity for further assistance.

Political events sponsored by the SBA or by any SBA-recognized student group Events fully or partially financed by the SBA or an SBA-recognized student group must comply with the following guidelines. Promotional materials advertising the event must not contain explicit or implicit endorsements of any particular candidate, position on an issue, or political party. The event must be in the format of a candidate forum or debate in which all viable candidates for a political office are invited to participate. VLS or SBA-sponsored receptions and other social activities held in conjunction with the debate must include all candidates participating in the debate. If several student organizations organize the event, it is permissible to reserve different rooms for separate candidate “meet and greet” time at the conclusion of the general debate, so long as all candidates are provided with similar facilities, for an equal amount of time, and the activity is open to all. At the beginning of the event, the following disclaimer should be read: “This event is sponsored by __________. The SBA and VLS do not endorse or oppose any political candidate or organization in connection with any campaign or election, and the use of the law school’s facilities for this event should not be construed as the school’s endorsement of, or opposition to, any candidate.”

Costs, Expenses, Fees and Honoraria
VLS will waive any facilities rental charge, but the sponsoring group will be responsible for other costs and expenses. Admission must be free. Event organizers are responsible for contacting the candidates’ campaign officials, to ensure compliance with these rules. Hosted events: Student organizations may host, but not sponsor, political events in a format other than that described in 5(b)(i) ONLY under the following conditions:

Funding
The event shall not be financed with funds from any SBA-recognized group, the SBA or VLS. The political candidate or political organization is responsible for facilities rental charges and all costs associated with the event, such as catering, security services, and audio-visual equipment set-up and operation. See the Event Scheduler for Applicable rental fees. Again, payment for these costs cannot be made with any funds from any VLS or SBA-related account.

Absolutely no fund-raising may occur during the event. The political candidate or political organization may charge as an admission fee only the amount necessary to cover reasonable costs of the event. Promotional materials advertising the event may not state that VLS or the SBA endorse the invited political candidate or political organization. The promotional material must disclose the event’s sponsor. At the beginning of the event, the following disclaimer should be read: “This event is sponsored by ___________________. The use of VLS’s facilities for this event does not constitute an endorsement. VLS does not endorse or oppose any political candidate or organization in connection with any campaign or election.” Partisan registration activities during the event must occur within the space rented for the event. Setting tables or boards elsewhere on the VLS campus is not permitted. Organizers are responsible for communicating with the political candidates or their organizations to ensure awareness of and compliance with VLS guidelines.

VLS and SBA-Supported Publications
Political editorials in The Forum or other VLS and SBA-supported publications are not restricted. Faculty and staff must clearly state that the views expressed are their own, and not those of VLS. Bulletin boards for political expression are available on an equal basis to all political groups recognized by the SBA. The policies of VLS and SBA-supported publications regarding political advertising must be nonpartisan: either advertising is made available to all candidates on an equal basis, or is made unavailable to all. Voter guides are documents or charts intended to help voters compare candidates on a set of issues. Because these guides carry a high risk of noncompliance with federal rules, the use of VLS or SBA funds or facilities in the preparation and distribution of voter guides requires previous approval by the Associate Dean of Student Affairs and Diversity.

Lobbying
Lobbying or attempting to influence federal, state, or local legislative action or a legislative or administrative official or staff member by using VLS’s name may only be authorized by VLS’s President or his designee. Permission from the Office of the President is necessary to ensure that any lobbying activity is conducted in compliance with applicable law. This policy should not be interpreted as hindering VLS’s faculty, staff or students’ efforts to individually attempt to influence the legislative process and use their VLS titles for identification so long as each such action is accompanied by a statement that the person is speaking as an individual and not as a VLS representative.

PUBLIC SAFETY POLICY AND SAFETY INFORMATION
We encourage everyone to be mindful of the need to exercise prudence with respect to your personal safety at all times on and off campus. Faculty, staff and students must complete a Campus Incident Report Form if a victim of theft, assault, or property damage on campus, or witness a crime on campus. Questions related to campus public safety can be addressed to the Vice President for Finance and Administration.

VLS Safety Committee
Vermont Law School has a Safety Committee comprised of staff, faculty, and student representatives. The Committee’s primary mission is to assist the Administration to develop programs, policies, and procedures to address safety and security concerns. The Committee posts emergency evacuation plans and ensures first-aid boxes are placed in every building on campus. All members of the VLS community are encouraged to share your safety or security concerns or requests with any member of the Safety Committee. Students interested in joining the Committee should contact Shirley Jefferson, Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity.

RECYCLABLE PAPER POLICY
The Vermont Law School Community is committed to reducing the amount of waste generated on campus and to protecting the integrity of the recycling program by eliminating nonrecyclable materials from the recycling containers. To achieve these goals, the law school has established the following policy: Materials generated within VLS for distribution to faculty, staff, or students should be produced only on recyclable paper (i.e., nonglossy white paper and Vermont Law School letterhead). Materials on nonrecyclable paper may be placed in a container near student mailboxes in the Chase Center and must be removed after 10 calendar days by a representative of the organization generating the materials. Everyone is strongly encouraged to reduce the amount of paper distributed by using the smallest size paper sufficient to convey the necessary information and by placing notices of events on the campus calendar and on the bulletin boards rather than in student mailboxes.

Paper Use
As a progressive institution, Vermont Law School is deeply committed to the ideals of social justice, public health, and a clean, sustainable environment. As part of our community, we request that you actively employ the following guidelines in your daily paper use:

Reduce
Double Side by Default: Always double side printed and copied documents unless it is specifically requested or absolutely necessary to single-side. Use Technology: Fully utilize and keep up to date on the growing number of electronic resources available through Technology Services. Try to abide by a policy of never printing what can be done online. Communicate through email and voice mail. Include frequently requested information on your website. Archive documents online or on disk rather than file folders. Think Before you Print: So much of printing is completely unnecessary. Try to avoid printing online materials, revise, and review drafts on screen before printing. Reduce Image Size: Using slightly smaller fonts, single spacing, reducing margin size, and cutting the length of your documents can save paper at little or no inconvenience to the reader. Use half-sheets, copy, and print 2-4 pages per one sheet of paper whenever possible. Brainstorm: There are hundreds of ways to reduce and it is the single most effective way for individuals to help the environment and can result in considerable financial savings. Be creative!

Re-Use

Save single-sided sheets: Keep a box of pre-used paper close to your desk. Develop a policy of always laying the paper down with the blank side-up. Keep your printer stocked with pre-used paper and only use single-sided sheets when necessary. Re-use envelopes: Use inter-campus mail envelopes or place labels over old envelopes. Purchase conscientiously: Try to buy products that are “processed” or “total” chlorine-free with the highest “post-consumer waste” content available. Be Imaginative: Always re-use before you recycle. Open your mind to the opportunities.

Recycle

ALWAYS RECYCLE: Though reducing and reusing are the most important parts of the 3R loop, recycling saves energy, landfill space and eliminates numerous dangerous pollutants.

REPORTING FOR CHARACTER AND FITNESS

As a gateway to the legal profession, Vermont Law School holds applicants and students to a high standard of professional and ethical conduct. Questions asked on the application will be reviewed during the admission process and again by a state board of bar examiners or as part of a security clearance for many government positions.

Although a charge or conviction may have been expunged, dismissed or vacated from your record by an order of the court, it nevertheless should be disclosed in answer to these questions, irrespective of any advice.

1. Have you ever, as an adult or as a juvenile, been charge with, arrested for, or convicted of a violation of any civil or criminal law, other than a parking violation or a speeding ticket?
2. Are any civil or criminal charged pending against you?
3. Has any educational institution, governmental or administrative agency (including any branch of the Armed Forces), or employer ever taken disciplinary action (including academic probation or suspension) against you?

If after you are enrolled, you realize you neglected to report an incident on the application form, you should report it immediately to the Associate Dean for Enrollment Management as an “amendment to application.”

If an incident occurs while you are enrolled as a student, you must report it immediately to the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity.

The fact that an incident is not reported is often more serious than the incident itself. It is not unusual for a bar application to be placed on hold for over a year while more in-depth investigations and hearings are held. Please contact Associate Dean for Enrollment Management or Shirley Jefferson, Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity if you have any questions or concerns.

SMOKING

To comply with Vermont law, public health, and fire precautionary measures required for insurance purposes, smoking is prohibited inside all VLS buildings. VLS offers designated smoking areas located outside that are easily accessible and centrally located with cigarette butt depositories. Designated areas are listed below:

- Oakes Hall Patio (north end of Oakes Hall)
- Library Quad (only in areas designated by cigarette dispensers)
- All VLS parking lots that do not abut any VLS entryway

The success of this policy will depend upon the thoughtfulness, consideration and cooperation of smokers and nonsmokers. All persons share in the responsibility for adhering to and enforcing this policy. Please refrain from throwing cigarettes on the ground for the benefit of the campus.
TECHNOLOGY
The Vermont Law School (VLS) Technology department is responsible for implementing and managing technology resources in support of the school’s educational mission. The present document describes the technology resources available to you as a student and institutional policies related to the use of these resources.

All members of the Vermont Law School Community are entitled to access the VLS campus computer network through the use of an authenticated login. Electronic mail (email) is an official form of communication within the VLS Community and each member shall have an account. Other rights, privileges, and resources may be made available to members of the community to support the educational mission of the school. Issues with these standards and responsibilities may be brought up through the Deans’ office, the Human Resources office or the Technology office for discussion, improvement, or adjudication as appropriate. The Vermont Law School network and computer systems are the property of Vermont Law School. Student, faculty and staff use of the network and these systems is a privilege, not a right.

The Technology department makes every effort to notify the student body as to changes in technology resources and policies. You are responsible for familiarizing yourself with school policies related to the use of VLS technology resources. Policy violations (as well as suspected policy violations) will be reported to the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity for review and, as appropriate, disciplinary action.

Vermont Law School is subject to laws and regulations that obligate us to provide information related to student, faculty, and staff use of the school’s technology resources, such as email, to third parties who have the legal right to request it (e.g., law enforcement agencies). In addition, VLS may review information stored in the school’s systems for the purposes of ensuring the effective and efficient operation of the institution.

Policy Sanctions
Violation of policies may result in suspension or termination of computer, network account, and other access. Depending upon the circumstances, violation may also result in disciplinary action including, but not limited to, academic expulsion or employment termination. Policy violations will be processed through normal VLS channels.

1. The Technology department can immediately suspend all computing privileges of any student who engages in inappropriate computer use activities.
2. If suspended, privileges will remain suspended until a review of the incident has been completed by the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity and a decision has been made about the imposition of additional sanctions or further action.
3. Suspected violations by students will be reported to the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity and may be subject to the Code of Conduct.

Sanctions for violations of this policy will be imposed by the Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity. Final responsibility for resolution of the disciplinary process may include consultation with the Technology department. Vermont Law School reserves the right to seek restitution and/or indemnification from a student for damage(s) arising from violations of this policy. In addition, Vermont Law School and/or third parties may pursue criminal and/or civil prosecution for violations of law.

Students agree to read and abide by this policy and its administrative interpretation as they may be amended from time to time. The Associate Dean for Student Affairs and Diversity is responsible for providing administrative interpretation, which will be modified periodically in light of experience gained and legal and administrative developments. Users are responsible for reviewing this policy and its administrative interpretation on a routine basis.

Internet, Network, and Wireless Internet access
Vermont Law School provides access to the Internet to students, employees, and guests of the institution for both academic and personal use. Public Internet Service Providers (ISPs) are a regulated industry under, amongst other laws, the terms of CALEA, and VLS must thus make every effort to not be construed as a public Internet service provider so as to avoid being subject to these regulatory burdens.

Internet Usage Policy
- Using VLS technology resources to access the Internet (including but not limited to social media sites) you are subject to VLS technology policies and the VLS Code of Conduct in addition to any applicable local,
Private Wireless Network
VLS maintains a private, secure, campus-wide wireless network for student use, which is advertised as VermontLaw. Your network account username (the part of your VLS email address before the ‘@’ sign) and password are required to access the wireless network. VermontLaw wireless network is available indoors campuswide.

Guest Wireless Access
VLS provides a wireless network for personal use by members of the VLS community and guests of the institution, which is advertised as VLS-Guest. Accessing this network does not require a VLS username or password. The VLS-Guest wireless network does require the acceptance of a terms-of-usage statement. VLS-Guest wireless network is available indoors campuswide.

Ad Hoc Wireless Broadcast Policy
- If it is determined that a personal, ad hoc wireless network or wireless ‘hot spot’ is impacting the performance of the VLS wireless network, the student will be requested to stop using the device. Failure to comply will result in being reported to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Diversity for review and, as warranted, disciplinary action.
- If it is determined that a personal communication device (including cell phones) is being used to intentionally mimic VLS networks in order to hijack, intercept or manipulate legitimate client traffic, VLS reserves the right to utilize technical mechanisms of its own to contain the device. Failure to comply will result in being reported to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Diversity for review and, as warranted, disciplinary action.

Network File Storage
As a student, you may request a personal folder to be created for you on the network which you may use to securely store your education-related files, documents, etc.

Network Storage Policy
- Network storage shall not be used as a ‘full backup’ for computers or other personal devices.
- Network storage shall not be used for the storage of personal multi-media files (music, movies, photos.) Reasonable storage of multi-media storage files for academic purposes is permitted; if you plan to use more than 5 Gb (gigabytes) of space please contact the Technology office to make special arrangements.

Email
Email is an official form of communication at VLS and all school-related email is sent to your VLS email account. The use of VLS email is a privilege and should be regarded as such. The privilege of using the email system may be revoked. When using VLS email, you are not only bound by any official school policy, but also by local, state, and federal laws relating to electronic media, copyrights, privacy, and security. Email is a legal document and may be subpoenaed.
VLS has adopted Microsoft Exchange/Outlook as the school’s email system. Your VLS email can be accessed from the VLS network or anywhere you have Internet access. If you would like information or instructions on setting up, syncing or accessing your VLS email account from a personal device please contact the Technology department. Not all devices support syncing to a Microsoft Exchange account.

Email Policy
- VLS reserves the right to review any and/or all emails passing through the school’s servers and networks.
- Email accounts remain available to students for a period of one-year following graduation, at which time the account is removed from the school’s email system.
- Vermont Law School’s Honor Code, Code of Conduct, and the Nondiscrimination and Sexual Harassment Policy found in the Student Handbook apply to all uses of electronic mail.
Software

Personal Productivity Software
Students are free to use productivity software of their choice. However, VLS has standardized on Windows 7 and Microsoft Office 2010. You may purchase software from the Technology department. Currently offered: Windows 7, Windows 8, Microsoft Office 2010 for Windows and Office 2011 for Mac. Contact the department for price and current availability.

Academic Software
You may have the option or be required by your professor to use your personal computer to take exams. Exam software is supported by a professor's academic assistant. It is not supported by the Technology department. See Use of Laptops in Classrooms for detailed information and acceptable-use policies.

Computer Labs
General use computer labs are located in Chase Center and Cornell Library. In addition to network printers, the labs provide computers with VLS-approved software for use by students on a first-come, first-served basis. There are program specific workstations in the legal clinics. If you require accommodations please contact the Technology department to make arrangements.

VLS Managed Computers Policy
- It is against policy to install, maliciously manipulate or remove software or hardware from computers owned and operated by VLS. This includes but is not limited to computers and printers in the Library Lab, Chase Lab, SRLC and ENRLC labs, Career Services, Law Review and VJEL locations. Monitors, keyboards and mice are not to be moved or disconnected.

Printing
At the beginning of each academic year, your printing account is credited $8.00 (800 pages @ a penny per page) for black and white printing for the fall and spring semesters. If you attend summer school, you are allocated an additional $4.00 (400 pages) that you may use to print at no additional charge. Two-sided printed pages count as a single printed page. Printing allowances/charges are cumulative. Color printing is not covered by your printing allowance. Color printing and copying is available in the Business Office, second floor of Abbott House, at the current per-page charge. If you are member of a student group or association (i.e., Law Review, The MCAB Board, Vermont Journal of Environmental Law), please check with the group regarding printing provisions.

Printing Policy
- If you exceed your printing allowance, each additional page will be charged to your student account at the current per-page charge. Prior to graduation you are required to pay your printing charge, if you have one.
- You are responsible for directing print jobs to the appropriate printer and ensuring that the printer is available. There will be no reimbursements for misdirected or lost print jobs.

Service and Support
Support for Personal Computers/Devices
Students are free to use a computer of their choice while a student at VLS and the Technology department provides ‘best effort’ personal computer support. However, it is impracticable for VLS to provide in-depth hardware and/or software support for the variety of devices students bring to campus. Support for student personal computers and devices are provided on a ‘best-effort’ basis, generally 15-20 minutes. Many computer issues can be resolved quickly. However, if the Technology department staff determines that a problem cannot be resolved in 15-20 minutes, and requires more in-depth troubleshooting and/or warranty support, you will be provided with a list of local computer dealers that are familiar with your particular brand of computer. A local computer dealer may offer special service rates for VLS students. Be sure to ask.

Personal Computer Support Policy
- Personal computers or other personal devices that connect to the VLS campus area network must have installed up-to-date software for identifying and remediating malicious software.
If it is determined that a device is infected with malicious software, the device will be denied access to the network.

Technology Service Request

A technology service request is normally required when seeking assistance related to your personal technology. The purpose of the service request is to help us clarify your particular problem and to ensure that a technology staff member is available to help you. The technology service request link is available on the Technology page on the VLS website.

If you have an emergency, please walk in or call the Technology department. An emergency is considered to be a technology problem that prevents you from using either your personal computer or a lab computer to complete required academic work. The Technology department reserves the right to determine whether a given situation meets the definition of an emergency or not.

AUDIO / VISUAL SUPPORT AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

AV staff provides on-campus service and support for events directly related to the educational mission of Vermont Law School. Please check the VLS Event webpage for up to date information. From time-to-time you may require audio-video services as part of your coursework or other VLS-sanctioned activities. Create a technology service request for audio-video support or email AVRequests@vermontlaw.edu for availability of specific audio-video services.

- AV setup requests, equipment loan requests, or revisions to a prior request must be submitted three (3) business days prior to the event. Insufficient notice requests (requests made less than 3 days’ notice) are considered low priority and may not be completed.
- There will be no A/V support for student events taking place off-campus.

Support and Priority of Service

Requests are given priority based on the amount of notice given. Support from VLS A/V staff is available under the following conditions (unless otherwise specified):

- Equipment requiring support is owned by VLS and coordinated by A/V staff.
- Event support as prearranged using the request methods above.
- Classroom and teaching events are always given priority over student groups or organizations.

Setups

A/V setups requests for student organizations may be provided during normal business hours only. A/V technicians are unable to accept setup requests during major events, including but not limited to:

- Admissions visit days or other admissions events
- Commencement, including the week prior to commencement
- Alumni reunion weekend
- Orientation and matriculation week
- Convocation and first week of classes

After Hours

Outside of normal business hours student organizations may request to borrow certain A/V equipment for on campus and directly related to the educational mission of Vermont Law School. Regardless of whether equipment is available, requestors should reserve a room on campus equipped with technology for an event if possible. When equipment is borrowed for afterhours use, the following conditions apply:

- Support may or may not be available – do not expect support.
- Failure to return equipment in good working order and in a timely fashion will result in suspended A/V privileges for that student organization. Organizations may be charged for repair or replacement of damaged or missing equipment.
- After hours A/V equipment requests require at least three business days advance notice and are subject to review. These requests may not be fulfilled.
• Equipment requests must be submitted by email to AVrequests@vermontlaw.edu.
• Requests will receive a response/confirmation with indication of equipment availability.
• Availability of equipment will be determined based on priority need and determined by the A/V staff.

Media Duplication
The Technology Department offers limited DVD and CD duplication. Additionally, we can transfer from DVD to VHS and from VHS to DVD. When bringing the originals to Technology for duplication, please bring blank media with you. Technology does not provide video or audio editing services for student groups; media is copied “as is.”

TOWN CRIER
How to Publish Your Event or Announcement in the VLS Town Crier: The Town Crier is a weekly email sent every Monday morning to everyone on campus. All events and announcements related to the entire community, or a large group of people on campus, are published in the Town Crier. This includes conferences, events sponsored by various departments, and all-campus announcements like changes in the library hours or Technology upgrades. Ongoing group meetings are not published, unless the meeting agenda is specifically related to the community at large. Request for rides, housing, and other “classified ads” will not be printed in the Town Crier. You can post those items on the VLS online “Bulletin Board” found here: http://forms.vermontlaw.edu/classified/classifiedzone. If your event meets the criteria above, it is easy to be published in the Town Crier.

All events, room reservations, and happenings in the Chase Breezeway are coordinated by Kathy McCullough. Simply check the Town Crier box on the various forms that are already used to schedule your event (found at www.vermontlaw.edu/events) and include a short 2-3 sentence explanation of your event. If all information is not provided, your event will not be published; no exceptions.

Once your request is confirmed by the Dean’s Office, your event details and explanation will be forwarded to the Town Crier for upcoming publication.

For announcements, non-event related, send the following information directly to towncrier@vermontlaw.edu, at least 24 hours in advance of your announcement.
• Announcement Title
• Date (including day of the week)
• Start Time
• End Time
• Location
• Brief Description
• Contact Persons
• Contact Email

If information is inaccurate, or incomplete, your announcement will not be published. The Town Crier has the final discretion as to what is published in the Crier, as well as the number of days published.

Farmers Markets
Farmers markets are a Vermont tradition, and are in almost every town. In South Royalton, they are on the Green on Thursday afternoons from mid-May through mid-October. Randolph and Norwich have Farmer’s Markets on Saturdays, and Chelsea’s are on Friday afternoons.

Grocery Stores & Supermarkets
South Royalton Market is the only full-service grocery store downtown. The Market offers conventional, organic and locally grown food; take out; home-made baked goods; bulk foods; and wine, beer, and brew making supplies. They will special order many health products upon request. The Market is a member-owned cooperative but you do not have to be a member to shop. Coop members receive discounts; your membership fee of $50 is refunded to you upon request. On the Green. Hours: M-Fri. 7:30-7:00, Sat. 8-5, Sun. 9-5, www.soromarket.com Phone 763-2400

There are many small general stores locally, such as the Sharon Trading Post. Their prices tend to be higher, but they are useful in a pinch and with the price of gas these days they can end up saving you money.
Conventional big box stores: There are three Shaw’s supermarkets in the area, one in Randolph and two in West Lebanon. Price Chopper and Hannaford’s also have stores in West Lebanon, NH.

LODGING
Depending upon the season, reservations are recommended for lodging accommodations. The Upper Valley is a popular tourist spot. Hotel rooms fill up quickly, especially during leaf season, skiing season, and when Dartmouth College is having special events such as football games, alumni weekend, and commencement. You should make arrangements for Vermont Law School Fall Alumni & Sports Weekend as soon as possible. For a link to local accommodations as well as maps and directions, visit the VLS home page.

NEWSPAPERS
Papers are available at Barrister’s Bookshop, depending on student requests. Corner Stop, at the junction of Routes 14 and 110, sells the widest selection of newspapers in South Royalton. Local papers include: Valley News (Upper Valley), Rutland Herald (best environmental state reporting), Burlington Free Press. The Herald of Randolph is a local weekly; 7 Days is a free alt-weekly. VLS Cornell Library's Reading Room has a wide variety of local, national and international newspapers and magazines to read in the library.

Please refer to the Dog Policy in the Student Handbook for a complete description of VLS policies. The South Royalton leash ordinance must be obeyed; do not let your dog roam freely in town. There are many cars, small children, and gardens that will either be hurt by your dog or will hurt it, if the dog is not on a leash. No dogs are allowed on the town green. You must scoop your pet’s poop when it is on other people’s property or on VLS grounds. Use the designated trail on Kent’s Ledge.

Ice Skating

Students often help build and maintain a skating area on the town green. Your help would be appreciated. Area ponds are transformed into rinks, including Silver Lake in Barnard, Upper Reservoir in South Royalton, and Occom Pond in Hanover. Other ice-skating rinks include the Municipal Rink, Barre, VT; Thompson Arena, Dartmouth College, Hanover, NH; Champion Rink, West Lebanon, NH; and Union Arena, Woodstock, VT, and the Hartford Municipal Arena, White River Jct., VT.

Skiing

www.skivermont.com (alpine, cross-country; snowboard links under “find your zone”). VLS Outdoors Club Activities Guide has extensive listings.

Biking

The VLS Outdoors Club Activities Guide has a biking section with local routes submitted by students. The best-paved roads are Rte. 110 north to Chelsea and Rte. 14 west, beginning a few miles north of Royalton: little traffic, rivers/rolling farmland. Bicycle rentals can be found at Woodstock Sports (457-1568) or Morris Bros. Mt. Bikes (296-2331).

Tennis

Courts open to the public are in Barnard, Bethel, South Strafford, and White River Jct., VT and Dartmouth College, Hanover, NH.

Canoeing/Tubing

Access the White River at the two bridges north of town. The spring snowmelt proves why it’s named the White. At that time it is not safe for canoes or anyone but expert kayakers. In the summer, the White River becomes heaven for slow and easy summer floaters in tubes; rent a tube from any of a half-dozen places on Route 14 and Route 107. Other fine rivers in Vermont for canoeing and kayaking include the Mad River (rentals at Clearwater Sports in Waitsfield); the Battenkill River (rentals in W. Arlington at Battenkill Canoe), and the Winooski River (rentals in Stowe at Umiak Outfitters). The Ledyard Canoe Club at Dartmouth 603-643-6709 accesses the Connecticut River. Silver Lake State Park, in Barnard, is the closest lake with canoes and paddleboats to rent.

Sports Equipment

SHOPPING
West Lebanon, NH–20 miles south on I-89 (first exit over the Conn. River). Typical strip mall stores–K-Mart, Wal-Mart, grocery stores, fast food chains, etc. Tourist shops, antique shops, etc. abound around the area (see Woodstock and Quechee). In addition to the Powerhouse Mall in West Lebanon, there are several larger malls in Burlington, one in Berlin, and one in Rutland, VT.

TRANSPORTATION

Zip Cars
A car payment, insurance, gas, snow tires and maintenance can all add up. All are included in a Zip Car membership. VLS has a Prius and a Ford Focus on campus. For $38 annual fee plus $8.50/hour, VLS Zip Cars are a good deal. Go to www.zipcar.com/vermontlaw

WEATHER
“If you don’t like the weather, just wait a minute!” is a Vermont-ism. Weather is serious business here as it can change many times during one day, and will differ from place to place. Put the VT Agency of Transportation travel information service web page on your toolbar www.511.com. The state’s 24-hour phone line of recorded weather updates is: 1-800-ICYROADS. Popular weather radio broadcasts include Roger Hill on WDEV (96.1 FM) and The Eye on the Sky on VPR (107.9 FM).
